EE: ~LAST WEEK~ The reserves got a run out in the friendly match but again didnt really cover themselves in glory, however Rocky was the only plus point which will see him feature in this weeks league match! ~TRANSFERS~ Elementals would like to announce that they have signed the Strakerman! The club shop has sold out a record number of shirts with his name on and the fans have already began to sing his name round the streets of the Thunderdome! Burton was delighted with the signing and expects big things from the midfielder. Other activity this week sees Ricotora come in and Centeno and Thandiwe leave the club for pastures new. ~THIS WEEK~ Burton is up against Stu Henfrey's Hearts, it will be a very tough game but Burton is happy to play them now rather than in a few weeks time when they may have another 5/6 skill points by then! ~INTERNATIONALS~ New signing Strakerman and Jesse Dash should start for Australia with Cattleman featuring for USA. ~YOUTH TEAM~ Burton forgot to use his training points this week. What a * :-) CH: Hockey masks are being given out to all travelling Hearts fans this week.

"This is a vital game and we must look for maximum points to pull ourselves clear of the relegation spots. We've beaten them twice already this season, at home in the league and at their place in a friendly earlier in the season. We are high in confidence with 6 points from our last 2 league outings. The return of Nicomedes has given us all a boost, and with Chunkster, Murdoch, Mo and Blank up front goals are always likely." He continued, "Bambinos are a strong side but have are missing big players due to suspensions, so my lads will attack from the off and give our large away support a great journey home".

Subs: Akihiro Ichiyama 7, Latona Roark 7, Dubravko Hrasovac -. ND: ~LAST WEEK~ A moral-boosting 3-1 friendly win away at Reiloc Elite eased a bit of the criticism being aimed at Matt Davenport from the supporters following his recent squad tinkering and bizarre team selections. Zalo Zilvastra was the one down side, following his two neatly taken goals he showed the other side of his character by getting sent off for his constant backchat and threatening behavior to the referee's assistant. Relations between the talented Argentine striker and Mr Davenport are said to be 'non-existent' and rumour has it he may have played his last game in this country. ~THIS WEEK~ More bemusement amongst the Disciples faithful as reserve keeper Hans Gronemeyer is preferred to Pierre Colombet for the visit of Warmington Bukigura. Youth League prodigy Jayson Beelenkamp also makes his debut and big things are expected of him. Davenport is said to have wagered £100 on him to get the first goal at the generous odds of 7/1. ~LAST MEETING~ Mr Gynn's men scraped a narrow 1-0 victory in week 4 but Davenport dismissed any suggestion of a revenge mission. ~TRANSFERS~ Relatively quiet since last week's friendly, the only additions to the squad being the promotion of youth product Beelenkamp plus the addition of some random Japanese guy to bulk up the squad. ~INTERNATIONALLY~ Australian talisman Elijah Starling will pick up another cap (availability permitting) and it's also hoped Hans Gronemeyer may make the bench for Germany. ~AND FINALLY~ What do Roman Abramovich and Kathy from Eastenders have in common? Answers in next week's team news (if I remember that is).

Subs: Chesapeake Bluff 7, Kennedy Pink 6, Eduard Balk -. BW: SEAM NEWS: Black Widows revert to their strongest line-up this week which currently necessitates 5-2-3 again, but with Spencer Hart's formation of choice proving a success on several occasions this season the manager sees it as the ideal tactic to deploy against an attacking Prophets side. Pavel Zookov's heroic but futile exploits for Russia last week come at a good time for the club with several defensive comings and goings. Arnold Kittenfold - one of the stand-out Cruso monikers from the last batch - is the latest player to join the backline while fellow Englishman Sherwin Darrow, snapped up from Excotets in the same deal, is a welcome enforcer for the midfield with Kennedy Pink sitting this one out. TRANSFER NEWS: The club's next target looks likely to be a striker with the club looking thin on the ground up front. The ever-improving free-scoring youth sensation Shloh Littleleaf is a certainly for promotion to the squad in the coming weeks, along with Graydon Harding, who appears more likely to slot into a defensive or midfield role, although Hart is keen not to overload his squad with youth sensations with Bluff and Ruapehu already warming the bench.

