Subs: Khalil Al Raimi 6, Magnus Tam-Isaacs 7, Miryan Vontreys -. BW: The costly purchase of Kenichi Ki last weekend gave Spencer Hart a few positional and aggression posers which were addressed in the nick of time for him to be able to field a more balanced side this week. William English and Pasha Threeknives come in while Storm Thorgerson, snapped up from this week's opponents Charleston SC, debuts in a makeshift defence which also sees a place for Kritzjan Draxx. * On the transfer front, Widows made unsuccessful approaches for Scottish prospects Brodie Hepburn and Niven Kirriemuir in the week whilst continuing to keep tabs on Able Rhain.

Subs: Salvatore Bertalona 6, Vimo 6, Randy Worthless -. EE: Mozes gets his first start this week due to Laudelino's continued absence through injury. He has one game to shine else he will return to the subs bench. Nothing else but a win will do or is expected this week with a clear skill point and home advance. With only 4 games to go, Burton knows he must win his home games and pick up points on the road if he is to be in the top tier next season.

Subs: Ricarr Bunce 7, Mathieu Brede 6, Thomas L'Tanque -. KB: Bambino welcome Richie Hill's men to Copperhead Road, in a match that is sure to be a shock result for Hill's men, with the referees help. Last week Bambino came away with only a point against the weaker Plaistow Exotets, thanks to dubious refereeing decisions. Bambino had the ball in the net three five times, but three of them were chalked off for offside, but video replays clearly show that two of them were bonafide goals. Bambino also had 18 free kicks given against them, which isn't the highest they have had this season, but at least five of them were given because Exotets' seemed to be all out to dive every time there was any contact. Charlie Knox and Julian Greensmith were both booked during the game; both for simulation - that's how bad it was. So, with the Spics being an even weaker side than Exotets, the referee is sure to be wearing a white top today! (Bitter and twisted, or what?)
