RETIRALS / TRANSFER LIST CHANGES

The proposed changes relating to the Transfer List and retiring players for cash are now in place.

The changes in summary are:

- The monies received for retiring a player for cash have been to 10% of their previous values. A skill 5 will now command a value of £250,000 with lesser skills adjusted to the same proportion of the old values.
- Players once listed on the Transfer List cannot be removed.
- The Transfer List will still be processed during the playing of the turn, but any unsold players stay on the list with their asking price reduced by 25%.
- Any players not sold after 3 weeks will be sold to non league for a minimal value based on their skill and WACS.

I will be updating the rule book over the weekend.

SAMMY BULL

BW: Champions Kenkai Bambino haven't won in three league games and this, coupled with the fact that the Widows gave them an unexpected spanking earlier in the season, makes them a very dangerous opponent today... TRANSFERS: Pinto de Moreira at last got his ticket out with a big cash move to Tiddlecombe Tangents, while another player who failed to rise to the Premier standard, Kayll Devonald, was shipped off to Bambino's neighbours Veleno in a surprise late exchange for little-known Guiseppe Alberici. Redding Fairfax also signed on in midweek and is expected to challenge for the no.1 spot as the season comes to an end. Meanwhile, fans were surprised to see another big-money Sammy Bull signing arrive in as many weeks in the shape of Coobragh Duggan, hot on the heels of Kibby Ravn-Nissen. TEAM NEWS: Albertici goes straight into the firing line against the Bambino attack, with Race Foley also debuting. Despite a marked improvement in recent weeks, Widows remain rooted to the foot of the table. Spencer Hart has challenged his troops to come away from Copperhead Road with anything more than 'nil pwa'.

Vaalward and Kobak were also signed in a deal that saw Christmetz and Ljungbergsson leave the club. ~THIS WEEK~ Away to Elland Mythicals. Burton has a 15 vs 10 skill points favour but knows that this will probably count for nothing with a none point scoring defeat! ~INTERNATIONALS~ Masahiro Ichi may get a run out for Japan B, likewise for Tiggson with Sweden. ~AND FINALLY~ Katamataau hung up his boots this week, he had hoped for one last shot with another club but with no interest seemingly forthcoming he made the decision himself to save face and has moved back to Australia

Subs: Angel Di Pitton 7, Adam Brittle 7, Hank Podenetsky 6, Jaques Rousel -.  GH: THIS WEEK: Andreas Jaramillo returns to the back four in place of the injured Shensuke Miura. With Gornal Ship suspended, Dutchman Willem Knijnenburg starts up front and Englishman Simon Westall makes his full debut after previous success in the Hearts Youths. LAST WEEK: Manager Rik Wolters was sent to the stand by referee Maurice Swann after a series of events in the second half of a full blooded encounter with Plaistow Exocets. Wolters had received a warning about his actions when Gornal Ship was sent off as a result of a confrontation with Dilwyn Cadoc midway through the second half. The Hearts coach was ordered off after being further riled when Reimer Kindermann's challenge on Shensuke Miura was only punished with a yellow card. Wolters could now face further punishment from the EFA. TRANSFER NEWS: The Hearts picked up youngsters Ephraim Prebendal and Tomoyuki Sakai in a deal worth £1.5m with Celtic Hearts. The club has turned down an offer from Black Star Olympic for defender Lumumba Vawda. Vawda was reported as saying he had no desire to leave Gorgie at this point in time and has no idea where Hoghton is anyway".  Littleton Rovers