Dauntless & Kashentsev both start, with Prettyleg making the bench. Manager Burge is excited about these signings, he commented "These three are all Bull Agent players, young, and tremendous prospects." he hoped the fans would trust his decision to sign these players. Time will tell if he is right or not, or has he done another poor deal. WLW: ~LAST WEEK~Youth player Kennington Pimm shone in draw with Dynamos but will have to wait for another first team chance ~TRANSFERS~Long time target Evgen Khakalyov finally signs for Warriors this week and makes his debut against former club Eastville.Also making their debuts are Ivanoff youngster Galen Brash, Cruso mid Barnaby Phelps and top striker Eldorado Tularosa who joins Marquez and Schiaparelli in a strong looking attack.Only 1 player remains from Welton grasp but one day he will be mine!!! ~THIS WEEK~Top versus bottom in game against Eastville with Welton expecting tough match especially with several former players looking to turn their old club over! ~TEAM SELECTION~Warriors decide to go for 433 formation ~PREVIOUS MEETINGS~A 3-1 victory in week 4 with a Jereward hat trick who now plays for Eastville!! ~INTERNATIONALLY~Games for Mitsubishi and Nakano for Japan and Blackcheek and Wrath for USA ~YOUTH LEAGUE~Gunther Helmut joins up with the first team squad this week with several other players expected to be promoted in next few weeks~AND FINALLY~Warriors are now confirmed as top team on the south coast!

HH: A run of 3 unbeaten games and 2 wins means the Hoghton Hierarchy are heading in the right direction superb performances by crowd favourite Jose Ramirez for the Youth team means his promotion to the full league are hard to resist although Adelmo Sconochini remains the undoubted star of the YL experiment ... Cruso prospect Ono continues to frustrate but a big money bid might tempt him elsewhere for a change of club high skill point jump persistent bids for Da Wael, Alvar, Beg, Sayce, Iseav and Cohete are being resisted especially from the jersey direction Da Wael should make sub but the cunning plan of the management team is yet to be divulged MM: It was a sad day at the Training Complex of the Azaiba Dome before this match, as manager Jack Riseborough said a fond farewell to his players wishing them all great success under the guidance of the new manager, as this was his last game in charge of the Marvos. Rumours that his impending court case fo tax evasion are untrue due to his age, he is not liable for tax, but admitted that he had fooled everybody, and was really too young to manage and needs to get his qualifications before returning to the game as management material. To say he will be back may be premature, but like most Einnek managers, never say never.

The game left the Lawbreakers with a suspension for key defender Terence May who saw red after picking up 2 yellow cards. ~TRANSFERS~ Former Lawbreaker Jay Colombo re-signed this week from ELA Elementals with Narciso Ricotora leaving the club. Colombo is a talented American defender and Blyth hopes he will soon be challenging for B team caps. The main news on the signing front came from the Youth League as top prospect Ashley Bloomfield became Calico's newest midfielder and Trenton Ash joined the defensive line up. ~THIS WEEK~ A tricky home tie against Gainsborough Town should test the Lawbreakers ~TEAM SELECTION~ Alonso is back in goal, Colombo, Ash and Bloomfield are all set to feature ~INTERNATIONALLY~ Von Kamme features for Germany, Hammerfox for the USA, and Alonso for Columbia. ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ Rochester and Sanders set for debuts

CW: Wanderers revert to an unfavoured 4-3-3 formation to accommodate Lompuc Ventura with Columbia's world cup game pending. Newar Mujeres recent good form should see him make his 1st A team international start for the Columbians. Another Columbian, Anderson Da Silva, could make the step up to the senior team from the YOUTH LEAGUE after this weeks round of competition. The youngster scored 2 goals in his 1st international appearance in the youth league & hopes to add to that tally this time around. He has also scored an impressive 20goals, considering he has come through the ranks as a defender!!! Another youngster who could make the step up in the coming weeks is Nando Fernandez. The Spanish striker has been very impressive in the last few weeks. As has Welsh forward Jensen Morgan.

HA: Andrés Guga - the starlet that has come through the Heavitree Youth Squad, in a shock move has been made club captain by Heavitree boss Davie. A move that surprised all within the club has also raised questions about Spank Reilly's future Following him up through the ranks are the equally talented Mexican defender Atlau Santos and South African marksman Joost Lefu. Heavitree trainer Tommo Ryan has earmarked all to go to achieve great things Guga especially; he has been likened to the SVC striker Ametrio Salazar. This week also sees no less than 4 Heavitree players featuring in the round of international games that are due to be played. Aaron Rainbow is also enjoying a rich vein a form and a 6 this week will see him hit the dizzy heights of a sk 7.
