Subs: Ratan Tinder 8, Arquimedes Zulo 6, Blade Chaparro -. BW: It has been a frustratingly slow week for Widows on the transfer front with the manager desperately trying to push through deals for Bocanegra and Wattle, introducing youth talent Redding Magson and lodging an astronomical bid for an unknown Ivanoff prospect late on Thursday evening. 'If we're successful with the bid I'll be delighted. Scotland's midfield is crying out for a leader and he looks to be one of Alessandro's most gifted discoveries for a long time.' On the plus side, Spencer Hart did manage to bag one of his top targets in Kilgour Neagle. The Ivanoff all-action defender is the latest piece in a tough back-four which already has Carlucio Bonaventura and Chad Reekie. Pavel Zookov's injury curse continues, with Salvatore Medina postponing his retirement to continue between the sticks. Up front, Pablo Sasi and Gioacchino Quagliaccia showed glimpses of the relationship to come while it is a big week for Bakacka Mo who needs to rediscover his scoring touch pronto if he is to feature in Cameroon B's World Cup season which kicks off today. The club will be looking to sign a striker immediately, with Hart stating that he doesn't feel any of his Youth Players will be ready to make the jump into a full league for some time.

Subs: Thaba Cisco 6, Cees Kobus 6, Matt Trutwein -. CW: Wade Saintbernards dip in form see's him replaced in attack by 'The Hoop' in this weeks league & cup fixtures. Hooqadew was disappointing in his 1st game under Wigg & hasn't featured since but gets his chance again. There is also a formation change following the departure of Wouter Bos & this accomodates the promising Del Cid in midfield. Two defensive changes are also made with new signings Hookton & Jiro debuting. CL: ~LAST WEEK~ Ady Blyth's Calico Lawbreakers crashed to a crushing 2-1 home defeat to Heavitree Athletic. After the game Ady Blyth admitted the better team had won. It would appear Paul Davie has put together a strong team after allowing Ragnar Soderberg to leave the club and after the match Blyth tipped Davies team for the title ~THIS WEEK~ Calico are on the road taking on new Einnek side Nikki Wigg's Corton Wanderers. Blyth is expected to bring Cruso Tijno Mozes back into his side for the injured Matthew Sansum. 'Mozes is the type of player who is a star one minute but a donkey the next' quoted Ady Blyth earlier this week when asked about why he continued to allow the Dutch striker stay with the club. It would appear Blyth is the most likely Einnek manager to get a performance out of the player with him hitting top form at the end of last season but failing to get started this year..... so far! Kefentse Valentine continues to live up to his pre season hype with another solid performance this week and he will be boosted even further with the news this week that Ady Blyth has handed a contract to his former team mate Thaba Cisco who he played with at youth level in South Africa. ~LAST MEETING~ The two teams have never met before however the managers have played against each other in the old Einnek paper turns back in the day. ~TRANSFERS~ No new signings this week although Blyth is rumoured to be preparing a bid for an unnamed English Defender. ~INTERNATIONALLY~ Cameroon Defender Frederick Fisher should feature for the Cameroon B Team. ~YOUTH NEWS~ It wasn't Spartanburg who grabbed the headlines for the Calico Youth Team but Ashley Bloomfield. The player - tipped by Ady Blyth as a defender scored twice to show he has the potential to become a striker! ~AND FINALLY~ Blyth is preparing bids for several players after a quiet week on the transfer market.
