Subs: Thiago Urruchúa 6, Kurt Van Vossen 7, Rinat Todorov -. CS: Manager Alan Murphy is happy to put pressure of a poor transfer window from fans behind him as the team get back to winning ways. A sensational victory over the highly rated promotion contenders AC Legacy was just the tonic. Former Brazilian captain Rafael Riego smashed home a hat trick to prove the doubters wrong that he's over the hill. Inspirational defensive rock marshalled the defence well again and Snuffy Walden chipped in with a goal on his return to the side. Fraser Tymber Cools played for the USA b team and is now the number one choice for the a team. Next week Star start the defence of their EFA cup at home to 3rd division Cosmos. On paper Star should be favourites but manager Murphy is hopeful the players play to their capability and that should see them through to round 2. A difficult few weeks after that in the league so the momentum is welcome. Tombstone Trojans

ER: New Signings Llywellyn Jereward & Nicomedes are both in line to make their debuts this week for the cup clash. Manager Steve Burge is confident these signings will turn around the awful form shown of late. CL: Ady Blyth plays a full strength side in the cup this week despite being tempted to play Matt Trutwein and new signing Culshaw Dauntless in his starting eleven. Both players will start from the bench and Truetwin could well be in line for another Wales cap in the B international this week.

CW: Wanderers will be hoping to get back on track with a win against AFC Kennington in the cup, having lost the last two league games. Maurice Hooqadew & Tremayn Kilgareth both get another chance despite having started the season not as well as expected. With both expected to play for the Welsh B team this week it is hoped both will pick up in form. Rumour has it however should they both fail to impress this week they could be on the move, with Bambino their likely destination. Debuts are given to defensive pairing Mujeres & Ivanoff product Magon. Both are hoping to shore up a defence that leaked four goals last week. Wanderers are boosted by the renewed form of Mohinda Jalion who picked up MOM in Cameroon B international last week. The defender was the subject of much transfer speculation leading up to the game & after having been knocked back on a couple of deals, manager Nikki Wigg was grateful that the teams he was offered to, turned her down!!!! Another in form player, Luigi Del Alexandre, hopes to continue his great start to the season by helping Wanderers to victory in this 1st round cup match. The Italian striker has been impressive since being given his chance over the past few weeks. Del Cid gets another chance in the midfield after his impressive debut last week. A performance that sees him move into 1st choice for the Mexicans in this weeks B international.

BW: After spending much of the week suffering the shock of losing out on Shuggie Rook last week, Spencer Hart only made tentative moves on the transfer front instead of parting with Pueblo Sasi like he had earlier threatened. Instead, Black Widows fans get to see two low-key Ivanoffs from AFC Basingstoke make their debuts in today's friendly - a move which allows the team to switch to 4-3-3 for the first time. Cezar Lobo and Gabriel Sachs are well down their respective international pecking orders, with Lobo in particular having a real challenge ahead of him to make any impression on a tough Mexican midfield - but Spencer Hart is happy to run with Alessandro's judgement and give the youngsters a fair crack of the whip today.

Subs: Michel Dechevillier 7, Naaman Maas 6, Hans Grönemeyer -. EE: ~LAST WEEK~ An expected 2-1 defeat to Warmington Rovers. No surprises said Burton in a press conference! ~TRANSFERS~ Speculation surrounding Vukovic intensified this week with several parties showing interest in the goalscorer, he finally made his move to Chesterman Utd midweek along with 3 other internationals in exchange for ever improving Jesse Dash. ELA have been dropping skill points lately with players running out of WACS and Burton wanted to strengthen his squad with an extra skill point even if several top players left the club. Only time will tell if this was a wise move or not! ~THIS WEEK~ Elementals have a welcome BYE into the next round of the cup and are therefore having a friendly match with Davenport's Disciples. Several first team players will be rested this week to see what the fringe players are made of, new signing Jesse Dash is left out of the squad altogether due to a hamstring strain. Result isn't important stressed Burton. ~INTERNATIONALS~ After a fine run of form Cirino has nailed down his 1st team place in the Elementals squad and should get his first taste of international football this week for Spain B team.
