EE: Two wins on the trot has taken Elementals back to the top of the league but the division is so close another couple of bad results could see it all change again, with that in mind Burton knows he must get something from the game with the Black Widows. Duverger has exited the club this week which saw the arrival of Fianco and Malo who go straight into the team and McLavell who warms the bench. Burton hopes that the loss of a skill point in the short term wont affect the next few weeks performances.

BSO: LAST WEEK~ Lancashire Playboy and self confessed gobshite, Mark-E Dale, was dismayed at his side's 2-0 defeat to The Trow, after his side spunked-up 15 shots to 10 and matched The Delivery Boys in a skill point match-up - In fact, Wk7 saw the clubs biggest victory whilst Wk8 saw their biggest defeat ! - Causing Channel69 Sports/Sex pundit Sir James of Greaves to titter "Its a funny owld game!" ~TRANSFERS~ a furtive enquiry by The Kubbssta came to nothing, and an equally furtive try the other way to Richy "king-of-the" Hill fell on stumbling blocks after initial interest ~THIS WEEK~ Sir Claps of Darwin is the visitor, as The Gaffa tells the squad to "get ugly" against AAC Nighthorks in preparation for their all important cup clash with big Dave Newells "Dogs of War" in the following game ~SELECTION DILEMA~ Gerro is hottly tipped to be back in the starting 11, with Simoncelli pushing for a unexpected place on the bench after impressing in recent Krap .... er Kram League games ~LAST MEETING~ No previous meetings .... but Funky Bunch Supremo Markity Croaz did win one of The Claps online pool tournaments back in the day ! - The Black Star Gaffa holds much respect for his oppsite number today after personally witnessing his progression up the leagues in an AAC golden spell back in the 90's ~INTERNATIONALLY~ Sinko Santos looks set to play just the three games this match-day Friday, as he's in line to play both A and B team games for the mighty Brazilians - facing the Samba squad in the B game will be Olympic skipz Jaimenacho Mendiguchia(C) and the mighty Che Gerro who last week became the 1st BSO player to get an 8 rating from the bench - INFO BURST - (Che 'Guevara' Gerro, although born in Argentina, was brought to the Mexicano Premia Liga by Cuban super-agent Snr Gastro, many suspected it was a socialist propaganda act but no one proved he was on the fidel ! .... bum-tisch) - Also a good performance by Tito Simoncelli could see him slip into the Ita squad, "with a littl' bit o' flamin' lack !" muttered Channel69 Sports/Sex pundit Sir Cockney James of Greaves shortly before being shown a document containing the letters P and numbers 4 and incidentally 5 ~PITCHSIDE~ "Up the Dale, down the Ale" was to be heard from the Hol'i'th'Wall faithfull before todays hottly anticipated ding-dong-do, as the Olympians get excited about the prospect of seeing 7 home games in 9 weeks .... The home fans adoration of their manager is getting into sycophantic-realms ..... as another terrace anthem favourite testifies ""He's the greatest dancer"" in the pub-stylee of the Sister Sledge classic ~AND FINALLY~ It came out in local press reports that buxom Black Star tea-lady Michelle P'horn mistakenly served crap-suzette instead of crêpes-suzette to a visiting rival manager, much hilarity was to be heard on hearing her accidental error, although its yet to be heard if the shoinan one saw the funny side

Subs: Hiroki Tendo 6, Gethin Willarthen 6, Edgar Van Den Brun -. RE: Reilloc's topsy turvy season continues - big wins at home but big losses away. Two weeks ago the Elite recieved a 4-goal spanking at the hands of Paul Vincent's Whitecaps, but this week they instead put 4 goals past Neil Hurst's Pirates. The win took Elite back to the top, but gaffer Sinan Kubba has begun to show signs that he doesn't have faith in the current squad's ability to win promotion to the Premier by making some mid-season transfer inquiries. The rumour mill has it that he's had an offer turned down for one Premier Division striker but that he's made an offer for another. In other news this week, playboy Romano Bellisa is set to make his debut in this week's game against Eastville Rovers. Kubba has underlined that Reilloc need to take something from this game, especially with Rovers' inspirational captain Stephao out through suspension. Whether they can or not will depend on James Francis' defence being able to keep out the in-form Australian Ralph Bugden. BREAKING NEWS: Reilloc Elite have secured the signing of Cruso talent Gabriel Duverger from ELA Elementals. The 27-year-old goes straight into the starting line-up for this week's game despite rumours of a dubiously-passed fitness test. The deal has seen long-time favourite Thierry Malo, Eber Fianco who hadn't really settled at Black Forest Road and stalwart defender Fez McLavell leave the club, whilst Welsh youth prospect Willarthen joins Duverger at Elite. Kubba is well aware that the deal is something of a gamble but he hopes that Duverger will prove to be an investment both in the short-term push for promotion and in the long-term thanks to his experience. MORE BREAKING NEWS: It's now been confirmed that Reilloc were chasing Branimir Pero, Black Star Olympic's Croatian striker, with Kubba travelling to the club to discuss the bid with manager Mark Croasdale. Kubba had little to say on the matter except that the BSO club canteen "should be absolutely frigging ashamed of themselves". Oh dear.

CL: ~"LAST WEEK"~ The Lawbreakers had an inspired 3-2 over Vectis Raiders, man of the moment Burton Wragg hit a stunning hat trick to sink the raiders and walk off with the match ball. ~"THIS WEEK"~ Aody Blyth comes up against Cairo Mummies and a player he has long wanted in his Calico squad - Hallelujah Glory. Its a close game to call and Blyth has admitted a draw would be a good result. ~"TRANSFERS"~ Former player, Columbian, Yuma Encinitas rejoins the club this week with Sammy Bull player Narcisso Ricotora heading in the opposite direction to Siricco Whitecaps. The move may be frowned upon by many however Aody Blyth was keen to hold onto the player but had to allow him to leave when the option to sign Matthew Sansum came up earlier this season. Now with Yuma only making the bench for the Whitecaps, Blyth jumped at the chance to sign the player back and his much awaited Calico return could only be a week away! Youth prospect Costilla Escondido joins his cousin Aztec in the world of Einnek this week. Aztec was part of the Lawbreakers team earlier this season before moving onto Vectis Raiders however Blyth didn't feel Costilla was up to the challenge but 14 goals in 7 reserve games has made Blyth promote the player who is expected to play some part in the game this week. ~"INTERNATIONALLY"~ Only Quique Bono De Quejo is in contention for any international action this week as he has a shot at making the Mexico B team ~"AND FINALLY"~ Furlon Cooper's stay with the Lawbreakers could soon be coming to an end.... rumours from the training ground are that he is struggling to cope with being in the shadows of Burton Wragg, Leroy Joshua Lee and Matthew Sansum who all have a shot at playing for England this season.
