YOUTH LEAGUE UPDATE

On its return the Youth League will be just that a league! After some discussions with other managers and looking at your emails, there will be a number of changes to the format; as follows:

- Six divisions of eight sides, with teams playing one game per week against another side from their division.
- All games are played at a neutral venue and therefore each side plays every side in their division once before promotion and relegation takes place.
- The player's specialist skill levels will now be ranked out of 100.
- A player's skill will now be determined by his specialist skill levels – there are no longer automatic increases when a game is won.
- Player's specialist skill levels can decrease as well as increase and as such their actual skill level can drop also.
- Transfers will be permitted between clubs in the Youth League.
- Managers will also be able to sell Youth League players to other senior sides (this will not come into effect right away).
- Internationals will continue as previously.

The other major change will see the promoting players to senior sides costing more. This is because the level of promotions of very ordinary players has been crazy. An average Youth League player is not better then a good international, but we have seen some very good players leave the game just so a younger youth player can be brought into the game. Also, promoted players (and youth players) will now be shown their origin in the signed column of a squad sheet while they are at the club they came from. Once transferred this indication will no longer be shown.

I hope these changes are appealing and fell free to email me any thoughts or discuss on the forum.

Subs: Chick Murdoch 7, Imanol Erlings 7, Stellan Ståhl 6, Dubravko Hrasovac -. BW: After a frenzy of culling and flogging the ageing chaff from his squad, Spenna Hart is more than satisfied with his new-look blend of youth and experience that he feels will be enough to keep Black Widows in the Prem this season. He admitted this was quite a bold prediction given the club's current lowly status, but is convinced that the team is improving every week. TRANSFERS: A quiet week with only squaddie Zander Lund coming in along with some cash, which the gaffa used to snap up the latest goalkeeper Hart has taken a chance on, Kayll Devonald. The Cruso discovery has much to do to displace the inspirational Gerrard Dittle, but is well placed to aim for B-team honours for starters. Also on the goalie front, Dobie Rush's promotion from the YL comes a tad earlier than expected due to the GK shake-up, with Maximo Encarnacion and Ibis Mune on the brink of retirements themselves. TEAM NEWS: Devonald is the only change to last week's winning cup XI, meaning hat-trick hero Hendrix 'Best name in NGE' Carrow and Kites Hardwick are retained in the starting line-up after their superb debuts. EE: ~LAST WEEK~ Burton kept the team locked in the changing room for an hour after the game as he was livid with the performance! Another listless performance and out of the cup at early stages yet again! ~TRANSFERS~ A couple this week; one transfer for youth prospect Angelillo snapped up from Nighthawks and another saw Cudmore leave the club for pastures new with the contingent of Scottish players reaching 3 with the arrival of McQuilken; Hrasovac also joins the fold as part of the deal. ~THIS WEEK~ Another away game (3rd in a row) and Burton isn't holding out much hope of anything. "The team is performing very badly at the moment with any new signings seem to join them rather than lift them" said a deflated manager. ~INTERNATIONALS~ A fair few set to feature this week; Zen and Christmetz for Germany, Hammerfox for USA, Arillo for Columbia, Yakhimovich and Nikolay for Russia which should see an extra 12 international points spread across the players. The only doubt is Arillo with a heavy knock in the cup game but with his ankle heavily strapped he will play regardless. ~YOUTH TEAM~ The team is enjoying the break and have spent the week and no expense spared resort of Bognor Regis ~AND FINALLY~ Burton had a pint or two with BSO bossman Marky Mark in Sunny Leyland on Monday and enjoyed chewing the fat about the finer points of Einnek. | | | | | | |
