SEASON FOUR

With only one more league turn remaining in Season Three; it is time to start preparations for Season Four. Please can I ask all managers to drop an email to me (richard@einnek.co.uk) letting me know if you are planning to carry on into next season – thanks to those who have already, but please do this right now as there is a lot to do at the start of a new season and the sooner I know what you are planning, the more organised things will be. Fees for playing will be held at the same level again. Moving into Season Four, will see a few changes to the website which will hopefully make some things clearer and easier to find. Also the revisions to the game discussed on the forum in recent weeks will be implemented. I hope you have all enjoyed this season and I hope to see you all again next time. Richard.

It was a cash only deal which saw Bellerme and Vaden sold to fund the deal. Burton was also very pleased to announce the signing of Goal machine Hector Arillo; Iasa and Tulacoosa were sacrificed but "signing one of the best strikers in the game doesn't come cheap" admitted Burton. This deal also saw one of Burtons creations Dremidydd re-join the fold. Yet another deal sees Safeer, Zaborski and Eisler leave the club only 2-3 weeks after joining, however Burton was pleased to announce the arrival of Gonzales and Dittle the latter who he intends to keep goal in the mid future ~THIS WEEK~ Burton hosts the Pink Bambino Boys this week in what is another must win game. Subs: Bernardino Dulce 6, Shiloh Littleleaf 7, Patrick Otter -.           BW: With only goal difference separating the top half of the premier division, Spencer Hart reckons he has the most daunting task of any manager if Black Widows are to claim Spencer Hart's first ever Premier trophy. Firstly, they have to contain the best player in the league in Mario McGuire today; secondly, they need a result against Celtic Hearts on the final day of the season next week. Recent history would seem to be on Widows' side, having defeated Hearts already and limiting McGuire to 'just the one' earlier in the season. If by some miracle Widows sit atop the division after these games then it will be well deserved, but the manager is experienced enough to know that 22 years of not becoming a 'The' puts his side as dark horses at best. * TEAM NEWS: Jacob Milaberg is chucked in up front with Hart opting to fight fire with fire today - he doesn't expect to prevent Veleno scoring but is hoping his own strike force will get on the score sheet against a weak defence. There is a debut for Graydon Harding, the most successful of the Widows' youth team this season, while Finn Bogle's departure gives Vidal Barrio-Lomas an extended period between the sticks. Other than Harding and Milaberg's inclusions Hart's hands are tied this week with squad additions looking essential in the close season. YOUTH TEAM: With only a couple of weeks remaining it is likely that Tobin Quail will be the last of the present crop promoted for a short while the rest of the batch builds up their experience.  |                       |       |        |        |       |                      |

"This is a tough place to go, make no mistake" said Farnden. "Dave Atkins is a good manager and has some good players in all positions, so we will have to be on our toes to get a positive result." Rovers are just above the drop zone but confidence is high following an 8 match unbeaten run. "The unbeaten run is something we are proud of. But from those 8 games, only 2 have been victories. We must win at least 1 of our last 2 games to give ourselves a chance of survival and hope the many players close to suspension avoid needless bookings."   |                       |       |        |        |       |                      |

New striking sensation Skupta continued his scoring record with his second brace in a row. ~THIS WEEK~ The last home game of the season this week, sees the visit of the Nuclear Boys, Winchmore Radiation. Visiting Manager Stew Herd, will be hoping that they do indeed go nuclear this week to save them from going three games lost in a row, and having not won a game in 4 weeks. ~LAST MEETING~ IN week 10, the Radiation handed out a footballing lesson to the Mythicals, with a 5-3 hammering. The Mythicals are much stronger now, and hope for at least a draw, which could go some the way to securing their place in Division 1~TRANSFERS~ Only one of note, in comes South African International defender and star of the future Cordell Autauga, but out goes Midfield international stars Nasuki and Remero ~INTERNATIONALLY~ Only Ziziinho in International duty this week with Brazils Semi Final against Spain. ~AND FINALLY~ The weather is getting much warmer in The Middle East WR: ~LAST WEEK~ A second consecutive defeat, this time to Dixieland, sees Winchmore uncomfortably looking over their shoulder at the relegation places. Whilst missing immediate promotion back to the Prem would not be disastrous, falling into Div 2 would be! The only highlights from the game were a strong debut by Tatarella, and Cattlepurse's 1st goal for Winchmore at the 3rd attempt! ~THIS WEEK~ A trip to Elland Mythicals, just weeks after SIX players joined Winchmore from Elland in exchange for Ziziinho, 3 of which will be involved in the tie! Priority is to avoid a 3rd consecutive defeat, so a 5 man defence is expected. Debutants in XIV: 3 (Vargas, Prudencio, Hrasovac). Home grown players in XIV:2 (Kearns, Prudencio) ~LAST MEETING~ H5-3, joint biggest win of the season, with a Kearns hat trick! 6 of the squad from that game will be involved this week. ~HISTORY~ P1 W1 D0 L0 F5 A3 ~TRANSFERS~ Only one deal this week, with yet another goalkeeper joining the ranks, a young 11 capped Croatian. ~INTERNATIONALLY~ The semis see 3 defence stalwarts of Radiation do battle; Sedonia, Booboo &amp; Amiliana. Herd predicts Mexico to go all the way, with victory in the final against Spain! ~WHERE ARE THEY NOW? ~ Only 2 moves this week, with top midfielder Nasuki (38 apps, 2nd highest midfielder ever for the club, to Captain Coffman) joining rivals Druids, whilst Eisler (5 apps), who has failed to really settle anywhere since leaving Sunset Town Rd, goes from top to bottom, from ELA to 7 Stars ~DID YOU KNOW..~ Coffman's MOM international performance last week almost didn't happen; he was only drafted into the starting XI on the morning of the league game! ~EYL~ Prudencio is rushed up into 1st team squad, and 3 cap Brazilian keeper Niildo is preparing to step up soon and be a long term replacement for club &amp; country for Sedonia ~AND FINALLY~ Defender Tatarella has made an instant impact at the club with the fans adapting the "Macarena" song in his honour! |                         |       |        |        |       |                  |

Andries De Witt is replaced by the fit again Lumumba Vawda at the back. Youngster Con Lafferty keeps his place up front after netting the winning goal on his debut last week. LAST WEEK: Another hard fought win, but the players know they must perform in the last two games if they're to have a chance of taking anything out of this season. TRANSFER NEWS: Nothing much has been happening on the transfer front, although the club have turned down offers for Offondo, Lee, Gouwe and Vawda in the last seven days. YOUTH LEAGUE: Both Simon Westall and Leonardo Rocha both signed senior contracts this week and both will feature in the first team in the next few weeks. The scouts have been busy and have uncovered Swede Magnus Lars Ericsson, who has been tipped to play at the highest level by some in his homeland. OTHER NEWS: The staff car park was resurfaced this week, meaning players were forced to park in nearby streets. Asin Offondo, however, took the bus.  |                         |       |        |        |       |                  |

SEASON FOUR

With only one more league turn remaining in Season Three; it is time to start preparations for Season Four. Please can I ask all managers to drop an email to me (richard@einek.co.uk) letting me know if you are planning to carry on into next season – thanks to those who have already, but please do this right now as there is a lot to do at the start of a new season and the sooner I know what you are planning, the more organised things will be. Fees for playing will be held at the same level again. Moving into Season Four, will see a few changes to the website which will hopefully make some things clearer and easier to find. Also the revisions to the game discussed on the forum in recent weeks will be implemented. I hope you have all enjoyed this season and I hope to see you all again next time. Richard.
