 EE: ~LAST WEEK~ Burton was very disappointed with the 1-1 home draw and Dechevillier got a 2 week fine for his part in the sending off which effectively cost Elementals 2 points. "Too many times its happened this season said Burton and its cost us dearly"! Burton also conceded that the title isnt going to be coming back to Fieldview Thunderdome unless a miracle happens with 3 away games in the last 5 games and is more worried about relegation than troubling the top spots ~TRANSFERS~ Burton looked to rebuild the squad this week with next season in mind; several deals were completed with a complete overhaul of players taking place. In come Torres, Khakalyov, Nasuki, Ljungberggson, Baert, Sju, Orlando, Zaborski and Toule and out go Xovi, Cuttlepurse and Guadalupe. That's 9 in 3 out and Burton hopes to shake things up for the last 5 weeks. The emphasis was on bringing in players who are currently performing to a high level to try and inject some quality into Elementals play and with Torres, Nasuki, Ljungberggson and Khakalyov all averaging over 7.50 avr Burton hopes to see a immediate impact. ~THIS WEEK~ Burton are away to Bukigura. A game where points should and need to be picked up. Dechevillier is out so Burton is down 3 SP but still hopes to get something out of the game. ~INTERNATIONALS~ Zvonimir will play for Croatia B team this week and Orlando for Columbia ~YOUTH TEAM~ Former youth team product Max Hardcastle makes his full debut this week and Bellarmine has been promoted this week.

Spencer Hart admitted failing with a bid for Sascha Czechova earlier in the week as well as not following up a tentative enquiry for Titus McDougal. A deal that did happen saw the talented Sherwin Darrow shipped out to AFC Basingstoke with the ageing but experienced Ignasi Sanchez Presedo and in-form Akshan Kozub coming in. Both are expected to start today with Naaman Maas stepping down for Kozub. The deal weakens the line-up considerably for today's clash with BSO and for the second successive week, following last week's tanking by Bambino, Hart has moved to say that anything will be a bonus while steps are taken to ensure a strong campaign next season. BSO: ~LAST WEEK~ Another notch by Mexican hot shot sensation SantiGOAL Villanueva brings his tally to 14 for the season and just one shy of joining a select bunch of NGE marksman to achieve a half century of goals. ~ ATTENDANCE~ The crowd was 235 short of capacity due to the advertising fitted for the mega legend that was to sign in the coming week half season ticket sales flew thru the roof on the news ~TRANSFERS~ After realising Team FB have notched few bonus points for 3 goals and were near the bottom of the goal scoring charts, yet high in the defending charts (4th), Gaffa Marky Mark immediately signed a sk7 striker of considerable note "ain't this game easy" he quipped as LAUDELINO signed on the BSO dotted line with 67 game under his belt at the top end of NGE divisions and 24 IPS with an impressive 9 international goals + 38 for club ~THIS WEEK~ The NGE legend that is 'Mr Fanzine' awaits in the 1st of 3 away games in the last 5 games of this exciting season we call Season Three ~TEAM SELECTION~ Out goes Beda Zschokke as in comes multi capped NGE legend Laudelino that's a def for att so 4-2-4 is perfectly displayed in the form of 6-7665-75-7655 vs whatever Hatro can string together on the day, surely Black Stars 1st away win of the season awaits as 10 High Sk Pts faces 5 oh but we all know the Einnek algorithym doesn't always work like that ~HSP Breakdown Special~ SBW G1 D0 M0 A4 -- 10BSO G1 D3 M2 A3 ~PREVIOUS MEETINGS~ interestingly in week 7 30,130 IR per 1st 11 team Funk Bunch met Black Widow total IR 27,892 as 4-2-4 was preferred again as the high skill players dictated, Croat pitbull bad dog woof woof Pero switched with argie bargie Baptista in the front line as BSO won 1-0 with Santigoal notching on 63 mins with 53% of the game. This week see's Southern Cross Prophets visit Heart Beat Arena, the first of 2 successive home games in which manager Stu Henfrey hopes & expects 2 wins which will push Hearts clear of relegation & maybe even into a title fight. Stu Henfrey finally landed his long term transfer target, Spanish superstar Ruiz Garitano this week after weeks of negotiations with Elland Mythicals manager Justin Riseborough. In the press conference to announce the signing Stu Henfrey stated "Ruiz is a player i have wanted all season & i thought we were we close to a deal before he went & increased his price with a outstanding performance to put Spain into the Quarter Finals! However it didn't deter me & although i've had to pay slightly more than i originally intended, Ruiz will be the spearhead of Hearts attack for years to come & is money well spent". Hearts have already turned down a bid from an un-named club for Garitano! Indagan Safeer was expected to move to Premiership rivals ELA this week, however the deal was vetoed by the EFA & a comprise now seems unlikely. Youth players Hiroki Sugiyama & Kenny Bandine moved up to the senior ranks this week & French international Nicolas Guégan is expected to join them within the next few weeks. Talks are under way to bring in another top class attacker to Heart Beat Arena & Stu Henfrey hopes to conclude a deal after this weeks game. | | | | | | | |

TT: With news that a so called tight person from up North would put his hand in his pocket for charity Tombstone were happy to oblige. St Andrew comes into the starting eleven for the first time because of his impressive form for the reserves. Adam Reardon drops out of the match day squad for some well deserved rest. Chris Page was heard to say at a recent training session that if we cannot beat this hopeless lot of camel sh*ggers we are doomed to relegation. Harsh but fair words were the comments from most team members. | | | | | | | |

Eflfin Von Kämme scored..... again and Burton Wragg - back after a week at the Black Widows scored on his return to the Cauldron. ~"TRANSFERS"~ Only one signing this week from Sammy Bull's stable..... Donald Colosio comes in as 3rd choice goalkeeper. ~"THIS WEEK"~ A tricky away tie to Stoneleigh Baybears, a side that just don't seem to lose! ~"TEAM SELECTION"~ Alonso keeps his place in goal, a back line of Denny, Hammerfox, May and Kittenfold is selected. Midfield is still not decided with the option to play either two or three in the centre of the park. One thing for sure is that Skovengberg will start. The front line as of time of press is undecided. ~"PREVIOUS MEETINGS"~ A 1-1 draw at the Cauldron allowed both teams to pick up a point. ~"INTERNATIONALLY"~ Massive outside chances for Kennedy Pink and Cromwell Denny for 8 team appearances, Ady Blyth doubts either will make it though! ~"YOUTH LEAGUE"~ The countdown is truly on for Spartanburg to join the Senior ranks at the club ~"MANAGER QUOTE"~ 'Will he be here at the start of next season? I really can't say!' Ady Blyth when questioned on Larrs Skovengberg's future at the club. ~"AND FINALLY"~ Wade Saintbernard will be signing autographs in the club shop at 5pm today..... | | | | | | | |
