Oberhauser, the 2nd bull player Burton ever bought, also returns to the club with Vaden coming in as well. Burton also moved to sign Fintyre from Veleno with Rocky going the other way. Burton has the largest operating squad he has ever had in Einnek and is enjoying the options available to him. Burton normally operates on a skeleton squad in order to maximise skill points but is enjoying the new approach and this is likely to continue especially with the new proposed changes that will be coming in next season. ~THIS WEEK~ An away trip to Matt's disciples. Burton knows he needs to get something out of the game if he wants to retain a decent league position and not yo yo straight back into the bottom three again! ~INTERNATIONALS~ With the B games going straight into the Semi Finals only Orlando stands a chance of getting into the Columbian squad if selected. ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ Burton intends to introduce a couple more Youth players before the end of the season then start a fresh next season with the players who have already just come in the last few weeks plus any more from now until then. Rumour has it Reecy Burton may be on his way into the Youth League for the start of next season. Africa Lulach and Rojas El Retourno look set to be released after failing to impress.

Subs: Aitor Wiafedankar 7, Zachary Fass 7, Norwyn Osbourne -. BW: Before last week's game Spencer Hart remarked on how close things it all was in E1's prem - and after the game he got to see just how close, as his Widows team dropped eight places to swap places with their victors ELA Elementals. The Widows are therefore in a relegation scrap with three games on the clock. Hart is hopeful of finishing closer to the summit than the bottom however, and with two nightmare games to come he reckons it is essential to pick up a positive result today against Vinny's Sirocco Whitecaps. TEAM NEWS: Vidal Barrio-Lomas is selected ahead of Finn Bogle in goal and is hoping to represent Columbia B today in their semi-final. Hart has stressed he is still undecided on who the number one jersey will end up with, although a strong performance today should guarantee the South American a place for the remainder of the season. Elsewhere in the squad there is a healthy contingent from the Widows youth team, with Chesapeake Bluff and Graydon Harding making the bench and Swede Kohen Faris deputising up front. Shiloh Littleleaf is also awaiting selection, with Hart promising the youngster Premier League football this season, and there may still be time yet for the arrival of Tobin Quail from the youth ranks.

Most notably, Jankov Zvonimir, a player who has returned from Bambino to the Veleno side said "I have gained a lot of experience while I have been away. I hope to help the side go all the way for the premier title." Manager Kai Young commented, "We've been unlucky the past few games, a draw at home last week still places us third, but it's a tight table, let's face it, 3 games to go and Whitecaps could still win it!"

Subs: Dakota Rhett 7, Narciso Ricotoro 7, Ognjen Kosanovic -. WR: Rovers Boss Steve Farnden was relishing the arrival of Premier league leaders Celtic Hearts. "The league table does not lie. Stu Henfrey has formed one of the strongest sides in NGE and I salute him. They have quality all over the park and his frontline has caused me sleepless nights, believe me!!! Farnden quipped. "But my boys are unbeaten in 7 and riding high following last weeks dramatic 3-3 draw at Kenkai Veleno. Luke Hicks returns which will sure up our defence and Alonso makes his home debut. Chunkster is on fire. So bring it on !!!" CH: Top of the table, 3 games to go, surely not?! Hearts travel to Walmington this week still looking for their 1st away win of the season. The suspension to Zajn Sut Kobak weakens the defence & manager Stu Henfrey has opted for a 3 man central defence in light of this, EYL player Nicolas Guégan makes his debut in a 3 man midfield & knows a good performance could push him into the French B side. Up front Henfrey opts for 2 wingers & 2 front men with Øivind Lie joining an already impressive trio of Ruiz Garitano, Jesse Dash & Samuel Essombé as Henfrey looks for goals.

Upon leaving the club and returning to previous side Corton Wanderers, stated that he had to move again to guarantee football and to keep alive his international prospects. Coming in for Jino, the Mythicals have increased their squad depth, but more importantly looked at improving their defence with the services of the "Winker". Rumours are rife though, that the midfield area may just be sacrificed in the coming weeks to further strengthen their defence. ~INTERNATIONALLY~ With run outs last week in the semi finals of the world cup for Zizinho, Sjoblom and English, this week it is the opportunity for Wulf to further enhance his claims for a first team spot in the USA A team, in the B team semi-finals ~AND FINALLY~ Malcolm made it back to work this week, but it is rumoured that he has to use a different entrance as is having nightmares of falling doors.

Subs: Ratimir Puz 6, Allan Moss Jnr 6, Guadalario -. LR: Today's game will be a revenge mission for the lawbreakers after Rovers won 2-1 earlier in the season. The game was very physical with two sending offs. Only two players playing today for Littleton played in that fixture. Five players have come and gone this week with Vasco De Veto coming back to the Rovers. De Veto said in the unveiling of the new players that he made a mistake in leaving the Rovers and wants to stay here for the rest of his career and help make the team get promotion and take the team from strength to strength. Gabriel Barbosa impressed again last week and with the departure of Cortez and Mcquillen he will need to continue in the rich form he is in. He will have new strike partners this week with American striker Nazareen joining and Walsh and Burns will get their chance to shine like the others promoted from the youth team. Perluigi Mossi and Brad Day are impressing in the youth team at the moment and the Italian defender and Australian Forward will make the first team squad soon.

The Youth League will be taking a break until the mid-season break when the proposed rule changes outlined on the forum will be introduced.

SEASON FOUR

With only two more league turns remaining in Season Three, it is time to start preparations for Season Four. Please can I ask all managers to drop an email to me (richard@einek.co.uk) letting me know if you are planning to carry on into next season. Fees for playing will be held at the same level again. Moving into Season Four, will see a few changes to the website which will hopefully make some things clearer and easier to find. Also the revisions to the game discussed on the forum in recent weeks will be implemented. I hope you have all enjoyed this season and I hope to see you all again next time. Richard.
