Subs: Piero Schiaparelli 6, Tutan Foogin 7, Christofer Cederschild -. BSO: ~LAST WEEK~ With both teams notching in the same 13th minute it looked like a very close encounter was on the cards as Branimir Pero's strike was cancelled by Super Mario. A man of the match performance by BSO legend Strakerman couldn't sway the balance for the away team as Veleno nudged a 2-1 win with an aggressive 34-32 point count. Team FB manager Mark E Mark said post match "I don't agree with some observers that this Kenkai outfit is a one man team, but one man was the difference today" if not to further fan the unfounded rumours - Later Funky Bunch Supremo Marky Mark urged his strikers in the wake of the one goal haul "Dont stop til you get enough" ~TRANSFERS~ Paul "Bad Gag" Vinny was contacted vis a vis ! The availability of his averaging 1 goal in 2 game, 8 ipped Argie strikeman, Souza, to partner his fellow countryman Baptista 11ip at the Hol'th'wall stadium. In the end, Sneddon and a bounty of cash made there way to the East End - Marky Mark was originally quoted as saying "Beat it" to the silver tongued Conceyville Salesman but eventually he remarked "I wanna rock with you" ~RETIRALS~ Only BSO's 2nd retiral brought the end to yet another keeper. 22y 11m Yankee legend Cadd Boomerangs long and distinguished career (average 6.83 from 6 starts)- his manager shared these words "Cadd brought many a happy face from his style of play" "especially the opposing strikers!" added the cheeky Black Star monkey-manager "£2,000,000 is worth more to this club then that numpty" he added after the press left - "You know I'm bad, I'm bad-you know it" Boomers blirled as he left the media room - Meanwhile Gaffa Croasy let slip of John "Devon-ish" Wetsons approach, as he offered a replacement BSO keeper, as "A smooth criminal!" ~THIS WEEK~ Big Stu's shows his Hearts again to the BSO public this Friday in a bid to rally his stutter start to NGE season 3 - From 2 previous games 13 goals were delivered when the 2 NGE Juggernauts met head to head, BSO Bossman MC uttered "I predict it'll be a thriller again, it's close to midnight and something evil's lurking in the dark, you know its thriller" ~PREVIOUS MEETINGS~ Season 2 Week 6 witnessed an awesome 3-3 at the Heart Beat Arena with MoM Branimir Pero notching a superb hat trick of er goals the last one coming just 4 minutes from time to deny the Hearts faithful a memorable win - High Skill Point match up was 3-5 that day in BSO's favour - Season 2 Week 17 it was HSP BSO 7-3 CH as Olympic powered to a 3-1 lead eventually winning 4-3 with DoleBoy, Strakerman and Villanuea bagging a brace ~LINE UPS~ HSP BSO 6-2 CH as England defensive legend 7oaks is knocking at the door to get a start, but 8ip Zvonimir wants to keep his place ahead of Hi-lpped Pero, Joli, Souza, Hookton, and Sut wouldn't mind a game too ! - Gaffa Croasy explained "Team selection is as easy as A B C its 1 2 3 its A B C, baby you and me!" ~INTERNATIONALLY~ Last week, the only International recognition went to Kraut Zschokke. Croats Zvonimir and Pero wait for the B tournament to get under way. This turn sees Frederic Abalsamo Molinari, Jaimenacho Mendiguchia, Santiago Villanueva and Zezu Baptista fight it out for A team starts. Olegario Souza needs a big performance to press his claims, he denied recent press claims of a non-Einnek interest - Team FB gunvor stepped in to say "Billie Jean is not his lover" ~AND FINALLY~ Answers on a postcard please for this weeks guest lyric based manager comment songster ? - winner gets a sk2 keeper ! Rich W and Ady guessed correct last week with SugaBabes, I'm afraid Henfers was wrong with ShaWoddyWoddy :-) CH: Following last weeks heavy defeat at New Disciples manager Stu Henfrey makes plenty changes to the formation & line up. Of the 2 new keepers signed this week Christofer Cederschild gets the nod with Jean-Espoir Sylvain on the bench. Grayson Cantrell & Julián Chevaz Chacón come into defence, with Joaquin Luis Niguez dropped to the bench & Balliol Delacroix sold. Joord Bastiaan & Heinne Mikuak keep their places in a 2 man midfield with Tutan Foogin dropped to the bench. While up front Kazuyhiro Kubota starts along side last weeks trio of Arne Skuptka, Samuel Essombé & Sergei Tegnibeden.

