BSO: ~LAST WEEK~ A thrilling 3-3 with The Radiation made it 3 draws in a row againts The Herds men - A sensational perfect performance by 9 capped Kian Appleby saw him become the 1st BSO player to be named Player of the Week ~TRANSFERS~ Tito joins from The Titans to add back up for the midfield ~THIS WEEK~ Steve Farndens Rovers provide the opposition, but an injury to star defender Nakano leaves them a bit short at the back, Gaffa Croasy may counter this with an aggressive 3-3-4 formation to force his hand ~LAST SEASON~ It was 2-1 to Olympic at Home with Trebarjevo and Chunkster among the goalscorers in wk2, yet in wk13 it was 2-1 to Rovers ~INTERNATIONALLY~ Brazilian Sinko Santos is called up from the subs bench to claim his rightful place in the 1st 11 - In the B games Zschokke should get a hail from the German selectors and STARMAN Appleby should captain the Cameroon maybe alongside team mate Desire Joy ~AND FINALLY~ Newscaster Troy McClure laughed off the claims of Reilloc Elite's new news writer that they will write more coherent news ... "They peaked when they mentioned Latona Roarks plectrum or was that us?" burped the booze riddled lush - Whilst on the subject of Kubstas men they have an amazing 4 founder members of the BSO line up in Trebarjevo, Roark, Lochaber and Howinho ! - Fancy a bid for Frederic Abálsamo Molinari & Jaimenacho Mendiguchia, Mate ??? and I believe Stew may accept an offer for Muz Frobisher !!!!

RE: Finally, the Reilloc news writer returns from his sabbatical - no more having to worry about not getting the finest news in the whole of NGE, nay even the world. Last week's 4-3 triumph over Tombstone Trojans, having been 3-1 down after 20 minutes, has given the fans hope that this season will see more firepower in the Reilloc front line, with former Elite Adam Reardon unable to prevent the home side notching an impressive four goals. Gaffer Kubba was quick to praise Sho Saotome, who was allowed to leave the club earlier last season only to return in the closing weeks, and whose tally for the season is now 4. However, Elite face a difficult away tie to the Prophets next week, and Saotome said he doesn't expect another bucket of goals in that match. The big transfer news is the exchange of two Team of the Year players between Kubba and Paul Vincent at Sirocco Whitecaps. Goalie of the Year Bob Ritchie, JB Vaillant (brought in by Agent Cruso), Ollie Winters and Bully talent Jay Columbo left Black Forest Road with Edgar Van Den Brun, another Bully talent, and Team of the Year midfielder Paulino Eber Fianco coming over to Elite. Kubba said that he was particularly sad to see Ritchie leave, but he'd had a difficult start to the season and needed to move on. Last year's sub Enrica Howinho has been so impressive that he actually retained his place despite the capped Van Den Brun being fit to play. Sinan Kubba also stated that he thinks Fianco is the perfect partner Elite have been looking for to sit alongside Trebarjevo in midfield, although he also said that new signing Wojciak from SVC07 has done well so far and is assured of first-team football this year. In other news, Kubba has stated that he hopes Reilloc Elite's news writer will choose to rise above the drunken ramblings of that madman news writer over at Black Star Olympic, and strive to set an example for other news writers in this difficult time... for news writers.

Allan Moss thinks that it will be a matter of time before he makes his first cap for Brazil. Terry Burton has also been in brilliant form this season with 4 goals in 4 starts. The rest of the forwards have been benefiting from his experience during training. Club captain Jurgen Blanc is fairly happy with the start that Littleton have made, but he wants more from the team. He wants the club to be winning promotion this season. The supporters on hearing this were very pleased and think that the right decision was made to give Jurgen the captaincy after Alvinos departure.
