 BW: Black Widows Supporters Group chairman Tempus Fugit was disappointed in the build-up to today's match to learn that Spencer Hart would be opting for a sweeper system again. 'I was surprised to see two such defensive approaches from a home team at the start of a season,' he grumbled. Hart did respond on local radio prior to kick-off, stating that 'This is our strongest formation at present and more attractive attacking systems will follow as our options grow.'

Cairo Mummies	v	Canning Town Angels	1-1	30,000	£25.00	48:52	Morgan McGuffey
---------------	---	---------------------	-----	--------	--------	-------	-----------------

CM: Hallelujah Glory 29
 CTA: Morgan McGuffey 62
 Cairo Mummies (433) - Kendo Mitsubishi 7, Dezire Joy 7, Balliol Delacroix 8, Jan Van Amstel 7, Puma Caballero 6, Vasco De Veto 6, Sibene Dubrosnik 7, Gruber Ludendorff 8, Johnnie Law 6, Eldorado Tularosa 8, Hallelujah Glory 8. Subs: Luca Torre 6, Dragoman Volt 7, Gustav Skotkonung - .
 Canning Town Angels (523) - Magnus Ottoson 7, Guy Vexille 8, Valdir Carrumba 7, Xabi Sepulveda 6, Tom Hookton [bk 23] 6, Leopold Spivak 7, Drew Stanley 8, Ton Van Der Hoorn 6, Morgan McGuffey 9, Jazz Pringle 6, Aurelio Ezzelin 6. Subs: Mario McGuire 6, Artur Chakvenadze 6, Akechi Nobunaga - .
 CTA: Meg Young named a more defensive looking side for this week's clash with James Pearson's men, playing the same 523 that Spencer Hart played against them last week, in Widows 2-1 victory over Cairo. With Luca Torre and Dezire Joy carrying injuries for Cairo, thanks to the brutality of the Black Widows side in last week's game, Angels are hopeful of keeping their 100% undefeated record, in their second away game of the season. Eldorado Tularosa proved to be a handful last week, so 6ft 4in Spanish man-marker, Xabi Sepulveda is brought in to the Angels defence to try and cut down the threat, after he was so successful when he came off the bench last week and marked SVCs exciting Croatian striker, Dragan Sut, out of the game, preventing him from completing his hat trick. His performance merited a call-up to the Spanish squad this week, despite him only being on the park for 20 minutes and a good performance today could see him feature in this week's international match against Japan.

Warmington Bukigura	v	Kenkai Bambino	2-1	30,000	£25.00	53:47	Arquimedes Zulo
WB: Slansky Blazina 41 Aalbert-Pieters De Vries 54 KB: Timothy Kilduggan 23 Warmington Bukigura (424) - Chico Almestra 8, Kinnosuke Kimura 7, Akihiro Ichiyama [bk 82] 5, Hnedy Zvonaric 7, Algot Hagstedt [bk 64] 5, Dalindyeb Jammie 8, Pichi Alvez 8, Aalbert-Pieters De Vries 8, Slansky Blazina 8, Yosuke Yamada 6, Toraido Alanimos 6. Subs: Quique Bono De Quejo 6, Fortunato Fagnano 6, Willemte-Dirks Bakker - . Kenkai Bambino (424) - Blade Chaparro 7, Zanebono Di Maggeo 7, Othello Senzi [bk 18] 7, Barabus Bantucha [bk 81] 6, Arquimedes Zulo 8, Aurolio Zen 6, Zvagomir Cunjak 7, Jean Le Conquaroo 7, Leroy Joshua Lee 6, Declan Mulkeen 6, Timothy Kilduggan 8. Subs: Looshus Booboo 6, Alejandro Del Cid 6, Romeo Dantaquelo - . KB: The Bambino players, returning from international training, Blade "La Pantera" Chaparro, captain, Zanebono Di Maggeo and Othello Senzi, were thrown in at the deep end into Mick Dick's training regime with the rest of the players on Friday. Despite being with the rest of the Italian and Spanish internationalists for three hard days training prior to Friday, they still gave 100% and ran the steps of the North stand with everyone else. Di Maggeo has been hotly tipped to be awarded the Italian captaincy, but would not be drawn on the subject. He would merely comment that it would be an honour to just represent his country and the captaincy would be icing on the cake. The only change to the Bambino squad, from the side that beat Mike Edgington's men at Coperhead Road last week, is that promising 17 year old Argentinean left back, Arquimedes Zulo comes in for Looshus Booboo, who is carrying a slight ankle injury. Booboo has had pain killing injections so that he can take his place on the bench and but is expected to take a couple of weeks to fully recover from the off the ball stamping by Tangent's Cobus Van Dyke. Although Van Dyke was not penalised for the offence, it was caught on Camera, but Kenzie J Young refused to put the official complaint in that could have seen a retrospective caution being given. He told reporters that as far as he was concerned, it's a man's game and the boy got away with it. He did add, however, that he won't get off so lightly when he next visits Copperhead Road!
Nighthawks	v	Isca FC	3-1	30,000	£25.00	55:45	Ansgar Ulf
N: Joju Joli 19 Andreass Gok 51 Zezu Baptista 70 IF: Ansgar Ulf 66 Nighthawks (433) - Titas McDougal 7, Nitro Nighthawk 6, Jose Juan Pedro 8, Henri Lacourte 6, Magnus Love [bk 76] 5, Joju Joli 9, Iriome Elusundo 6, Mihovil Drazan 9, Andreass Gok 8, Zezu Baptista 8, Luigi Del Alexandre 7. Subs: Arnie Araboo 6, Manii Cortez 6, Young McCloud - . Isca FC (334) - Arthul D'Nonga [bk 34] 6, Thor Schnell 8, Dagfinn Emil 6, Rödvan Succavjic 6, Hamish McSweeney [bk 18] 7, Jorge Ramirez 8, Royston Trent 6, Bochna Padongo 6, Ansgar Ulf [bk 40] 9, Tikaro Katoamataau 7, Lodewijk Bartholomeus 7. Subs: Heikki Jocabson 6, Ezequiel Ildefonso 6, Hawk Lavone - . N: Manager Andrew Clapham has called their first home game as a must win. Even a loss at home this early on could see Nighthawks in a relegation battle. Andreass Gok is the first major signing of the season, and the Croatian attacker will make his home debut as the hawks revert back to their favoured 4-3-3. Player to watch: Iriome Elusundo. IF: After last week's draw against a useful Warmington Bukigura side, head coach Paul Davie has made a couple of changes bringing German defender Thor Schnell in and the new boy Heikki Jocabson gets a place on the bench. Playing away Davie implied he would be happy to take a draw, with 3 points being a bonus.

