CH: Hearts make 3 changes to the starting line up for this week's visit of ELA Elementals with New signings Pancho Bocanegra & Piero Schiaparelli joining captain Eldon Wrath for their debuts. Youth player Dilwyn Cadoc also makes an appearance on the bench this week. EE: This week Burton moved to strengthen his strikeforce further with Cattleman aka Journeyman/Barndoor joining his squad. Burton told the press that he had been on his wanted list for some time and intended to remove the journeyman tag by giving him a fair crack at succeeding at the club. "Hopefully once he settles he'll be hitting those barn doors for fun again!"

Black Star Olympic BSO: Ray Mulvane 18 Che Gerro 71 BW: Gioacchino Quagliaccia 35	v	Black Widows	2-1	30,000	£25.00	51:49	Kym Hasakimoro

Subs: Zafro Quartero 6, Maol-Iosa Talacharn 7, Miryan Vontreys -. BSO: ~LAST WEEK~ The defeat at the Thunder Dome which opened BSO's Premiership campaign was almost entirely to blame on young French keeper "Bad Lad" Badalian - a rash challenge on fellow countryman Dechevillier in the area gave Skocic a chance from the spot to open the scoring which he duly did. Bad Lad saw red for the challenge and BSO faced an uphill challenge from there on. An equaliser from "Captain for the 2nd season" Mendiguchia gave him the MoM award but a late winner from ELA saw BSO taste defeat for only the 3rd time ~TRANSFERS~ As a result of this "performance" Bad Lad was instantly put on the transfer market and was snapped up by a passing elderly filthpot for a decent amount of cash and a 4 pack of McEwans - Elsewhere Straker mans Aussie team mate Raymond Mulvane switched the 2nd Division for the Premiership as he was fed up being a Mummies Boy (I bet I'm the first to crack that gag !)- International Superstar Straker commented "Raysters a good lad and luvs the XXXX, were gonna boss the midfield for club and country" - they were later seen comparing Holly Valance tattoo's - kiss kiss ~THIS WEEK~ BSO's 1st home game is overshadowed by the tussle between two highly capped Cameroon defenders - Dele Orr famously jumped the good ship BSO in the last week of last season for two "Donkey" Sk5's to help Olympic boost its injury ravaged squad and secure the 3rd Div title - However in the close season BSO captured Orrs long time International Defensive team mate Kian Appleby in a multi-million pound deal from Bristol - BOTH on 2 form dots, only Orrs B team 1 cap advantage separates the pair, as 9IP's plays 8IP's - Which means the difference between starting on the bench or in the full line up - Can Appleby bridge the 19 IR difference before the International ??? ! - Molinari replaces Bad Lad in goal, Jock Fintrye takes Toth place in Defence, Raymondo makes his debut in midfield, Gerro is fit enough to lead the Attack after 2 weeks injured ~LAST MEETING~ Spensers Alaska Huskies 2-1 Blackburn Olympic in Old E1 me think ! ~LAST SEASON~ Week 2, BSO beat Walmington Rovers 2-1 despite a D. Chunkster equaliser ~INTERNATIONALLY~ Moilnari hopes to get the call up for the Argies - Appleby awaits his tussle with Orr and Toth is looking for a miracle from the bench for the Croats ~AND FINALLY~ Talks are ongoing with a number of clubs regarding champagne dance's BW: Quentin Sevenoaks returns to strengthen a solid Widows' backline that is expected to continue deploying the sweeper system. Spencer Hart's team looks a good match for BSO who rather ominously have a full quota of players available after a succession of injuries and suspensions, with the midfield battle looking as if it could well be decisive. Blackburn's Aussie duo of Straker and Mulvane alongside skipper Mendiguchia is among the most formidable midfields in the league with Widows' promising but unrealised duo of Adams and their own Aussie William English set to face the battle of their lives!

TA: Dave Newell hailed his return after being away from the club on Gardening Leave, with the signing of four new players. USA no.1 Charlie Knox joins the club to replace hot-headed Japanese keeper Masaji Arai, after a season in which Arai head butted one striker and punched another Dave Newell moved to sign "Fort" Knox. Joaquin Zazarro, who never met his early potential and Tuatu Jombe, a young starlet, also left to Plaistow Exocets. Joining Advertencia was English gentleman striker, Julian Greensmith whose cultured left foot is expected to bring more style to Advertencia's front line. Muira Hasegawa is another playmaker in the mould of Lasa, who is definitely one for the future. Lastly youth player, and Columbian, Octavio Rúa has finally joined the club after his work permit was given. On Einnek Sports News Dave Newell was once again to the point "Who we playing tomorrow? Athletic FC Basingstoke? Southern Jessies."

EM: With the first game of the season out of the way, Justin Riseborough is glad that his team has got off to a comfortable winning start. He went onto to say that our home form is key this season, and if we can make the Ruwi Galacticus Complex a fortress, that could be enough to keep the team in the Second Division. He was also very pleased with his new team members especially the performance of inform German Striker Naaman Maas, who looks like he could be hitting the right sort of form for club and country.
