YOUTH LEAGUE UPDATE

Little progress on the changes to the Youth League this week after the Linux server problems last Friday. A funeral was held for the old server and a bright new box is now up and running. Progress on the changes will now be a priority for me as I know many of you are missing the Youth League.

AD: The heating had been turned on in the club shop this week due to dampness caused by persistent rain.
KB: Druids looking to reverse the 3-1 drubbing they were dished out at Copperhead Road and with Jocky Conk out through suspension, I wouldn't bet against it!

CH: Hearts travel to Veleno full of confidence following last week's 3-1 home win & are hopeful of recording their first ever away league win! The fact that Veleno star Super Mario is out injured only helps that cause but manager Stu Henfrey refuses to single him out as the key "There's no doubting he'll be a huge loss for them but they have some very talented players & we have to make sure we play to the best of our ability to have any chance of coming away with a win"

Subs: Justo Flores Magón 7, Xabier 6, Zalo Zilvastra 6, Pierre Colombet -. EE: ~LAST WEEK~ The ga,bel to player Angelillo didnt pay off and Burton's Elementals surrendered 3-2 to Bukigura. Burton thought his team were good enough for a draw on the day but the 3rd goal never came! ~TRANSFERS~ Highly rated Talacoosa left the club this week. The offer was too good to turn down stated Burton with Juarez and Crocifissa joining the club. Stephao was also shown the door after one week with Ventura and Katomaaaaaaaaatu joining the fold. Burton was very happy with his signings. ~THIS WEEK~ Elementals take on FC Leithen. The skill points are even so Burton hopes his strike force and home advantage see him through to take him back up to the summit of the table! ~INTERNATIONALS~ :-(
Black Widows	v	Warrington Bukigura	4-3	29,940	£25.00	51:49	Alexander Chlon

Subs: Indagan Safer 6, Kinnosuke Kimura 7, Kenjirou Kawano 6, Guus Hoogaboom -. BW: It's been eight league games since the last Widows league victory, with one measly cup and one friendly victory in that time. Spencer Hart has a good feeling about today's visit of Warrington Bukigura in a must-win game. 'If we don't win this one it's curtains,' the manager quipped. 'We are reasonably strong at the moment and are well overdue a victory - it's all about confidence and a desire to stay in this division now.' * TEAMNEWS: Pinto de Moreira has received much attention in the week, but no offer was deemed worthwhile by the manager. Pagini and Kade both had fantastic debuts last week despite somehow letting five goals past them. Sergei Tegnibeden is the only signing of the week, with the ageing Russian expected to lead the line in the coming weeks if Jaylo Freemunda hangs up his boots as expected, but it's his two Brazilians, de Moreira and Joaquim da Silva, that the manager hopes will put in performances today.

CU: Ruiz Garitano held a press conference this week in the light of stern managers talking about him last week, he stated that he felt a new challenge was needed and that the money was not important or he would have join Manchester City instead of Chesterman United, he also pointed out he's not the highest paid player in Einnek, he said "I wanted to come to Chesterman United as they are a team of very young players who will have a bright future in Einnek, i spoke to manager Lawrence long and he told me I would be the key figure of the team. Lawrence also asked me to take Kyle Robson under my wing and help him become the greatest player einnek has ever seen and i think he could be, he is a cracking little player who is already setting Einnek alight and I believe that my tutoring will only bring the best out of him quicker". Manager long also stated that comments from manager's are always welcome but maybe they should be busy getting ready for life in a lower division next season...that's the end of today's press conference thank you all for coming.

It was spotted this week that the I had not implemented the rule change relating to WACS for players aged over 32 who change their skill level. Players will now receive a maximum of 15 WACS when they are aged over 32. The error affected 3 players over the last two turns that were incorrectly given 25 WACS.
