Subs: Mosegi Mafuane 7, Ziggi Wulf 6, Young McCloud -. BSO: WEEK 12 - Vincenté's 1 high skill point Trojans worked an incomprehensible draw against the 8 high skill point showboaters from Black Star ... 53-47 possession counted for little as Villanueva's (43 in 60) equaliser wasn't capitalised on ... 2 away draws after 3 home wins frustrated the BSO Bossman ... "We got a lotta things on our minds, You know what I mean, Walking on the beaches looking at the peaches" he mumbled on ... 3RD ROUND CUP - Old chum Mr Claps's Clapburn Nitro Nighthawks await in the last 16 of the EFA cup with a quarter final place up for grabs ... This excited Mark E Mark with pre match comments interpreted as "You do something to me, somewhere deep inside, I'm dancing through the fire, just to catch a flame, to feel real again" - TEAM SELECTION - a cheeky foray into 5-3-2 will be ditched to go back to a familiar 4-3-3 to counter the 4-3-3 anticipated from today's opponents - with Hawks 7 high skill points concentrated in defence, its hoped Olympics 8 high skill points distributed evenly thru midfield and attack may make the home advantage count ... but does home bias count in the beast we call the EFA Cup! ... PREVIOUS MEETINGS - Season 2 Week 9 - BSO 1-0 N'hawks - Pero the scorer, who might just start from the bench today... MoM? Paul 'Strakerman' Straker of cause ... oh the fiend! ... The rematch ... Season 2 week 20 ... N'hawks 3-4 BSO a 1st away win by the Funky Bunch came at the expense of Hawks realisation of relegation ... Doleboy got 2 and Villanueva again notched the winner in a 7 to 4 high skill point match up ... So 2 wins out of 2 as neither team were paired together in seasons 1 and 3 ... INTERNATIONALLY - Striker "Santiago" Villanueva looks set to line up in the Argie B team frontline against youth sensation centre half Kopano Thandiwe creeping into the South African B team despite limited chances ... YOUTH TEAM - Something seemed amiss as the two highlighted players for specialist training received no skill point bump as 3 of the other yuffs did, "I'm guessing some players are more likely to go up by playing games then training and vice versa" commented trainer Cocker Postill ... AND FINALLY - Top dogs Veleno are the visitors in week 13 ... a 5th defeat incomprehensible????

Thoughts of relegation are starting to creep into the mind which would be unprecedented after last season's success. Our disciplinary has cost us dearly this season. A lesson learnt the hard way said Burton! ~TRANSFERS~ With 3 suspensions this week deals will be a struggle although it was rumoured Zilvastra is looking to leave the club, but nothing has been confirmed and he will get a chance to shine in this week's friendly. ~THIS WEEK~ A nice rest bite from the league; Burton is tempted to field a strong team to get on the winning ways but is likely to give a few debuts to his squad in defence and midfield! ~INTERNATIONALS~ Burton has 3 South African's in his squad who will all play this week so opportunities of caps there, only one with any real chance though is Huneberg who with a good performance could sneak into the B Team. ~YOUTH TEAM~ The youth team has been going from strength to strength over last 2-3 weeks and is climbing back up the ladder. Fenyang Thandiwe has been particularly impressive and has been promoted to the first team. He will make his debut this week!

Subs: Anirudha 7, Callum Boyd 7, Hanst Novax -. BW: Spencer Hart was surprised and overjoyed to see his side notch up back-to-back away victories in their last two fixtures against Celtic Hearts and Morrowind FC, but rather unsurprisingly, makes a host of changes for a rather different fixture today. The friendly gives the manager the perfect opportunity to road-test the majority of his untried squad players and he dishes out four debuts to new signings. Cruso's Brizio Crocifissa (relationship with his striking namesake in the Widows squad undetermined) and rising megastar Kennedy Pink will be attempting to cement permanent placing in the team, whilst Chesapeake Bluff and Dario Ungaretti will be trying to catch the eye with their first taste of life in Einnek 1. Bluff is the first promotion from an inconsistent Black Widows Youth Team that doesn't have a standout player but rather a batch of several promising youngsters Hart feels are good enough to make the step up, with more expected in the coming weeks. Tobin Quail, Graydon Harding, Shiloh Littleleaf and Haughton Ruapehu are the current probabilities. * TRANSFER NEWS: Kilgour Neagle found himself in the shop window this week with three bids failing to convince the manager. One in particular offered no less than five Nito Cruso discoveries in exchange for the Scot, but Hart went on record to say that although the offer would add much-needed squad bulking none of the players would improve the team and he was looking for two experienced players to fill Neagle's rather large boots. The club are awaiting responses to other offers with it looking increasingly likely that Neagle will remain at the club which will please the Iron Web faithful.
