Last season we scored plenty of goals but this season they seem to have dried up a little. A new more attacking formation has been put into use for the next few games. Jurgen Blanc has been getting all of the players to do extra attacking training with shooting practice being a very important part of this. The manager feels that we can improve greatly on the three draws that the Rovers already have and turn these into wins. Moss Road has had all its work finished now and boasts a maximum capacity of 83,000. The ground now is one of the best in the world.

Subs: Pal Ek 7, Sam Blyth 6, Cuero Pisquin -. CL: ~"LAST WEEK"~ A hard fought victory for the Lawbreakers last week against Plaistow Excots saw an impressive display from Ady Blyth's team...the 4-3 win saw all of the English attack line Blyth has built give a solid show three of the four got on the score sheet. The game was ruined by Cruso Star and England International Burton Wragg being dismissed in the 80th minute for a shocking challenge that left Excots Cesar Marquez needing treatment. This dismissal now means that Wragg misses both the game against Dynamo Dobson and the England International versus Croatia. ~"THIS WEEK"~ The Lawbreakers travel to Dob Park and take on bottom of the league Dynamo Dobson - a game Ady Blyth feels his players will need to put on a top performance to get the points. In goal for Dobson will be Thomas Griffin - the lad with an English name with Russian connections and is a player Blyth has described as the man to beat! Ady Blyth hands debuts to three players - Tam McEwan replaces Sam Blyth who drops to the bench, Moises Llorens comes in for the injured Pal Ek and Johnny Dallas replaces the suspended Burton Wragg. All three are new signings are from Chesterman Utd. ~"LAST MEETING"~ This is the 1st meeting between these two teams ~"TRANSFERS"~ As mentioned previously Ady Blyth dealt with Lawrence 'loza' Long this week to secure 4 new players for the Lawbreakers. Hard hitting defender Tam McEwan, Future star Benigno Vargas, pacey midfielder Moises Llorens and USA target man Johnny Dallas all join the club with Crusos Genio Gabriel Juarez and Tinjo Mozes moving to The Old Camp. ~"INTERNATIONALLY"~ Two Lawbreakers make the England team with 'Milky Bar Kid' Joshua Lee starting and in-form striker Matthew 'Samba' Sansum making the bench thanks to Burton Wragg being suspended. Marcio Yunque will be the reserve keeper for Argentina with Benigno Maximo having to wait a little longer before featuring in the Argentina international plans - surely a call up is just weeks away! ~"AND FINALLY"~ Blyth is still on the look out to improve his team.... defence would appear to be the priority, followed by midfield. Few would argue the front line needs changing - the strikers are all on top form!
