Subs: Klaus Nein 7, Chick Murdoch 7, Li Sa Mia -. BW: After getting a look at several squad players in last week's friendly, it's 'as you were' for Black Widows as they resume league duties with the big guns restored to the line-up. Hoping to figure for Russia B, Eduard Balk continues between the sticks but as expected, Chesapeake Bluff and Dario Ungaretti lose their places despite the latter's impressive debut which earns the Italian a spot on the bench. Spencer Hart was full of praise for Ungaretti and reckons the youngster is one to keep an eye on after outshining the rest of his team last week. Kennedy Pink also put in a solid performance and is looking to build on it today, and with the Widows' midfield coming under close scrutiny since the sudden retreat of Gabriel Duverger the team is crying out for a midfield general to take things by the scruff of the neck with Damien Cosette disappointing in recent months. WR: Rovers Boss Steve Farnden remained in confident mood ahead of his side's crucial away trip to Black Widows. "The club has had the worse run of form possible." He said following 6 defeats from the last 8 games in all competitions. "Somehow we have to dig deep and get back to winning ways. Four straight league defeats do not show a true picture but the league table does not lie. We are bottom and have a relegation battle on our hands. But with ten games to go it is possible to fight our way clear, and that starts at Widows." Walmington have been boosted by the arrival of Cirino,Blank,Cortez and Hubley. Adding more firepower and number to the squad.

Subs: Brett Shackelford 6, Aitor Wiafedankar 6, Bob Ritchie -. EE: ~LAST WEEK~ A weakened side was put out for last week's friendly and none of them did themselves any favours in pushing for starts in the league anytime soon with a whimpering performance and a 3-1 home defeat. The only positive was the surprise performance by Huneberg who after a dreadful start to his career at Elementals was earmarked for retail very soon, however he will have another chance to impress this week to save his short career ~TRANSFERS~ With the manager on holiday sunning himself in Sunny Weston Supermare this week no deals have been done ~THIS WEEK~ The A team will be back out this week against the Whitecaps. A few weeks ago Burton would expect nothing less than a win but with 4 skill points missing and no win in 5 Burton is not convinced at all with his chances. Its a must win game for us said Burton - a 4-3 would be nice! ~INTERNATIONALS~ Cuttlepurse should pick up his 19th cap this week for USA and Valeciano could pick up a cap for Columbia if he performs well in the league game this week. ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ Thandiwe played last week but his initial debut didn't live up to the hype. A few sub appearances are in order before this boy will play again. He will probably get another chance in the next Friendly match in a few weeks time!

Clapsie boys taking a cheeky 2-0 lead, BSO had to fight, with Villanueva clawing two back, to make it 10 nets in 11 starts ... "Oops!... I Did It Again" remarked the Mexican. Then the Welshman?, Titas McDougal, saw red for bringing down Strakerman in the box and the Doleboy slotted home the resultant penalty with 12 mins to spare and an appetising (plus lucrative) Quarter final draw with Veleno awaits .... "Thinkin of you keeps me up all night, You Drive Me Crazy" commented the Hole-i-th-wall Guvnor ... ~WEEK 13~ Its Veleno "The Venom" again as Olympic face Kai's boys twice in TWO "Seasons Destiny" deciding weeks !!! - "Unfortunately" bookings and suspensions deprives young Mr Young of 2 of his high skill players ... meaning the high skill point count is 8 to 6 in Mark E Marks favour, prompting him to remark "Hit me baby, one more time ...." ~TRANSFERS~ After several weeks of no action a new keeper and defender come to the club with cash plus player swaps - 4 capped Alvares Adriano tootles over from Littleton, he has a great average and makes the sub goal bench, while 7 capped Jack Gale storms over from Burgeois Rovers hoping for a bench place too ... the club is sad to see the departure of Guadalaharo Guadalaharo and young African Thandiwe .... slightly ... "With a sight of ur skills, I'm on a ride, You're TOXIC .... I'm slipping under .... with a taste of a poison paradise" Gaffa Croasy was lip-read to mutter in an underground training development deep in the hills of a East Lincs hillside cave ~TEAM SELECTION~ 4-3-3 or 4-2-4 is the choice ... ~PREVIOUS MEETINGS~ Week 2 KV 2-1 BSO Pero and Super Mario both scored in the 13th minute, only for Kenkai to get a jammy winner on the half hour mark as KV's 9 high skill points overcame the Funky Bunches 6 - MoM ? - Paul "Strakerman" Straker of cause ! ~INTERNATIONALLY~ A B game for Cameroon means Holy Joli could stand a chance for honours with a sexy performance for the Black Star ~YOUTH TEAM~ Columbian "Goal Baron" Bonilla Ancizar continues to impress with an ... er .... impressive 8.11 average ... and 36 out of 50 skill level achieved at shooting with hardly any training points used. Remarkin on if the boy had talent like his manger did in his pomp, Gaffa Croasy spued forth "Womanizer, Woman, Womanizer, You're a Womanizer. Oh Womanizer oh, You're a Womanizer, baby" ~AND FINALLY~ Congrats out to former player Scott Sneddon (who was touted on the Einnek managers forum as a potential star) for being the Cup Player of the Week and rising to a sk6, this comes weeks after exBSO gloveman Sitta hit the Sk6 mark .... "Black Star certainly seems the place to shop for upcoming superstars lately Deal-fans" BSO Bossman Marky Mark was quoted as saying in front of several gathered pap
