Black Star Olympic (424) - Théodore Sitta 8, Kian Appleby [bk 53,50 57] 5, Haarm Van Maanen 7, Beda Zschokke 9, Quentin Sevenoaks 6, Jaimenacho Mendiguchia 7, Paul Straker 7, Santiago Villanueva 8, Sanford Dole [bk 43] 8, Zezu Baptista 8, Branimir Pero 7. Subs: Stevie Tribe 6, Guillermo Ospina 7, Franck Herien -. BSO: Muchos apologies to Black Star team news fans after a no show last week brought hundreds of emails of protest to the BSO club inbox, illness gripped the manager as he lost 9lbs in a rather bad infection.... Week 8 - Matt D handed out a good spanking as New D's beat BS Olympics 3-1.... Week 9 - Big Josies Bambs were the visitors and a highly entertaining 7 goal thriller was fought out, with the Funky Bunch clinching victory in the last few moments of the game thanks to Dole boys 88th minute scissor kick with triple pike.... Old Boy Hookton saw red for the visitors and even older boy Orr picked up a card too Transfers - Big Josie offered a tempting carrot, but found his way travelling back up the M6 with the carrot unfit for dangling! how rude! Cup 2nd Round - Brother in law/ Nephew combo The Hoghton Sherringtons are the visitors with Gaffa Croasy guessing they'll select another 5-2-3 formation, much like the last 9 weeks despite the good advice of favourite Uncle.... Team Selection - 4-2-4 is favoured once more with the only dilemma being which international star to play from the bench, the new young South African looks favourite to miss out to his more experienced squad mates Internationally - Appleby did a job for the Camerouns last week but there qualification is still in the balance and it looks like they'll have to nail the Russians to ensure progression to the knock out stages - Starkerman and Doleboy look well placed with Aussies after 2 wins in 2 with newly formed Colombia to play This week Mendiguchai and Santiago Villanueva look to help the Meccicarns in a Latino fandango against the Spaniards.... Youth Team - 3 wins out of 3 put BSO back in Div1 and a 1st cap for Fodorov may mean a promotion to the full ranks in future weeks.... And finally - special mention to BSO original member Wouter Bos having been introduced and ironically retired by Funky Bunch supremo's last week ... a solid performer gained 4 caps for his country the Dutch Netherlands in Holland spent most of his career away from the Holli'th'Wall ground ... thankfully !

He was quoted as saying that if they did somehow snatch a win, he would be more than happy to do a "Jig". When asked if that Jig would be naked, he responded by saying that depends on the scoreline. There is a return to the starting line up this week for Qezada, yet still no place in the starting XI for new Cruso signing Talacoosa, who is still getting to know his new team mates.	v	SVC07	3-2	45,000	£25.00	49:51	Carson Ramerez

Another gamble paying off 2nd home game running! ~TRANSFERS~ Things have settled down at Elementals this week with no deals being done. When Hammerfox returns next week Burton should have a bit more to play with in terms of squad size but nothing big is expected now for a few weeks. ~THIS WEEK~ The welcome relief of the cup is here with a home draw. In two decades as an Einnek manager he has yet to get a glimpse of cup silverware and there is a growing unrest at the Iron Web for a smidgen of success on some front this season. Widows appear to have a slight advantage over Tangents in some areas but, as has often been the case this season, not in midfield - where Mick Edgington's men certainly have the upper hand.	v	Black Widows	2-1	45,000	£25.00	53:47	Jasper D'Hondt

Subs: Jackson Killdeer 7, Samuel Ridgecrest 7, Matt Trutwein -. CL: ~LAST WEEK~ An aggressive 2-1 loss to Littleton Rovers saw suspensions and injury's ruin the Calico squad for this weeks cup game. Ken Jiro was sent off, Tijno Mozes was stretchered off, Brock Summers picked up another yellow that sees him out, this added with Kefentse Valentine still suspended means last week wasn't good at all and has made this week much, much worse. ~TRANSFERS~ Despite four (count them) FOUR, key players being out for this weeks game Ady Blyth will show faith in his reserve players thus avoiding any dealing in the transfer market. Options were considered but it would have meant weakening the squad for the sake of one turn. ~THIS WEEK~ On the road and in the cup away at Sirocco Whitecaps with a weak squad and Blyth expecting a beating and a half! New formations were being tested in training this week and two prospects that Blyth was eager to keep in his youth programme have had to make an early jump into senior football. Jackson Killdeer steps into the squad as the clubs newest striker whilst Samuel Ridgecrest will learn the ropes in the Calico midfield. On the plus side this cup week should - barring anymore injuries - mean next weeks league game Blyth has a chance of fielding a near full strength side as the suspensions will have passed! ~INTERNATIONALS~ Nothing happening this week ~YOUTH TEAM~ As mentioned before Killdeer and Ridgecrest have made the jump into senior football, this means two new youth teamers join the ranks. South African Shaun Nairda and Scotsman Hamish McGairloch are now the 'new kids on the block' and have to try to fill a massive gap left by the departure of the Lawbreakers two youth stars.	v	Calico Lawbreakers	3-1	30,000	£25.00	52:48	Scott Sneddon