Subs: Karl Cobber 7, Sdjiforno Karmalo 6, Ian Dalow - . AFB: After a good 1-1 away draw with Dynamo Dobson in week 1, Adam Vinn is looking for his side to pick up their first league win in their first game at the Brighton Hill Stadium. Kieron Davenport's Blundeston Outer Circle are the visitors, and Vinn hopes for a capacity 35,000 crowd. Vinn was pleased with the performance in the previous game, especially Michel Dechevillier, who Vinn is tipping to be the next Victor Davion. Vinn also expects his moves in the transfer market to yield positive results, and will be looking to continue to improve his playing staff over the coming weeks.

Subs: Eifflin Von Kämme 7, Jostein Forways-Tate 7, Cuno Wecelo - . KV: Kai Young is playing the same formation that beat Plaistow so convincingly last week. The sale of Cal Maloliente to Richy Hill's men sees new signing Walter Solis come into central defence. Valenos other new signing, Ricarr Bunce makes the bench, although he is likely to take part in the game at some stage. AFC travel to the Burrone Di Serpente in the hope that they can keep their unbeaten record and keep the number one spot in the League, but league favourites, Valeno, expect a capacity crowd who will cheer them on to victory. AFC have complained bitterly about only being allocated 500 tickets for the game, but Kai Young pointed out that the new South stand isn't yet completed and when it is, he said with a wry smile, they'll get 600 tickets!

Subs: Tori Ito 7, Da'Quarry Proobe 7, Maximo Encarnacion - . PE: Having been given the Captains armband, Mikuak graciously repaid Swindells show of trust by grabbing a brace last week against Veleno, much to the delight of the visiting fans. This week brings on an early bottom of the table clash whereby "The Con" hopes to pick up 3 points. When interviewed on Channel 27 news he said "It is early to tell, but I think the players gelled well. Despite the loss, I think there could be silverware heading for our trophy cabinet this season..." Interesting stuff...

FC: Club Captain Kurt Van Vossen's late dismissal in the club's very first match soured what was otherwise a good start to the season. Despite a solid performance and essential home victory the local press has described the club as already in crisis - claiming that dressing room strife over the captaincy is threatening to destabilise the season before it is fully underway, and explains Van Vossen's ridiculous late challenge in their first match. Manager Joseph Burrigge dismissed such speculation and asked to be judged once the side has played at least 7 more games: 'Right now all you media types know absolutely nothing about this team' was all he would say on the record. Young Croatian midfielder Zvonimir Vinic has shown his commitment to the club and his boss by promising to train extra hard this week in order to be at his peak when he makes his first team debut deputising for the missing skipper.