"The lads have performed well in training on the back of a great home win last week. We now face a tough trip to Matt Davenport's Disciples but feel confident we can get a good result. Yusef Gomez makes his debut in goal and I have every faith he will step up to the plate and impress. With our new German trio in midfield I am expecting an attack minded display and with Chunkster up front goals are always possible".

Subs: Latona Roark 6, Pichi Alvez 6, Dubravko Hrasovac -. BW: Spencer Hart's worst start to a top-flight campaign in recent times prompted a defensive shake-up in the week, with Kujimata - as expected - the striking casualty exiting. The defender coming in is Italian giant Carlucio Bonaventura, but fans will have to wait for a week to see their new idol in a Widows shirt while he recovers from a niggling ankle injury. Salvatore Medina gets a few games between the sticks to show what he's made of while Pavel Zookov - whose untimely injury last week allowed the awfully-christened Thomas Griffin back into the international fold - recovers from a pulled hamstring. Two other additions to today's line-up are Swede Gerd Fritjof and Bakacka Mo, who deputises after serving a two-match suspension. With the Youth League pushed back a week and the Widows stretched to breaking point, Spencer Hart saw enough in defender Jasper D'Hondt to promote him straight to the full squad without going through the youth system. 'The boy has it all - he's a natural leader with a great touch and already reads the game like a seasoned pro. We have high hopes for him,' came the glowing report. While Spencer Hart said he was hopeful of promoting several players from the youth team later in the season after they had gained international experience at a lower level, he would not rule out the possibility of other youth introductions into the full team in the coming weeks. 'Some are more ready for Einnek One than others - we have a few other players in the pipeline ready to jump straight into the thick of things if required.'

With the departure of Brazilian number 1 goalkeeper Galfarro to Kenkai Veleno, and many recognised internationals coming into the squad in his place, JR Snr was hoping that these new faces would help stabilise the ship and add much quality in the depth to the squad. The only performances of note from the opening game of the season came from De Quejo, Sjoblom and the pair of Cruso attackers, with the experienced Croat Szudak getting our consolation goal. With another tough trip away from the Ruwi this week, JR Snr is hoping that new goalkeeping sensation Xolani Zander stakes his claim for the No 1 jersey for the Afrikaan boys, and keeps the shooters from scoring.

The scoreline would suggest a close match, but in truth, it was all over in the 73rd minute when Ametrio Salazar got his hat-trick, making it 1-4. Two late goals from Holm and Tularosa gave the Tomb something to hope for right till the end, but I don't think SVC07 manager, Gaz Allcock, was too worried. If he was, he didn't show it. All JP could do was take consolation in the fact that many have tipped SVC to win the division this season. 'Salazar was a right handful,' JP told reporters. 'I can't see many teams stopping that boy!' Fianco got sent off on his debut for SVC - the one sour note on an otherwise happy day for Gaji.

Firstly Club and Cameroon Captain international Keeper D'Nonga is out for an expected 2-3 weeks, and midfield maestro and Argentinean Starlet Genio Gabriel Juarez only went and got himself sent off in the game. This though has given another chance for Japanese midfielder Shikou the opportunity to stake a claim for a regular starting XI place.

CL: ~LAST WEEK~ Ady Blyth was impressed with his teams display at Muscat Marvos as the sides ended up with a 1-1 draw. Elfin Von Kamme scored once again to ensure his 100% scoring record kept on going. The only downside to the game was Brock Summers sending off in the 64th minute meaning the promising striker will now be a skill 4 when he returns and may well have to wait for another 1st team shot. ~THIS WEEK~ The Lawbreakers welcome Joseph Burridge and FC Cosmos to the Cauldron. Both sides are evenly matched so a draw is the predicted result. ~LAST MEETING~ N/A ~TRANSFERS~ One player joins the club..... and there were no surprises as it was announced another Cruso joins the Calico ranks. Cees Kobus a hard hitting Dutch Midfielder joins the squad from Gazo's SVC07 and given the last Cruso to join from one of Gazo's sides was Burton Wragg big things are expected from the Dutch supremo. ~INTERNATIONALLY~ After last weeks international party there will be no Calico players in international action this week. ~AND FINALLY~ Calico are still willing to listen to offers for ANY of their players.
