There's nothing between the sides for what promises to be an engaging encounter with Spencer Hart having been busy in the week bringing in new faces. Out go defensive star Quantizao, Bull midfielder McCurrach and Guiharda with Cuevas, Neddaerwind, ven Marinus and Waymouth coming in to add considerable experience across the side. Another coup was the capture of Brock Summers, a snip at a measly £2m. However with Hart now faced with a selection headache up front, ven Marinus and Summers both look set to miss out today with Alexi Kashentsev holding onto his starting slot. * This week's signings left Widows light at the back so striker Kodi McPhee's introduction has been put back in favour of the promotion of youngster Ramsay Caulfield from the youth setup. The English defender sits this one out but is expected to make the starting line-up this season.

Black Star did win the shot count though, 9 on target to 3 ~TRANSFERS~ Too busy with Spens fanzine for deals! ~THIS WEEK~ Team FB continue their quest for medals, as the Deliverance are the visitors today as Trow's men boast a 2-0 win over Olympic earlier in the season. Head Coach Marky Mark announced "I love coming up against double D's" ~LAST MEETING~ DD 2-0 BSO Match Day 8 where 6 HSP's met 6 as 4-2-4 DD met 4-3-3 BSO - Team FB trainer Howard Cocker Postill re-iterated "We all love playing with double D's" as if to labour the crap gag - 7 players including sub goalie Jack Clackett no longer remain at the club following that fateful day ~TEAM SELECTION~ In the starting blocks will probably be the same Team FB line up, but who knows who will pass the qualifying rounds and the dreaded repechage, whatever that is - Bogdan Zvonimir and Sinkos Santos look favourites for bench starts with Holy Joli not being passed the baton. The starting triplet of international strikers with 43 goals between them this season & a combined total of 83 goals between them in their league careers and 14 internationally, should any of these attackers underperform then Sinkos Santos is waiting in the wings with 25 career goals from 40 games + 3 international goals! ~INTERNATIONALLY~ 7 players were in the medals last week with Haarm Van Haarmen striking gold in the form of IMOM for Hollands Dutchmen of the Netherlands. Causing Olympic Gaffa Croasy to comment "A seven nation army couldn't hold them back, they're gonna rip it off, taking their time right behind my back" - Going for Gold this week? The Good Man cometh! ~AND FINALLY~ Keeping the Olympic dream alive is foremost in Team FB Mentor Croasy's mind "We want to be on that podium come the end of the race"
