BW: TEAM NEWS: Spencer Hart doesn't expect his side to escape from Copperhead Road with much - in fact anything at all will be a bonus. Despite acquiring five new faces in the week only two start the game, with Banga Delani getting the late nod over Chesapeake Bluff and Naaman Maas replacing Burton Wragg, who found the trauma of leaving Calico Lawbreakers too much to handle. Of the two AFC Basingstoke signings only Barrio-Lomas makes the bench. YOUTH LEAGUE: Graydon Harding - who Hart believes will be one of the club's big players next season - makes the first team bench today after his promotion. Shiloh Littleleaf would appear to be on the brink of being promoted himself with Hart having no reserve striker to call upon this week after allowing Cristobal Hernandez to join Nighthawks for a wad of cash.

Mozes form lately has been a very high standard and hopes this will continue. ~TRANSFERS~ Two of Burtons stars, Cattleman and Xovi have been at the centre of transfer speculation this week with several bids being made, however Burton put high price tags on their heads which managers failed to meet so they will be staying put. Burton wasn't too disappointed though as he rates both very highly! ~THIS WEEK~ Burton hopes to put this weeks opponents to the sword with a 3 skill point and home advantage to push back up the league in the final 3rd of the season! ~INTERNATIONALS~ B internationals have come back round but no one will play internationally this week. ~YOUTH TEAM~ Guadalupe has been promoted to the 1st team and will start on the bench this week. ~AND FINALLY~ Just wanted to say thanks to Rich for this week proposed changes, its really encouraging seeing the game continually being improved :-) WR: Rovers' boss Steve Farnden was in confident mood ahead of his sides tough trip to NGE Champions ELA Elementals. "We visit ELA full of confidence on the back of a 4 match unbeaten run. The addition of Nyambe to the squad gives our attack a new dimension. He is a quality player who is always likely to score a goal. Andy Burton is a top manager a good man and a worthy league winner, but we've beaten them at home and won at their place in the EFA Cup earlier in the season, so we know we can do a job on them. Here's for the hat-trick!!! We must keep it tight and ensure we feed our frontline with decent opportunities. With Chunkster, Blank and Nyambe around goals are never too far away!"

CH: Two big 3-1 home wins & a 3-3 away draw sandwiched in between from the last 3 league games has seen Hearts jump from bottom of the table to 3rd & genuine title challengers. Manager Stu Henfrey refused to get carried away though, in a pre match press conference he stated "The team is now finally showing the potential i knew it had but survival has been the aim for this season & still is, despite sitting 3rd in the table as this is such a tight league." Hearts travel to much fancied Veleno today with a fully fit squad although changes are expected from last week's 3-1 victory due to international chances. Stu Henfrey revealed he made an attempt to sign Veleno & Einnek superstar Mario McGuire this week stating "I contacted Kai with regards to Mario's availability & whilst i made quite a considerable offer, it was rejected immediately as Kai values him much higher & whilst I'm disappointed i can understand why!"

New goalkeeper Eduard Balk makes his debut, whilst midfielder Jojo Joli waits on the bench. AFC also this week promoted two of their youth stars, defender Knut Rasmussen and attack Jacob Wolfstone into the senior ranks. Despite Athletic bouncing between divisions 11 and 12 of the youth league, both player excelled and will look to establish themselves in the senior side and push Athletic into a safe division 1 spot and possible promotion. Rasmussen starts in defence this week, whilst Wolfstone will feature shortly. To make room in the squad, veteran defender Venor Le Xarkan, who had been available for transfer, and attacker Kerr Houston, who lacked form, were released from their contracts. Things could be a bit breezy at AFC next week as a bid for BSO defender Gale has also been made, with Marky Mark expected to confirm sometime after this weekend's matches.

