EE: Elementals supremo has changed things around somewhat in pre-season in preparation for the new season against the big guns. Hammerfox has come into an already strong defence in an attempt to keep some of the top strike forces out with other additions Fjellstrom in midfield and San Juan bolstering the attack. Elementals face a stern test in week one against Olympic with Burton predicting a high score draw! BSO: ~LAST WEEK~ "The odds were stacked against us" grimaced a forlorn Marky Mark before the last match day of season one - Molinari, Gerro all brutally half killed in the dogfight that is the 3rd Division PLUS two senior Pro's seeing their skill dropped when the team needed it most - NEEDING a win to secure the title, BSO cruised to 2-0 lead in 54 minutes with Sinko Santos plopping a couple of cheeky lobbs over Marquee's outstretched arms - disaster struck - stalwart jock defender Fintyre saw red in the 74th minute - FC Cosmos got one back in the 75th minute sending twitching arses all around the Astro Road Stadium - Winchmore did all they could in coming back from losing 3-1 to win 5-3 at Stoneleigh but Olympics 8 goal difference proved decisive on a glorious 1st Einnek Next Generation season for the "Funky Bunch" in being one of only 5 sides to kiss silverware - "We'll miss the good lads in the that division, but no doubt we'll see them again soon" mused Gaffa Croasdale ~TRANSFERS~ Aussie Keeper Ryan was ousted for a young French geezer and a Dutch Netherland Defender with caps from Holland also making his way from the Vinnsta's Basingstoke outfit - A mega money deal with Bristol based Eastville Rovers saw hardman Kian Appelby stroll into the HolithWall ground with attitude and mucho aggression ~THIS WEEK~ The toughest tie ever awaits BSO with ELA playing at least 60 skill points to BSO's 58 - Croasdale, a big admirer of Burtona's work at the Fieldview Thunder Dome, commented 'this is our best test yet so far in ENG' - "theyve got high skills with mucho WACS and are fully equipped to make an assault on the 1st proper Premier Division title" - "Let's hope we scab a draw, he added" ~LAST MEETING~ No previous meetings, but BSO did get a 1-1 away first time out last season in Div3 ~INTERNATIONALLY~ no games this week but Molinari, Appelby and Toth are looking to get form ahead of the Week 2 fixtures - Boss Croasy reckons he can field a full 1st 11 of International A teamers when all fit and not in suspenders ~AND FINALLY~ Hyper-ventilating Gaffa Croasy commented "No other manager has said they have a good chance of winning this Division" - "All the best teams are involved" - "We have Hart, D'port, Herd in the immediate games then Young on the last day" - these are the games you look forward too in the Einnek league - Its all good folks - "I'd luv it if we beat them" he spluttered out in a technicolor Guinness induced yawn

Subs: Benito Capucci 6, Murdo McConachie 7, Gustin Jax -. CM: 24yr old Brazilian, Carlos Augusto, makes a rare start today; a Sammy Bull signing from midway through the first season, he has, up until today, only made a couple of appearances for the first team. Kilgour Neagle, another agent player signed last season, is also expected to start; another whose chances have been limited. Massive Columbian defender, Valencia Bogota, is also expected to start but new Swedish striker, Sten Holm, will have to make do with a place on the bench. Today's opponents, West Leigh, are amongst the favourites to take the 2nd Division title, so JP is crossing everything in the hope his side don't falter at the first hurdle today. Big crowd expected, with an additional 10,000 seats having been recently installed.
