YOUTH LEAGUE UPDATE

Work on the Youth League re-vamp is progressing well, although it may be Tuesday before you are able to login to your sides. The revamp will see far better integration with your main side and hopefully things will be easier for everyone. I have also decided how to split the Youth League into tournaments and this will enable us to have ladder champions after a set period and thus give people something to aim for rather than a never ending situation like we have at present.

Subs: Gabriel Husband 7, Kevin Coull 7, Kevin Coull 7, Ollivander Kastelan 6. KB: The Big Man is looking forward to his trip to Muscat to meet Mr Time's Mythicals side. "Fun in the sun" was his motto as they boarded the plane, but after last week's 3-1 defeat at Celtic Hearts, Mythicals won't want to be on the end of another humiliating defeat - particularly at home. The Bambams are without Dele Orr, as he was suspended last week thanks to the acting antics of the Winchmore Diving Production Company, but Argie stalwart, Arquimedes Zulo will make a more than satisfactory replacement. Mythicals will also be without a key defender in Cordell Autaga and rumour has it that Cruso bad boy, Bastien Valentin will be brought in to try and man-mark Jocky Conq. Valentin is a player of the Big Man's most wanted list, so it will be interesting to see if he'll be played today - and if he returns to Copperhead Road with the rest of the Bambams, if Young still see's the magic in the giant defender. Young also greatly admires the Wulf-boy, although he will be given short-shrift today by Guy Vexille and young Gabriel Husband, who are unlikely to show him any mercy. Young wouldn't be drawn into a prediction, but on paper, the Bambams have a massive advantage, but playing away from home, in the soaring heat, who knows...

CH: Following last week's 3-1 home win against newly promoted Elland Mythicals, Hearts are hoping to follow up the impressive start against another newly promoted side as they visit Achillean Druids. Manager Stu Henfrey knows this will be a much tougher test of their title credentials with Druids manager James Clinch boasting an impressive side having come up as 1st Division Champions. Kirill Venychka makes his debut in goal while Kramer Detheridge & Viper Cain make their bows in defence, the 3 man midfield is unchanged while up front an extra place goes to new signing Jaimenacho Cesar as Stu Henfrey opts for a 4 man strike force, with fellow Mexican international having to make do with a place on the bench.

Subs: Hnedj Zvonaric 8, Akihiro Ichiyama 7, Moises Llorens 6. EE: ~LAST WEEK~ Burton was disappointed with an uninspired away performance with the strikers failing to trouble the score sheet. Ex Elemental Gerard Dittle had an inspired game in goal to show his old club what they were missing. ~TRANSFERS~ Burton was delighted to announce the signing of Louis Van Dosmon. Having wished he'd never sold him he was grateful of the opportunity to get him back and he will be here to stay for the foreseeable future! Burton is loving his strike force now with Goldswift, Arillo, Delaunay and Dosmon in attack! This deal also saw shot stopper Wantanabe join in goal with Torres, San Juan and Angharad going the other way. Another late deal sees long term targets Spivak and Cudmore join the club along with Sju with Maximo, Chaste and Quejo, who fell out of favour after being seen the night before pre season training coming out of a night club at 2am, going the other way. ~THIS WEEK~ Elementals host a very good Bukigura side who finished high up the league last season. However Burton will be looking to take all 3 points to kick start his season! ~INTERNATIONALS~ The first week of A internationals approaches us and Arillo should start for Columbia with Toircse and Spivak getting on the bench for Croatia.

Black Widows	v	Southern Cross Prophets	2-1	30,000	£25.00	48:52	Gioacchino Quagliacica
BW: Gioacchino Quagliacica 24 Kazyhiro Kubota 82 SCP: Justice Phoenix 85 Black Widows (523) - Vidal Barrio-Lomas 7, Jacobus Servaas [bk 72] 6, Chad Reekie 8, Daniel Burt 7, Hanns Palmannenn 6, Jack Gale 6, Ximi Zubizarreta 7, Americo Soto [bk 66] 7, Kazyhiro Kubota 8, Gioacchino Quagliacica 8, Pueblo Sasi 7. Subs: Juan Pablo Simancas 6, Fabio Pentalla 7, Slansky Blazina 7. BW: An exciting, bruising downer of an opening fixture last week left Widows with a home defeat and two first-teamers KOed from today's game against the Prophets. A much-publicised poor challenge last week forces Graydon Harding to watch the game on satellite TV with his ankle on ice, while Jacob Milaberg also sits it out after receiving his marching orders. Just about the only thing that kept Widows in the division last season were the fitness and discipline levels of the squad, so to be two bodies down already has given an already limited squad a few problems this week. With a hefty Academy bill just round the corner and several players tipped to end their playing careers in the first phase of the season, things are expected to be tight unless Spencer Hart buckles under the pressure to cash in on his stars. This week the priority was to find midfield cover, and Ximi Zubizarreta is that man: the second under-performing Spanish Cruso midfielder to ply his trade at the club in several weeks following Bernardino Dulce's brief spell late last season, fans are not expecting much. Up front, Milaberg's absence is dampened by the return of hotshot Kazyhiro Kubota. However it is in defence that the biggest selection surprise is sprung with the manager taking no chances on the fitness of Carluccio Bonaventura, who is expected to draw the curtain on a distinguished career in the coming weeks.

