Subs: Rafael Belliard 7, Heyn Huneberg 7, Ognjen Kosanovic -. EE: ~"LAST WEEK"~ Burton was stunned by a home defeat in the cup after midfielder Mirza got sent off. "Wasnt expecting that" was all Burton could say after the match who was obviously in shock! ~"TRANSFERS"~ With a suspension to Mirza in midfield Burton has moved to secure the services of midfielder Northwind with Yotaro going the other way. No other deals are possible until Burton increases his squad size with only 14 players eligible for this week's game. ~"THIS WEEK"~ The team picks itself really although Huneberg has been dropped to the bench after two poor performances and Feofilakt gets his chance to shine up front after a slump in form from Belliard. However there is one major change in goal with Burton playing skill 4 keeper ahead of skill 5 keeper. With 2 other gambles paying off previously this maybe a step to far with Burton trying to get his shot stopper into the German international team to take advantage of Muller's absence. Away to much improved skill pointed Bambino Burton is expecting defeat but you never no "if you don't buy a ticket" etc etc ~"INTERNATIONALS"~ With yet another suspension ruling out caps chances with the suspension of Mirza there aren't really any cap opportunities this week. However, Burtons selection of Gronemeyer gives a slim chance of him picking up a cap or two from German game, very slim chance. ~"YOUTH NEWS"~ The youth team have had a very steady start with no stand out performers. Burton will hold off promoting any youth players until the current crop have had sufficient time to show there worth.

Subs: Kayetan Rhinestone 6, Máximo 7, Riley Blake -. BSO: CUP 2ND ROUND - Hotsputs came and burst the midfield with a surprise 4-4-2 line up, Black Star took a comfortable lead but frustrations in the middle of the park got the better of Star man Appleby and two harmless tackles in 4 minutes were deemed card offences by the match day official and Sherringtons Hoghton found themselves playing 10 men, although Baptista and Doleboy still managed to add to Villanueva's early goal, running out 3-1 winners, earning a 3rd round home cup tie against Bambino conquerors, the Hawks, managed by Clapburn "Claps" Rovers TRANSFERS - Nik Wigg picked up an international bargain as gloveman Sitta took the trip 300miles east'ish to the sunny Mills Recreational Ground for an incidental amount of cash WEEK 10 - Mighty McCash takes his 2nd place team to the 3rd place Lanacshire outfit in a pre Christmas Cracker TEAM SELECTION - Suspension forces Gaffa Marky Marks hand as 10ip Zvonimir steps in for Kian in the settled 4-2-4 formation PREVIOUS MEETINGS - No meetings in the league for these two Einnek juggernauts as BSO division history reads 3-P-P compared to SCP's P-1-P, but season 2 did see a 3rd round Cup game at the sensationally named Southern Cross Stadium as Jono's boys ran out 3-1 winners, although Olympic icon Jaimenacho Mendiguchia did bag the goal and Cup Player of the Round plaudit INTERNATIONALLY - Haarm Van Maanen (IC) continues his international skipperdom of the Dutch, Beda Zschokke looks to add to his Bips in the German defence and 7oaks needs a steaming performance to force his way into the English A back 4 YOUTH LEAGUE - Still no promotions from the BSO youth ranks as they look to add to their maximum win haul last time out and take the Div1 title - Goal poacher Bonilla Ancizar is on red hot form to further bulge his impressive goal tally and creep into the Colombian youth team AND FINALLY - The massively anticipated rematch against last season's table toppers ELA Elementals (Ela ela, eh eh eh) comes slap bang in the middle of Chrimbo - Just one goal difference separated the teams last season, as they finished level on points, despite BSO taking a 3 point advantage into the last week of the season - Gaffa Croasy knows that tiny gap was wholly created by results against Lucky B's Cov outfit - A 2-1 away defeat and home reverse 3-4, gave ELA a double over the Funky Bunch and MM knows that 7-1 point haul must be overturned this season to get the better of Burty - No major high skill point difference in last seasons meetings were apparent as indeed they were tied at 6 in BSO's only home defeat. This leads the BSO Bossman to believe the fortune should be on his side this season and has arranged a massive Xmas piss up to celebrate the fact the night before the game hic

"We wish all our loyal supporters a very Merry Christmas and hope to give them a win as an early present." He Said. "Morrowind may be bottom of the league but don't be fooled. They have quality throughout the side and we will have to play well to get the victory. But we are strong at home and with our support being the extra man I'm feeling good. Chunkster as always is on-song and Fursich is playing well in midfield. If we can keep it tight at the back and take the game to them from the first whistle, I feel we can get a much needed win. We must find more consistency in the second half of the season to avoid any relegation worries late on".

Rumours of it appearing on Youtube are so far found to be unsupported, but to say that the manager, fans and players were overjoyed with their relatively comfortable win is an understatement. It was also good to see the game played in such a manner that the referee only issued one yellow card in the game, so credit to all players for playing the game in the right spirit. Subs: Juerinho 7, Guillermo Ospina 7, Franck Herien -. CL: ~LAST WEEK~ No surprises as a Calico side weakened by injury and suspension put up a brave display but eventually lost 3-1 away at Sirocco Whitecaps in the cup. The result was expected and the fact youth team players Jackson Killdeer and Samuel Ridgecrest got a run out in the game coming on as subs and both getting 7 ratings will inspire Blyth to give them further 1st team chances. ~TRANSFERS~ The Lawbreakers were active in the transfer market for the 1st time since week 7 allowing Kin Jiro to leave in exchange for the return of former player Sebztian Ajaquiza from Heavitree Athletic. ~THIS WEEK~ Its a home tie against fellow promotion hopefuls Hoghton Hotspurs. Blyth has a full strength side to choose from and Tijnjo Mozes is expected to play despite still carrying a slight injury. There is no denying this is a must win game for the Lawbreakers after recent form slipping to just 1 win in 5 games. Blyth is fully aware that a draw could well be on the cards but hopes a decent win could get the clubs season back on track. ~INTERNATIONALS~ Russian Mikhail Rokossovski will feature for his country against Italy, Elfin Von Kamme will line up for Germany against England with Bastian Valentin having an outside chance of being on the bench for the same game, Tijnjo Mozes has a slim chance of making the bench for the Netherlands against Columbia whilst in the Columbia side Leo Alonso will remain Columbia's Number 1. ~YOUTH NEWS~ As previously mentioned the two newly promoted youth players looked promising making their debuts as subs in last weeks cup game, this week sees the new boys get their chance to step into the Youth spotlight. Shaun Nairda may get a chance in the team instead of the less than impressive Johnny Utah. Ashley Bloomfield becomes new Youth Team Captain as Blyth admitted the team will now be built around him. Jasper Spantenburg is fast becoming a defensive superstar but it still looks like it will be a while before Lawbreakers Youth start picking up regular wins. ~OTHER NEWS~ Blyth is giving Kefentse Valentine one last chance to prove he can curb his aggressive nature. The player, one of the stars of the season has recently picked up a number of bookings leading to him missing some key games.