Subs: Sebastian Balthazar 7, Jacobin Poulter 6, Jonas Tiempe -. CS: A well earned victory after weeks of mediocrity. Sixteen year old Colombian prodigy Balthazar lashed home the first in 34 minutes after a sublime cross from Paul Adams. A defensive catastrophe involving Dagfinn Emil and Alberto Guiharda led to Tangents equalizer. As the sun set behind the Celestial Dome Amphitheatre an electrifying second half performance from one man galvanised a sluggish Coruscant Star. That man was Rafael, Rafael Riego. The stadium gasped in awesome wonder, as time seemed to freeze. As if in slow motion the only man moving, the man who demands to simply be called Rafael Riego controlled a high ball forward by the rejuvenated Kaja Sinis. With his back to goal the sphere cushioned off his knee, fell to the playing surface and stopped dead. 34,000 followers then witnessed something magical, almost supernatural. The talisman slid his body to the side and flicked the size five through Stradler-Pugh's legs and slalomed past the defender and onto his own pass. Now twenty yards from goal, goalkeeper Neff deciding to charge, Riego remained calm stepped forward a few yards and effortlessly scooped the ball high into the air over the goalkeeper now closely resembling an obese child scrambling to reach an escaped balloon. It landed a yard from the line and rolled into the net. An incredible cheer rose from the stadium high into the late afternoon sky. With only eight minutes to go the home side led by a goal but everyone knew that would suffice. After the match manager Alan Murphy said " I'm happy with the result, great performances by Kaja and Rafael Riego. My phone has been red hot with offers for Kaja but he has a contract here and I don't want to se him leave. Unfortunately new signing Charlie Knox has retired due to him being a complete psycho. This leaves Fraser Cools in a good position as USA number one keeper and should go up in skill soon. I am realistic about the chances of promotion. Warriors and Chargers are already promoted. Absolutely no question of that. Its up to the rest to avoid relegation or put a run together to steal that 3rd spot. Either way I am confident going into next season that the side will continue to improve. Sebastian Balthazar gives us hope for the future. I will use him infrequently as it will benefit him in the long run. He wont be playing next week against Legacy for example. But I may use him in one of the home games against Warriors or Chargers or in the next friendly. There are another few bubbling under in the youth team who will get their chance soon. Arie Cato is dynamite for his small frame and big Preston is a solid player too. Eli Cash is another who could go on to better things if he screws the nut. That boy plays hard and parties hard but as long as he does it on the pitch, I'm ok."

CL: ~"LAST WEEK" A defeat against Heavitree Athletic which was expected..... The Lawbreakers however can take many positives from the game as, despite losing 4-3 Elffin Von Kamme had another strong game. Larrs Skovengberg proved he is ready to push for a full international place and Ashley Bloomfield, on the bench allowing Kennedy Pink to make his debut, made an appearance as a sub looked sharp for the 24 minutes he played. ~"TRANSFERS" Last week Calico fans were sad to see long term player and Cruso star Burton Wragg leave the club in a deal with Black Widows that saw Kennedy Pink and Arnold Kittenfold join Calico. This week after just 1 game away from the Lawbreakers Burton Wragg is back!! Wragg admitted this week that despite only being at the Black Widows for a short time the move to Premier League football and having to move away from his home was too much and was happy to have the chance to return, he also admitted he would more than likely see the remainder of his career at the Lawbreakers. Naaman Maas is the player making the move to The Iron Web along with Banga Delani and Wragg returns along with hotly tipped Welsh defender Cromwell Denny and promising youth star Haughton Ruapehu. The fact that Wragg returned to the club overshadowed a deal the Ady Blyth feels may be his biggest signing to date. After weeks of tracking and offering deals Wade Saintbernard finally becomes a Lawbreaker. Ever since the South African star came onto the scene after the Nito Cruso auction saw him move to Canning Town Angels Ady Blyth had made several unsuccessful bids for him....and this week Ady Blyth managed to convince the striker to join the club. Saintbernard - who is due to drop to a skill 4 after this weeks game, goes straight into the Lawbreakers team to face another of his former clubs Corton Wanderers. ~"THIS WEEK" As mentioned previously Corton Wanderers are the team travelling to Calico this week with both team just 1 point apart and a win for either side vital for both clubs promotion push ~"TEAM SELECTION" Leo Alonso is back in goal after a less than impressive display by Matt Truetwin last week. Arnold Kittenfold, Victor Hammerfox, Terence May and new signing Cromwell Denny start in defence. Ady Blyth will choose late whether to play Skovengberg/Pink, Skovengberg/Bloomfield or possibly all three in midfield. Up front a debut for Wade Saintbernard is a certainty, Burton Wragg returns, Elfin Von Kamme plays and Mordecai Angharad is back from suspension. ~"PREVIOUS MEETINGS" The teams have met twice this season, and both have won at each other's grounds. Corton won the last meeting at Calico beating Ady Blyth's team in a friendly. ~"INTERNATIONALLY" Chances for Kittenfold, Skovengberg, Bloomfield, and Wragg make this an interesting week! ~"YOUTH LEAGUE" No major news.... Spartanburg is weeks away from his senior shot, Nick Sanders continues to impress ~"MANAGER QUOTE" 'We've finally landed the big dog of Einnek football' Ady Blyth on signing Saintbernard. ~"AND FINALLY" The midfield is complete, The attack is nearly there, the defence needs work..... defenders all over Einnek football will be scouted this week!

GAME CHANGES

As we approach the end of the season, I am planning some minor changes to the game which I feel will improve certain problematic areas. I have posted on the forum and the response has been very positive, thanks. Please take the opportunity to read the proposals if you have not had a chance yet and post your constructive thoughts. I must also remind everyone that the proposals are just that and are not live at this time; any changes that are implemented will come in at the start of next season.