Manager Welton is expecting a convincing win against Rovers ageing side! ~TEAM SELECTION~ With Eldon Wrath suspended Warriors go for an attacking 424 formation which they expect will be too much for Rovers to handle. ~PREVIOUS MEETINGS~ Can't remember!!! ~INTERNATIONALLY~ Quintana was made IC this week and Nicomedes, Cuesta and Yakhimovich also should pick up caps. ~MANAGER QUOTE~ Rovers will be crushed!!! WR: Walmington Rovers Boss Steve Farnden was in a jovial mood ahead of his side "GRUDGE MATCH", with local rivals West Leigh Worriers!! "This is a big game, make no mistake. Richie Welton has assembled a top side through his somewhat "shady" dealing over the past two seasons or so. But my boys face this challenge head on as one unit and feel confident we can turn them over" Rovers' star Danny Chunkster has a great record against West Leigh and was eager to get the game underway. "I love playing against Welton's boys and look forward to netting a couple more tomorrow" said Chunkster. Nerves were clearly evident from Richie Welton the day before the game as, whilst on his mobile to Steve Farnden he attempted to get into the promotion car !! It is also believed he has been wearing cycle clips all week and has fitted a commode into his seat in the dugout for the game!! "Richie is a lifelong friend and I salute him on his promotion last season. But if he expects any friendliness tomorrow he can forget it. We aim to play the game, kick his a$$, get the win, take the points and get on the flight back to Jersey...laughing as we go!!"

Subs: Leonardo Rocha 6, Dario Vásquez 6, Alvino Mosconi 7. GH: THIS WEEK: The Hearts make two chances to the side that drew with Littleton Rovers last week. Marcello Palma and Milo Stradling make way for the fit again Lumumba Vawda and debutant Andreas Jaramillo. LAST WEEK: Manager Rik Wolters was unimpressed by him side's lacklustre opening match against Littleton Rovers. Leroy Joshua Lee's goal was the highlight from an otherwise poor encounter. TRANSFER NEWS: After picking up youngster Porter Tavish from the transfer market last week, the Hearts secured the services of Andreas Jaramillo for £3.5m from Farmers Inn United. There have been several offers for Hearts players this week but none have gone past the negotiating phase as yet.

Subs: Lestanssa Yeokong 7, Alpheus November 6, Baxter Mack 7. GT: The manager of newly promoted Gainsborough Town was gutted to lose the opening game to arch rivals IKB Pirates. The manager had previously looked at the Pirates' squad on their demotion from division two and had been left unimpressed by an aging midfield and a goalie called Bagpuss!! However, after the game a red faced manager was quoted as saying "Fielding a weakened side against IKB pirates was a mistake but it was only IKB Pirates after all" The mistake has been compared by pundits as the same as the one made by Man Utd recently in the FA Cup when taking Everton to lightly. The positive side to come out of the match was the increase of Gainsboroughs Swedish midfielder (Niklas Holmgren) to a skill six after he ran circles around the IKB's aging midfield. Gainsborough Town will not make the same mistake again. They entertain the Tombstone Trojans at home - Who it is believed are a cut above the recent opposition encountered at Soke Park - A suitable name befitting the style of football played by the Pirates.

Subs: Jose Juan Pedro 6, Taiki Ono 6, Casey Rambuka 6. CL: ~LAST WEEK~ A brave effort from the Lawbreakers saw them fall to a 4-3 defeat away at Corton Wanderers. Ever popular Elfin Von Kamme got on the score sheet but it was the dream debut for his fellow countryman Klaus Higl that got the media into a frenzy as he hit a brace and picked up an impressive 9 rating. The game was however ruined by an injury to new player Michel Dechevillier who now misses this week's game. ~TRANSFERS~ None this week. ~THIS WEEK~ With Dechevillier injured Calico face a very tough task of taking on Steve Farnden's Farmers Inn United. Blyth fears the worst as with Dechevillier being a skill 7 his presence in midfield will be greatly missed. ~TEAM SELECTION~ The main talking point in the Calico team selection this week will be the fact the dream Cruso trio of Arnold Kittenfold, Kennedy Pink and Wade Saintbernard are all set to start for the 1st time ever in the same team. ~PREVIOUS MEETINGS~ N/A ~INTERNATIONALLY~ There are unlikely to be any Calico players in international action this week ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ Jaspur Spartenburg is weeks away from his move into the big time! ~MANAGER QUOTE~ Im not at all confident - we are giving away too much in skill points. (Ady Blyth when asked about his team's chances this week)~WHERE ARE THEY NOW~ One of the Original Calico Lawbreaker founding players Danny Coffman reached the top of his game this week as he was made international captain for the USA. Now at Winchmore Radiation Coffman is one of Einnek's top players and still being under the age of 27 has a good few seasons left to play! ~AND FINALLY~ The Lawbreakers are open for dealing! FIU: "Let's get this show on the road!" Said Farmers Inn supreme Steve Farnden ahead of his sides second away trip of the season. "We will bounce back from last week's defeat. We did very little wrong and I am delighted with the commitment and desire shown by the lads". Farmers are boosted by the arrival of Cruso Hot-Shot Chick Murdoch. "He's a top player make no mistake" Said Fanden "He's proven that in the Premiership and I am sure he will do a great job here at the Farmers Inn. We go to Calico full of confidence and eager to get our first win of the season... bring it on!"
