Burton's team slipped into the bottom 3 for the first time this season after shipping 5 goals last week, the first time in Burtons managerial career! The top 2 from last season find themselves in the bottom 2 and one will surely go down. Week 22 when the teams meet will possibly see who survives!! Torres takes the captains armband this week and will keep this till the end of the season. Burton has had a last minute change of heart over his formation today. ~TRANSFER NEWS~ Another busy busy week at Elementals. Safeer joins the clubs this week to bolster the strike force with several fringe players being shipped out to make way for the Cameroonian striker. Goldswift, Eisler, Tulacoosa, Sjudak and Mikuak also join Elementals with Dash, Sju, Nasuki and Khakalyov going the other way. Nasuki is shipped straight back out after one week as it was reported to be unsettled in England and has decided to move abroad for a sunnier climb and tax free earnings! ~THIS WEEK~ Home to Spen's widows. Burton has earmarked this as a must win game in order for Elementals to survive with the current leaders and the teams who finished 2nd and 3rd last season to come! A new look strike force takes the field today in Tulacoosa, Goldswift and Zafeer and Burton hopes they can fire him to a win! ~INTERNATIONALS~ Iasa will play for Brazil, Torres for Spain and Dechevillier and Goldswift for France ~YOUTH TEAM~ Due to Kennies half century games we postponed this week as a mark of respect                      BW: BUMPER EXTENDED NEWS!: INS AND OUTS: As expected, Russian Pavel Zookov left Einnek 1 for his homeland this week, leaving Widows discovery Eduard Balk - currently plying his trade with AFC Basingstoke - as the Ruski's first choice keeper. His replacement this week is a toss-up between teenage agents Vidal Barrio-Lomas and Finn Bogle, with the latter believed to be winning the race. Spencer Hart is believed to favour other Ivanoff acquisition Patrick Otter, making it likely that another gk - if not two more - will leave the club imminently. A shake up in defence saw Hart raid Eiland Mythicals for defensive duo Hanns Palmannenn and Tuve Skånberg, who, along with Daniel Burt, Carlucio Bonaventura and Chad Reekie, should toughen things up today. Into the midfield and Damien Cosette's fantastic week sees him reinstated firmly as the club's head honcho in the middle of the park. His partner today is less clear-cut with Dulce likely to get a game to show what he can do; however Hart's aim is to get youth signing Graydon Harding into the mix. In attack Hart's hand is forced somewhat with all three of the club's strikers starting with no backup on the bench. Youth League reinforcements are surely imminent with it being likely that two more players at least will join from the YL this season before the EFA's expected clamp-down on promotions. Shiloh Littleleaf, Tobin Quail and Kohen Faris appear to be leading the race. TODAY'S GAME: Widows have travelled well this season and with an experienced five-man defence today will hope to avoid defeat. Reigning champs ELA Elementals are not quite on the ball of late, although only a measly four points separate top from bottom in the Prem. With the same amount of games remaining it could well be a question of timing and a large sprinkling of luck rather than outright merit that dictates who raises the trophy this season - the teams are so tightly placed that there could well be a repeat of last season's shock relegation feats where a mere point will be the difference between a decent finish and facing next season in Division One.

KB: We saw an eight goal thriller when the Jockster's Prophets visited Copperhead Road earlier in the season and we could easily see the same today. With Prophets strong strike partnership of Phoenix and Cesar and their less than impressive defence, the Bambino team will likely play the same long-ball game that destroyed the Prophets defence earlier in the season. Young told reporters that he will always show Jocky's boys respect, as the Jockster is one of the top managers that the game has seen - particularly as they have lost their last two, but that his players will not be holding back when it comes to tackling, as Hearts bully-boy tactics worked well last week. Young denied rumours that he has tabled an offer for Archibald Crisp, a player that he has long admired. "I'm not saying that an offer is out of the question, big Archie would flourish in the Bambino side, but I don't have the money to buy him at the moment". The rift between Hippo Pixii and Guy Vexille was healed this week, after the two held a three round boxing match in aid of comic relief. 6ft 9 inch Pixii had to take it easy on the diminutive Vexille, but it was an amusing match and raised £12,000 for the charity.

KV: This week Hiero Enrique performed brilliantly at international level, and got Man of the Match. In an interview he said "Well I have a long way to go to be the quality of Mario, but it is something we all aim for". For the fourth week in a row, manager Kai Young has knocked back an offer for "Super Mario" that he can only describe as "comical, silly and unbelievable. A couple decent offers have been considered, but with a team packed full of talent, I wish someone would come sniffing for other players also!". Kai Added "This week's visit from Walmington Rovers see's our attacks 2 biggest threats suspended (Luke Hicks and thier captain Jarrah Kiah), which pleases McGuire and Mthalande. Should be a cracking game"
WR: Rovers Boss Steve Farnden remained upbeat ahead of his sides crucial away trip to Kenkai Veleno. "We are up against it. Make no mistake" He said. "Last week's 3-3 draw to Whitecaps was a disappointment when you consider we were 3-1 up. But we must bounce back and ensure we attack from the first whistle. We have been hit hard of late with suspensions which has caused us to lose Jurgen Blank in order to bring in additional players to boost our squad. But I am delighted with our new signings and believe the strength in depth and additional quality across the park will give us the edge in the relegation battle that we find ourselves in."

TA: Dave Newell called a hasty press conference to announce that Yves Roudnitski would be leaving the club at the end of the season. The Frenchman, who Newell has never got on with since the inception of the NGE. It isn't known at present whether he will retire or go to another club, but Newell has been known in the past to finish careers of players he didn't like. The twelve capped international will probably be on a lot of manager's radars but will Newell actually sell? Newell said later, "Now then young man, I just ask that young French lad to try his best, and if I don't feel he does, well I'm right as always, then he will have to go." - STOP PRESS - Rumours that Dave Newell has been looking over a whole swathe of new Italian talent was not quashed by Newell. "I just met my girlfriend's family, it's not my fault if her Italian grandmother comes from Sicily, and she happens to know a lot of families on the island!"

HH: It has been a difficult couple of weeks at the training camp of HH. Disappointment of back to back defeats have meant that the managers are scouring the league for strikers, midfield, and defenders. Is no one safe? Management feel that the often reliable home victory has let them down, and they have often received horrendous offers of glory seekers. A missed opportunity of not promoting a youth team player in time has caused one of their coaching staff, Roger the dodger, to wonder around the camp like a mad dog, furiously barking orders at anyone in the near vicinity. The manager, Big Sammy Sam has even asked his favourite Uncle for assistance, but they have not acted quickly enough to get the player of their dreams. Parky Park, chief scout, has been asked to come round for a couple of cans to help either discuss the serious situation, or chat about the footy on the telly. Oh, decisions, decisions. PS Happy birthday to the chief friend of the Rat - sherberts???????
CW: TEAM NEWS - Wanderers hope to get back to winning ways this week to keep their promotion push on track. One change is made from last week with Mercy Freedom replacing Peregrin in attack. TRANSFER NEWS - Despite only just signing & being a long time target, Gerhard Eisler left the Mills Ground this week. Manager Wigg stated that due to the progress of Fernandez & De Silva in the Youth League, Eisler would find it very hard to get a game when the two are promoted in the coming weeks. Other transfer news hopefully sees the return of Jino Giacomono to the club. Wigg is working hard to see his return & hopes a deal can be struck very soon.
