However with Elementals still in 4th spot a win at home this week could see them go top. ~TRANSFERS~ After nothing for three weeks finally a deal has been struck. Skanberg and Maas enter the squad with Burt going in the other direction. Other deals have been offered out but nothing else has been agreed. ~THIS WEEK~ Sees the visit of Morrowind FC. Burton is expecting a win but yet again he is 2 skill points down with a suspension which has put the element of doubt there for this game. Prediction 2-1. Furlon Cooper makes his debut this week. ~INTERNATIONAL~ This week will see Dechevillier pick up his 22nd cap barring another high capper being suspended! Also Cirino for Spain and Heron Player Autanga for South Africa with outside chances for caps off the bench.

Team FB enjoy a home high skill point advantage of 7 to 5 ... PREVIOUS MEETINGS - There's quite the history between these NGE PowerHouses with 4 previous meetings and 2 more to come this season ... Season One BSO 2-1 WR, WR 2-1 BSO - Season Two WR 3-3 BSO, BSO 4-3 WR ... TEAM SELECTION - After last weeks shockingly defensive 5-3-2, Gaffa Marky Mark may well look to bring in some of the Big Guns up front .... or will he ? ... INTERNATIONALLY - 9 or 10 Funky Bunchers are looking forward to the B games in week 6, but amazingly no BSO interest this week ... AND FINALLY - The Black Star Gaffa has resisted the temptation to make any lame Halloween related comments and preferred to talk about today's game - "I was disappointed for the fans last time out, so this week we're hoping to put on a real spooktackle !" "The game finished 0-0 so this week we're just hoping for a few ghouls!"

Subs: Jasper D'Hondt 7, Jacarunda Wattle 6, Salvatore Medina -. BW: Big changes at the Iron Web this week as all areas of the squad are affected by big transfers. Pavel Zookov's return from injury signifies a change in goalkeeper as the Russian slots back into the position he has made his own, with efficient deputy Salvatore Medina expected to call time on his career. There are big changes in defence and up front with Gaston Cuevas and Gaspar Llamazares making way for Puablo Sasi and Jenkins Shyre, who gets an immediate start at the expense of Gabriel Duverger who returned to the French league. Lachlann St. Andrew and Pancho Bocanegra also make their debuts, but all eyes will be on the new partnership of Gioacchino Quagliacica and Sasi. * In what Spencer Hart is describing as a 'purely tactical move', the club's top-scorer Costilla Escondido has been offered to clubs this week with the manager keen to lure what every Einnke manager seems to want: a quality defender. However he has been frustrated by a lack of response from various teams and the Columbian, for now, remains part of the Widows strikeforce.

CM: Not overly exciting stuff but a win nonetheless. What was a plus was the performances of both Moses Karoo and Mercy Freedom (was on the TL for a few days this week!) ahead of South Africa's first World Cup match; Freedom bagging both of Cairo's goals. In other news, yet another enquiry regarding the availability of gk, Kendo Mitsubishi. A dip in form could find Spanish striker, Eldorado Tularosa, on the bench for next week's game against AFC Kennington, a game which will see former Mummies midfielder, Jefferson Blaze, face his old club.
