Subs: Akihiro Ichiyama 6, Shashino 6, Dubravko Hrasovac -. EE: ~"LAST WEEK"~ An expected defeat to Matt's Disciples in the friendly so no problems there. A home cup draw was most welcome though. ~"TRANSFERS"~ Negotiations have been ongoing this week to try and bring more talent to the club but this proved to be fruitless with no real progress being made. However a cash bid was accepted for young defender Gilderdale to bolster the squad. ~"THIS WEEK"~ See's a home game against Warrington Bukigura. Burton expects a home win but is taking a bit of a gamble playing skill 4 Vanderflore only time will tell if this will pay off. ~"INTERNATIONALS"~ With the B teams in action again this should see caps coming for Joshua Lee, Maas and De Visser. Also if Burtons plan works Vanderflore could get a start in Netherlands Midfield. The plan being to win the League match to push Vanderflore up to a 5 which will then boost him into a B capped spot. As Burton says this is a risk as he could have easily got a mid in but the extra cap and a possibility of an IMOM was a risk he is willing to take. BSO: WEEK6(friendly) - The rumble in the jungle with heavyweight Big Stu failed to materialise with a low scoring 2-1 friendly win as Hearts were broken without too much fuss - Now to the thriller in manilla as .... The fixtures computer delivered its usual irony with Black Star Olympic drawing a cup tie against Mark E Mark Nephew / Brother in law combo Hoghton Sherrington, a real East Lincs hot pot can be expected as the hunter becomes the hunted in a ding dong of a ding dang do !!! - WEEK7 - Burnie Wurnie figurehead and all round good guy Spen is the victor to the Hole this week as his table topping Widows are due a good stuffing at the hands of got-beat-last-league-game-u-won-so-i'm-due-a-win BSO ! - Ex-Olympic player Sasi is welcomed back to his former employers but speculation about his future at the Web remains unsettled - " i'd say maybe 4 or 5 of Harts players would get a game in my squad but almost all of my men would do a job for him !!!!! " commented Black Star Gaffa Croasy, as if to light the fire of a manager pre-match comment face off - he knows i like a chuckle he later retracted - interestingly 30,130 IR per 1st 11 team Funk Bunch meets Black Widow total IR 27,892 - TEAM SELECTION - 4-2-4 is preferred again as the high skill players dictate, Croat pitbull bad dog woof woof Pero may switch with argie bargie Baptista in the front line - PREVIOUS MEETINGS - It was 2-1 BSO home win season 2 and then a Widows 3-1 home win in the reverse fixture, a bonus point for BSO would of effectively won them the Premiership, a fact not lost on Gaffa Croasy " We must seek revenge .... although i think we got that in a friendly win last season .... " " " We must seek league revenge ! " he later confirmed - INTERNATIONALS - A good display by Villanueva in the Meccican B's ensures his place in this weeks Olympic line up, the mighty 7oaks is hoping to perform another Olympic IMOM for the English Bee's this week, but Bos who missed out on the last Netherlands Dutch Holland A game misses the B's as he's too high skilled ! - Although with a squad boasting 12 A team internationals and 3 B teamers Gaffa Croasy has due cause to stick his chest out as proud as peacock with 6 correct lotto numbers and a side order of cherry chopsticks  BW: On previous meetings, BSO's meaty midfield has always overrun their Widows counterparts, and although Hart is limited in his midfield selection today's game sees him opt for a repeat of last week's successful 4-3-3 formation. Mendiguchia and the Strakerman may still prove to be the key to an Olympic result but will at least have tigerish third midfielder Cezar Lobo biting mercilessly at their heels throughout as Widows look to cut off the supply to the Olympic attack. This formation switch, coupled with Gabriel Sach's inspirational debut last week, leaves Spencer Hart with a welcome selection headache as Bacacka Mo sits this one out despite having a touch of form of his own. The prolific marksman has yet to take off so far and Hart hopes his unexpected demotion to bench-warming duties will reignite the ruthless streak that has given him his incredible scoring record. TRANSFER NEWS: Salvatore Medina leaves the club this week after several decent displays filling in for injury-prone Pavel Zookov, who fingers crossed* today plays for the Russian B side having missed out on the first team last time round with an ankle injury. Zookov's on-off race for the Russian number one jersey with the league's most unrealistically-named player, Thomas Griffin, took a twist this week as Griffin secured a move to Corkon Wanderers where he has the chance for a decent run in a team.
