Some extra defensive duties have been brought in this week to ensure this doesn't happen again! Strakerman's injury was a big blow and he is understandably upset that it is disrupting the start of his career at the new and bigger club :) ~TRANSFERS~ Burton completed a straight swap this week between defender Savri for untried Birkett who will go straight into this weeks team. ~THIS WEEK~ The team picks itself this week in a 4-3-3 formation. Burton is happy with this though and hopes to pick up some points against Morrowind. ~INTERNATIONALS~ Dechevillier should play for France, Iasa for Brazil and Xovi for Spain ~YOUTH TEAM~ Tough tackling defender Max Hardcastle has been promoted to the first team and will start on the bench for this weeks league game.

This week they entertain newly promoted Sirocco Whitecaps & a win will see them rise as high as 2nd in the table depending on other results & could well see them established at genuine title contenders, although Stu Henfrey was quick to play down talk of this when he stated "I've always had faith in my ability & the ability of my players but I feel this season is a bit early & you will only see the true potential of this side from next season onwards & that is certainly what we have been aiming for."

Subs: Cioffi De Zerbi 7, Fabian Quinones 7, Hans Grönemeyer - . BW: TEAM NEWS: Today's visitors to the Iron Web, New Disciples, have become a considerable force in recent weeks even if February's results haven't reflected it (and hopefully still won't after a 90-minute master class here today...) Widows are forced into 4-2-4 with BURTON WRAPP making his debut, although it will be interesting to see if Spencer Hart perseveres with a formation he is not a fan of in the coming weeks. TRANSFER NEWS: DANIEL BURT continues to attract bids but the defender's age and attitude make him a valuable asset that Hart is keen to retain. PUABLO SASI has been on the brink of several moves this week and Hart hopes he can put in an account of himself for Spain today. YOUTH TEAM: Shiloh Littleleaf and Graydon Harding remain on course to be the most likely players to be rewarded with promotion to the Widows first team, although young Perseus Blatherwyck's meteoric rise has raised a few eyebrows at the club with the coaching staff pondering what position to mould the teenager into. ND: ~LAST WEEK~ A fairly uneventful 1-1 draw at home to Bukigura meaning Disciples had to surrender their top spot. ~THIS WEEK~ The first of two tricky back-to-back away trips begins with a visit to the Iron Web. ~LAST MEETING~ The teams shared 6 goals between them in a 3-3 draw, which Davenport admitted he would be quite happy with this week. ~TRANSFERS~ One late deal with Rich Welton sees Matt Davenport reluctantly part with Ulien Quadragesimo plus highly fancied youth product Jayson Beelenkamp, in exchange for experienced duo Rokossovski and Tularosa. ~INTERNATIONALLY~ It's a bumper week for the Disciples squad. Quinterios, Zilvasta, Pinto and Colombet should all get starts. Mhlambi also in with a good shout, while Spanish duo Llamazares and Niguez will be hoping for a spot on the bench.

Negotiations for top keeper Torres with a number of clubs occurred, but no news as of yet. Cruso starlet Watamura appears to be leaving with paperwork lodged at EFA! ~INTERNATIONALLY~ MOM Bosch in last week's international has signed a new contract! Gk Torres will hit 20 caps this week for Spain, being cited in the press this week as one of Herd's best signings. Amiliana will start for Mexico, but 5 others in the team are expected to miss out and will have to contend with B team games. ~WHERE ARE THEY NOW?~ Defender Schnell quit arch rivals Warrington for newly formed Yellowknife (what's that all about Rob?), goal scoring hero of season 2 Kilduggan rejoined the top tier with BSO, and youngster Escobar retired after failing to settle at Heavitree ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ Herd has confirmed no player will be promoted up at this stage unless they have 3 caps or hit 18-6, and has expressed surprise at other managers, who he feels are pushing up players too early ~AND FINALLY~ In these uncertain times, credit crunch, banks collapsing, global warming, it is reassuring that some things never change - Trow, how did you get to +11, you are SO lucky!

