Sammy Bull's players have a better chance of stardom as they have already had some success in minor leagues. The value of these players is not displayed so you must consider your valuation before submitting a bid. You can bid as often as you like up to your current bank balance, however each unsuccessful bid will cost you a £50,000 administration fee.

ALLESSANDRO IVANOFF

Allejandro's players are considered to be the International stars of the future. With demand for new players low at the moment, Mr Ivanoff is taking a break while he personally visits each of his training camps around the world. He will return with the crème of the best new players.

Krum may have an eye on doubling his Yankee ~TEAM NEWS NEWS~ Team FB Kingpin Mark Erick Croasdale nearly dropped his Fosters when he saw Einnek Managerial Ledge Jocky Jono Mc had actually entered some team news 'strewth!!' he gasped in a decidedly dodgy aussie accent a few cans of 4X calmed him down ready to see if he could repeat the trick this week ~STADIUM ERUPTION~ In a home league game and cup tie consecutive phenomenon the Black Star Chairman PG Monkcheek saw fit to raise the capacity by 3k to an almighty 34,000 enough to satisfy the BW away fan ticket demand ~WHERE ARE THEY NOW~ In a new original feature dreamt up exclusively by BSO Bossman Mark E Mark, he thought it may be interesting to look at where Olympic players of old may be plying their trade, these days Frederico Alabasmio Molinari is thought to be leaving the Robsta's Plastic Red Fork or Pink Spoon Industries outfit, for life at "The Wind" as a Tiger was snared in what Marky Mark thought to be the "Deal of the Week" ~MANAGER QUOTE~ In a hastily arranged press conference Gaffa MM bursted out "the public gets what the public wants But I want nothing this societys got - Im going underground, (going underground) Well the brass bands play and feet start to pound Going underground, (going underground)" probably in bulish mood that he belives the squad he's arranged at Olympic is the best he's ever had and a "no further business required sign" is a tactical ploy to up route the next BSO mega legend ~TRAINER SKILL CERTIFICATE NEWS~ "Congratulations, Howard Cocker Postill passed his skill certificate" was music to the ears of hard-ball gaffa MM as he opened the Black Star post on Wednesday eve he immediately went on the t'internet ~HOLIDAY NEWS~ Olympic Cheif Croasy Croas earns a well earned mid season break in the sunny climes of Bella-mad-dina for 2 weeks, leaving rotund trainer HCP in charge of day to day affairs of the Team Funk Bunch - infrequent pops into internet cafes for any transfer activity and team selection will be a break from endless lying on his arse and much needed injections of 'Vitamin L' !!! ~AND FINALLY~ 3rd round cup game next week sees Kram League boy done good Beda Zschokke come back to the Hole for a reet royal roasting with the Dobsta Dynamo's BW: With the Widows' last league victory coming a ridiculous six weeks ago, things look increasingly bleak for Spencer Hart's troops - although after 20 years in the game the Houdini-esque manager has only experienced one relegation across multiple teams ... but don't quote him on that! TEAM NEWS: Hart reverted to his old ways by dropping a skill point in the transfer market earlier in the week, feeling it was necessary to give him a few options. But Despite the loss of Vukovic, Widows have bagged Joaquim Da Silva, who the manager reckons just needs a touch of form to get back in the swing before paying the club back two-fold. The striker coming in at the expense of a sure-fire bet to be a beneficiary of a lucky skill point in the coming weeks - Erasmus Sax - is little-known Isak Vilhelm, a towering Swede whose lofty frame suggests tactics are going to get desperate and ugly in the weeks ahead. Two more debuts in defence see Saloman Moukoko and Zander Lund come in in an attempt to numb the absence of Jarrah Kiah. Fat chance - zero in six it is then!

OPA: CLUB NEWS: With morale slowly climbing at the club, and the manager finally getting to grips with NGE league management after a break of several years, the club hope to break their winless streak in the league which now stands at 5 games. "It would be a perfect boost to really climb in the second half of the season." said club trainer George Steel. TEAM NEWS: Baltazar Fyodorov has failed a fitness test, so is relegated to the bench this week. New signing Larrs Skovengberg will take his place in the centre of midfield. TRANSFER NEWS: Surprisingly there were very few rumours coming out of Oakland this week. One rumour that was confirmed was a failed bid for a Sammy Bull youngster, and Mr Jeffery confirmed that an improved bid would be looked at after this weeks game.
