YOUTH LEAGUE UPDATE

The Youth League is undergoing a bit of a re-vamp and it is taking me a bit more time than I first thought it would. Rather than rush the coding I am postponing the Youth League until Week 3. From then on all features will be available and games will be played each week. The revamp will see far better integration with your main side and hopefully things will be easier for everyone. I have also decided how to split the Youth League into tournaments and this will enable us to have ladder champions after a set period and thus give people something to aim for rather than a never ending situation like we have at present.

CH: Following the somewhat surprise Runners up position last season manager Stu Henfrey has been busy trying to make Hearts squad stronger than ever in pre-season. However, despite various deals being offered, only 2 were struck which see's Tomkins, Barbaresco, Detheridge, Septmarias, Stephao & Eudoxio arrive. More changes are planned but as yet nothing finalised. The opening game of the new season see's newly promoted Elland Mythicals come to Heart Beat Arena for the opening match & Stu Henfrey comes face to face with old school friend Justin Riseborough. This also see's Ruiz Garitano face his former employers. Stu Henfrey is hoping to get the season of to winning ways as he looks to push for this seasons title, in the pre-match press conference he stated "last season we started with a 3-1 defeat & still finished 2nd so a good start is essential". EM: New Season, new division. What will this season bring the team from the desert. Many might say a relegation dogfight, but the team exceeded expectations last season, and instead of being relegated back down to Division 2, they only went and got themselves promoted into the top tier of Einnek Football. With the majority of the team staying together, and in particular keeping hold of player of the season Per Sjoblom, can they achieve the Mission Impossible and secure another season in the top flight, only time will tell.

Subs: Timotheus Dremidydd 6, Audrius Zhuravel 6, Mordecai Angharad 7. EE: ~LAST WEEK~ Burtons Elementals stayed in the division by the skin of their teeth! A hat trick from new boy Delauney was enough to get the point that was required in a 4-3 defeat. Burton stated that it had been a really bad season and was just relieved to still be in the division. Ill discipline cost us dearly and we wont be making the same mistakes again. ~TRANSFERS~ Burton has been active pre-season to improve the defence and in comes ex player Victor Hammerfox, despite his age he is still a top player and with a rule change to 32 and 34 birthdays he may prove to be a very valuable player. Towering Centre back Christmetz also joins the defence to hopefully form a formidable partnership in the heart the defence. Other signings to note are Skovenberg, Toirsc, Zhuravel, Nighrook, Chaste, Angharad and Maximo. Out go Dittle, Gonzales, Strakerman, Oberhauser and main man midfielder Dechevillier who after faithfully serving Elementals for 2 seasons, longer than any other player joined Calico Lawbreakers. Burton wished him well but the time was right for him to move on and Burton did not want to stand in his way. So that is 9 in and 5 out for some further squad bulking, however some very good signings in there and Burton was very satisfied with the deals he had done! ~THIS WEEK~ Game 1 sees Elementals travel to Jono's prophets. Never an easy start to the season but hoping to get something from the game to get something on the board. ~INTERNATIONALS~ None this week as its week 1 ~YOUTH NEWS~ The youth team are back in training preparing for the new season. Burton intends to allow the players to progress longer and refrain from needlessly pulling them into the first team as the Senior Team's squad is looking much healthier now in terms of size so this should not be necessary. ~SHOCK NEWS~ De Quejo was due to get the captaincy this season but was seen coming out of a nightclub at 2am the day before pre-season training and has been stripped of the captaincy. Skovenberg will now wear the armband for the forthcoming season

Subs: Genio Gabriel Juarez 6, Santiago Villanueva 6, Haarm Van Maanen 7. BW: There was no major overhaul at Widows in the close season, although Spencer Hart did snare two of his long-term targets in Cruso pair Jacobus Servaes and Americo Soto. Hart's biggest puzzler going into the final game today was who to leave out of his defence, and in the end the niggling injury to Kazuhiro Kubota solved the problem with the striker dropping out of contention enabling the tried and trusted 5-2-3. Even so, this still leaves highly-regarded Jackie Gale - the subject of several bids in the close season - on the bench, but with several departures likely from the defence in the coming weeks Hart has assured Gale his time will come. * It's the second time in a matter of weeks that Widows and BSO have squared up, and while again Black Star appear much the stronger side, Hart is confident of giving them a tricky opening fixture - and hopes the opposition are more graceful than on MC's birthday should they stumble flat on their backsides again ... :p :p :p BSO: A 4-3 home win on the last day produced a not-more-than satisfactory top half finish for the previous seasons runner up spot. A Hat trick from 29 cap ledge Lordy Laudelino brought home the bacon. And after last seasons near perfect home record with 9 wins, 2 draws, 0 losses - focus this season is on milking the away form..... Cunning Gaffa Marky Mark is employing a new tactic starting in today's game at the Iron Web. Last season a 10 to 5 high skill point advantage failed to produce a point at Spen's Widows so the BSO Bossman feels compelled to try the new trick up his sleeve which will not be divulged until the game is in progress! ... The Team FB Gaffa hopes the 11 to 7 high skill point advantage this season is fully capitalised upon and the cream rises to the top. Last season top scorer Villanueva drops to the bench as a 4-3-3 could be employed to include Argentine midfield sensation Juarez whose nickname has been revealed as OJ!! New signing Meier also is nudging for a 1st team start after a serious 'youth point' training session..... Previous Widow meetings: S2; H W2-1, A L3-1, Friendly H W2-1 ... S3; H W1-0, A L2-1 ... P5 W3 D0 L2 F7-A7 Summing up last season the Gaffa mused "We expect to deliver more from one of the best squads" urged the Team FB Big Cheese, he continued.... "In terms of effort yoghurt back what you put in, in this league".... "I welcome the new managers to the division, Clincho, Justo, Herdo and Huddso" "lets hope they get exactly what they are want in the Premier" This week's team news has been sponsored by A) An Undertaker B) A Milkman C) A Kitchen fitter?