They fans still have serious hopes of promotion this season, but with no win in their last four, a serious charge is now what is required ~TRANSFERS~ No ins or outs this week, but with last of offers coming in for star striker Garitano, manager Riseborough, decided to keep hold of him, as Spain may still be in contention in the rest of the world cup this season. There has also been lots of interest shown in Top "Saintbernard" Dog this week, but although the offers were tempting, not enough is what was heard coming from the managers office this week. ~THIS WEEK~ Oh joy the fans are saying, up next Tormenta "Butchers" Advertencia. The fans are worried that too many injuries will be the only result from this game. ~TEAM SELECTION~ Only change this week to the midfield. Why we would change the Attack, when we are the leading scorers in Einnek at this time. The defence though is another issue, with a failed bid for Dutch Keeper De Visser ~PREVIOUS MEETINGS~ In the league in week 5, it was another high scoring Draw at the Ruwi Galacticus Complex, and more importantly only one injury coming from the game ~INTERNATIONALLY~ Spain and South Africa coaches respectively will be watching with baited breath, just to see whether there star attackers make it through safely ready for their international fixtures this week. Spain only needing a draw against Argentina to ensure their continued involvement in the World Cup this season. The Rainbow nation on the other hand, have not had that much of an enjoyable inauguration into international football, but are hoping that their B team scrapes through with their last fixture in three weeks. ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ No news this week, but do not expect any promotions for the next few weeks, as the players need just that little more time at honing their skills ~MANAGER QUOTE~ The sun is shining at the weather is hot ~AND FINALLY~ that all folks for this week

They retain there place for the away match with Vectis Faders. Pinto returns to midfield after a short break, alongside Stephao & Wexler in a 4-3-3 formation. Burge is confident after putting an end to the dismal run that preceded the latest win. "We drew with Faders earlier in the season, but we were the better side by far, and deserved victory that day, and I'm sure Fitz boy is not looking forward to us coming to his gaff." Burge said at today's press conference.

CL: ~LAST WEEK~ The Lawbreakers battled their way to a 3-2 victory over Gainsborough Town. Elffin Von Kamme produced a man of the match performance scoring two goals and making a 3rd. Burton Wragg closed his Calico account with a 77th minute match winning goal after the game he spoke to the media thanking the fans for their support over the close to two seasons he spent with the club. ~TRANSFERS~ As noted Burton Wragg has left the Calico Lawbreakers. The shock move occurred after Ady Blyth was alerted to the fact long term targets Kennedy Pink and Arnold Kittenfold had been announced available by Spencer Hart at Black Widows. Moving quickly to signed the talented duo Blyth knew the only way to get the Black Widows Supremo to part with the pair would be to offer the striker Spencer Hart had long admired. Expecting a backlash from fans Blyth was surprised to hear fans were impressed with the move. Kennedy Pink is considered one of Nito Crusos top finds and Arnold Kittenfold - although not on the top of his game - is a great prospect. ~THIS WEEK~ The Lawbreakers hit the road and take on Heavitree Athletic ~TEAM SELECTION~ Matt Trutwein gets a rare chance in goal as Blyth gives Alonso a week off, Terence May returns from suspension. Arnold Kittenfold and Kennedy Pink should both play some part this week and the South African duo of Alpheus November and Thaba Cisco are pushing for places with Wragg's departure and Angharad suspended ~PREVIOUS MEETINGS~ Back in Week 5 Heavitree took all the points when they visited the Lawbreakers with an impressive 2-1 victory ~INTERNATIONALLY~ Outside chances for Trutwein,Pink,Cisco and November but nothing set in stone. ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ Ozar makes the step up into senior football, Jefferson Valentine, younger brother of Kefentse Valentine joins the youth ranks. Jasper Spantunburg is set to be the best defender in Lawbreaker history....but isn't ready for the step up....yet! ~MANAGER QUOTE~ 'I am tracking a big name striker and despite being knocked back this week intend to come back with another offer after this weeks game' Calico Boss Ady on signing Wraggs replacement. ~AND FINALLY~ Ady Blyth is set for a Cruso clearance this week.... all eyes on the forum Friday night!!

GAME CHANGES

As we approach the end of the season, I am planning some minor changes to the game which I feel will improve certain problematic areas. I will be posting all my thoughts on the forum over the weekend. Please take the opportunity to read the proposals and post your constructive thoughts. Nothing is set in stone, but I hope these potential changes will be welcomed.

Richard.
