YOUTH LEAGUE UPDATE

Work on the changes to the Youth League has continued this week. Things are taking a little longer to get right than I thought coupled with real work stopping me getting the time I need to get it all coded and tested. Hopefully things will quieten down a bit now and I will be able to announce a restart date in the next turn.

The game was lost but there way a lot of good performances from some of the players and they will definitely get other chances in the future. Especially Angelillo; a youth league player brought in for a small fee proved to be the best of them all with a 9 rating. ~TRANSFERS~ Schiaparelli leaves the club after a very ordinary few weeks at Elementals, Dealuney follows him out the club again and Erlings also leaves for the 2nd time this season. In come Stephao and Essombe. In a late deal Burton also signed Aizawa with Prettyleg leaving the club ~THIS WEEK~ An away trip to Bukigura. After two wins in a row and 3 weeks without a defeat Burton is looking to keep this run of good league form going! Angelillo will get another run out after a brilliant performance in the friendly game. ~INTERNATIONALS~ Vamilton and Fonseca have outside chances of caps this week and Aizawa should get capped in the B Japanese game
Southern Cross Prophets	v Black Widows	5-3	29,774	£25.00	50:50	Zorba Pagini

Subs: Justo Pastor Pérez 7, Shiloh Littleleaf 6, Perseus Blatherwycke 6, Dobie Rush -. BW: In a week dominated by Ruiz 'It's not about the money' Garitano dropping three divisions, Spencer Hart has been busy decimating his own squad. Out goes Arquimedes Zulo, who left it until the last few weeks to show the kind of form that led to Big Spennda signing him in the first place - prompting a flurry of bids after last week's fixtures. 'We couldn't hang onto him any longer - at the moment we are going down through the trapdoor so I'm sure the fans understand immediate action is necessary if we want to try and stay in the Prem.' Zulo's departure has a very positive short-term gain for Widows, with Charly Nikelsen and Jaylo Freemunda coming in to beef up the midfield and attack respectively. The midfield looks particularly impressive, with the trio of Nikelsen, Soto and Quadragesimo sure to defend a shaky backbone and support a stretched frontline. However it is already rumoured that Nikelsen could be used in a deal for a replacement striker in the near future with 4-3-3 not being the manager's preference. On another positive note, the wheelings and dealings give two young players a chance - Jonas Kade gets a long-awaited debut and Perseus Blatherwycke is reinstated to the bench.

Subs: Hans Der Groot 6, Kaspar Jannsen-Kate 6, Saloman Moukoko 6, Gerdo Bertz -. GH: THIS WEEK: The Hearts revert back to a 433 formation and make five changes to last week's losing cup team. Jean-Espoir Sylvain makes his debut in goal. At the back Palma and Tavish are both dropped with Shensuke Miura and Andreas Jaramillo taking their places. Gouwe returns to a three man midfield and Dario Vásquez is a surprise inclusion up front. LAST WEEK: The team were left disappointed after losing to a poorly defended extra time goal. Tyne-Porter's goal before half time meant the Hearts team had to dig deep in the second half. Asin Offondo finally scrambled home a late equaliser after the Hearts dominated the last half hour. TRANSFER NEWS: Leroy Joshua Lee bid farewell to Gorgie Road this week after a less than successful spell with the Hearts. Goalkeeper Jean-Espoir Sylvain, defenders Shensuke Miura & Atlau Santos and attacker Joost Lefu all joined in a deal that saw Lee move to Heavitree Athletic. Argentine defender Justo Pastor Páez has joined Black Widows with Welsh midfielder Obidiah Davadid and a handful of cash coming the other way. OTHER NEWS: Assistant manager Willem Gruberan has been taking training this week in place of manager Rik Wolters, who has been recovering from the swine flu. The former E5 goalkeeper believes his "hands on" approach will have a positive effect on the team and propel them back up the table.

OPA: CLUB NEWS: Tempers clashed in the Thursday morning training session when a particularly robust challenge from the aggressive Louis Van Dosman was taken exception to by the equally feisty Theophile Ntep. The pair came to blows before being dragged apart. It didn't seem to be too much of a problem as later in day the pair came to Mr Jeffery's office to apologise together, and after a dressing down all seemed well. However later that night the pair were spotted on CCTV out on the town in drunken state, culminating in the police picking them up for drunk and disorderly. They have been fine, dropped this week, and a drugs test is pending after a national tabloid suggested there was more than drink involved. As of yet neither has yet to come to the club since, and cannot be contacted. TEAM NEWS: After another poor showing the fans have started to turn against Bengt Tiggsson, but the manager has decided to stick with him for the time being. He hopes that with the Swedish B team game this week, he might take the opportunity to shine and push himself in with a chance of a cap. TRANSFER NEWS: The club is now very settled and with only the possibility of Bengt Tiggsson moving on if he doesn't pick up some form soon, there is very little to say this week.

FIU: Farmers Inn boss Steve Farnden admitted the rise of his newly formed side had taken him by surprise as they sat proudly at the top of the Division at the half way stage of the campaign. "The boys have worked so hard and have a real desire to succeed. I could not have asked for more" He continued "There has been an massive turnaround of playing staff since I took over. Very few of the original players remain, but we have gelled quickly, play good football and I am hopeful we can gain promotion at the first attempt". Calico Lawbreakers visit St.Ouens Park today for what will be a tough encounter.
