YOUTH LEAGUE UPDATE

The work to revamp the Youth League is under way. Progress is a little slow but I still hope to restart in two weeks as previously announced. There will be no more Training Points added to your youth teams until the new tournament starts. Prize monies for the end of the first tournament are now in your bank accounts, please spend wisely!

Leroy Joshua Lee returns to the bench after sitting out last week's win against AC Legacy. LAST WEEK: Gornal Ship finally ended his goal drought, stretching back to Week 19 of last season, by scoring the winning goal against AC Legacy. Defender Lumumba Vawda's looping header had put the Hearts in front, but some poor defending led to an equaliser within five minutes. Wolters was said to be "pleased" with the team's performance. YOUTH LEAGUE: The young Hearts continued to underwhelm in the youth league and remain in the bottom tier of for yet another week. South African Hendrik de Klerk is the latest youngster to be linked with a move to the first team, although manager Rik Wolters wants to see him break into the international side first.

Subs: Ces Florentine 6, Pierre Van Hoidonk 6, Jonas Van Der Hoope 6, Tomaz Reinhammer -. BW: Round 2 - traditionally the week in which Spencer Hart says farewell to the EFA Cup. The manager has every finger crossed today as he prays for victory and a taste of a decent cup run. Morrowind FC however have impressed since their relegation last season, and on paper the sides look evenly matched. TEAM NEWS: Four debuts and a formation change for the Widows today. In comes top midfielder Ulien Quadragesimo, whose vision will be a major asset this season. Both he and Americo Soto have enjoyed success at the good end of the E1 player performance tables, so the fans should see a much more attractive passing game - in the middle of the park at least! Up front Hart loses substantial quality after parting with both Quagliacica and Kubota, leaving Vukovic as the only high profile striker in the squad. Widows switch to 4-2-4 in order to accommodate feisty youngsters Carrow and Hardwick as the wingers charged with the task of getting round the Morrowind fullbacks rather than trying to out-muscle former player Hasakimoro through the middle. The promising Vito Cirino comes into a defence marshalled by new captain Jarrah Kiah, whose leadership should also bring out the best in Arquimedes Zulo to form a desirable defensive partnership.

ELA Elementals (424) - Sachio Wantanabe [bk 49] 7, Andrei Yakhimovich 6, Victor Hammerfox 9, Dinar Nikolay 7, Ziegler Christmetz 9, Aurolio Zen 7, Thorrr Ljungbergsson 7, Niven Kirriemuir [bk 35] 5, Quincy Talacoosa 8, Hector Arillo 7, Chick Murdoch 7. Subs: Collier Cudmore 7, Imanol Erlings 7, Stellan Ståhl 6, Jairho Vamilton -. EE: ~LAST WEEK~ AN expected defeat to Winchmore, however Burton had hoped to pick up a point in one form or another. The only positive note was Arillo's 2nd 9 rating in as many weeks and Burton is hoping he has finally sparked into life for the Midlands club! ~TRANSFERS~ Recently named in his all time best 11 Burton has secured the services of Andrei Yakhimovich for his second stint at the club. He has signed a 5 year contract and is here to stay for the considerable future! On the down side Spivak and Delauney left the club but it was a small price to pay for his services. Also this week Niven Kirremuir has joined the club, Burton has long admired this player and was more than happy to acquire his services; this deal also saw Venceslas, Erlings and Espiridon join the club with Gerro and Nicomedes going the other way. And the final bit of business this week saw Chick Murdoch join Elementals, again another player Burton has been after before and Vargas and Atkins were sacrificed in order to sign the deal. ~THIS WEEK~ Its Cup week again; Christmetz returns to the team after several weeks out injured and THE YAK lines up beside him in the strongest looking defence for quite some time. ~INTERNATIONALS~ Talacoosa will get his 6th cap for South Africa in what will be the only A international playing this week. ~YOUTH TEAM~ There is now a break for the Youth Team to re-charge their batteries and as Kennie says the best teams end up at the bottom....or is that the worst :-D prize money for finishing in the 12th tier of the Youth League expected to be around the four figure mark!!! ~AND FINALLY~ Rats, snakes and weasel mascots being sold this week as a one week special offer bonanza
