Sammy Bull

Player Nat P Wage S A F Age T/Fee Club Bought

In recent weeks Mr Bull has not made any players available due to a chronic lack of interest from Einnek managers. His sabbatical has not seen the top agent relaxing and after stacking up plenty of air miles he is now ready to return to the game. From next week a new crop of fresh young talent will be made available. Sammy's Players have a better chance of success as they have already had success in other leagues and the new talent he has found are considered some of the best ever prospects. A new system for bidding will involve managers making secret bids. The first manager to make an acceptable offer for a player will automatically sign them. If no bid reaches the valuation Mr Bull has placed on a player when the turn is due, the highest bid will receive the player although they will be introduced a one skill point lower than originally advertised.

EM: It would seem that life is going to be very tough for the Mythicals this season, with an expected relegation battle on their hands. With the departure of Brazilian number 1 goalkeeper Galfarro to Kenkai Veleno, and many recognised internationals coming into the squad in his place, JR Snr was hoping that these new faces would help stabilise the ship and add much quality in the depth to the squad. The only performances of note from the opening game of the season came from De Quejo, Sjoblom and the pair of Cruso attackers, with the experienced Croat Szudak getting our consolation goal. With another tough trip away from the Ruwi this week, JR Snr is hoping that new goalkeeping sensation Xolani Zander stakes his claim for the No 1 jersey for the Afrikaan boys, and keeps the shooters from scoring.

Andrew Shurmer's strike in the 74th minute earned his side a point. Still, JP took comfort in the 2-2 draw, against what he considered a very good side. 'Valencia Bogota and Ljungbergsson were awesome!' he later told reporters. Next up for Cairo - the visit of one of the GIANTS of Einnek football - SVC! In other news, Eldorado Tularosa still continues to be the subject of transfer talk. While JP has said he does not want to lose him, he did concede every player has his price.

Subs: Tijno Mozes 6, Ernie Lombard 7, Matt Trutwein -.  MM: With shock opening day away win now fully in the memory banks, manger JR Jnr is counting the cost of the victory. Firstly Club and Cameroon Captain international Keeper D'Nonga is out for an expected 2-3 weeks, and midfield maestro and Argentinean Starlet Genio Gabriel Juarez only went and got himself sent off in the game. This though has given another chance for Japanese midfielder Shikou the opportunity to stake a claim for a regular starting XI place.  CL: ~LAST WEEK~ Solid performances from debutants Kefentse Valentine, Elfin Von Kamme and Calico favorite Burton Wragg secured an opening win of the season as the Lawbreakers beat the Texas Promos 4-3 with Von Kamme grabbing two of the goals. ~THIS WEEK~ Its the first game on the road for Calico as they travel to Jack Riseborough's Mucat Marvos. Jack has a number of key players injured but considering the Lawbreakers have NEVER won an away tie Ady Blyth is expecting a loss this week. ~LAST MEETING~ N/A ~TRANSFERS~ Two players join the Calico ranks this week - Former player Simone Pilkingtoni makes his Calico return after signing from Corton Wanderers and Russian 1st Choice Midfielder Mikhail Rokossovski signs from West Leigh Warriors in a deal that brought the curtain down on Nitro Nighthawk's spell at the club. Blyth admitted he was sad to see the Nighthawk leave however in order to balance his squad he felt a higher skill midfielder would be useful to have. ~INTERNATIONALLY~ Its a busy international week for the Lawbreakers - Rokossovski plays for Russia, Von Kamme turns out for Germany and Leo Alonso will be in goal for Columbia. ~AND FINALLY~ Ady Blyth is still on the look out for players. Despite 9 new faces at the club the Calico Lawbreakers boss insists no player is guaranteed a place in his team unless they play to the highest level both on the pitch and in training. He is happy in the Midlands and isn't looking forward to living up north, as he has an allergic reaction to Eccles cakes and finds Vernon Kaye too irritating. New signings Frederick Fisher, Shiro Mirza, and Alberto San Juan all start. San Juan leading the new 4pronged attack. Dragan Sut finally left for Black Star Olympic, where Tam McEwan has joined from. Olympic boss Mark Croasdale mentions he needs to keep an eye on!?!  Heavitree Athletic
