SEASON FIVE

This turn is the penultimate league turn for Season Four and with one week left I must wish you all good luck in your final league fixtures. Preparations for Season Five are well under way and the changes relating to the Youth League are looking good. The changes are on course to be ready for Week One starting on Friday 23rd October, but if there are any issues I may defer the Youth League until things are totally right as I do not want to affect the main game in any way.

My requests for you all to email me have unfortunately fallen on some deaf ears. While many of you have emailed me, some have yet to do so. Please take 30 seconds to email me at richard@einnek.co.uk to confirm your participation or not next season. Anyone who has no replied when I start the turn next week will find themselves without a side. I do not have time to chase people so do not assume I am thinking "Oh they must be carrying on".

Fees will stay at the same rate of £30 per team. I do not expect anyone to make payment until we are at season's end, but please take this as notice that payment is due by October 23rd.

NITO CRUSO NEWS

Top agent Nito Cruso has clocked up an amazing number of frequent flyer miles in the last few weeks checking up on his latest batch of players. These players will be made distributed on Saturday 17th October and will be in your squads the following day.

CH: Hearts travel to Winchfield Repetition this week in a match that could have a big bearing on the destination of the Premier title. Manager Stu Henfrey has been bombarded with good luck messages from BSO supporters & even manager Marky Mark Crossdale has sent good luck & 'stick it up em' messages! Mr Henfrey was quick to point out to reporters in the press conference that while it could be easy to get carried away with possibly kicking Repetition out of the title hunt, he has his own players & future to think about. "I'll admit that it was very tempting to pick a team to go out & nail the opposition & get a little revenge but that would go against my principles & I've picked a team with their future in mind, not that of the where the title will go & if I'm honest i don't really care who wins it! I have players who are due to play in the international semi final's this week, so my priority is to make sure i give them every chance of making it." he stated. Detheridge, Coffman, Célestine & Chakvanadze are all due to start for their respective international sides this week, while EYL superstar Erasmus Sax makes his debut knowing a good showing could put him in the frame for a bench spot for Australia.

Subs: Kasper Fasjovik 6, Hector Baldivieso 0, Stefan Tooichins 6, Philip Worth -. BSO: ~LAST WEEK~ A stunning 4-2 win over JC was marred by the needless booking and subsequent suspension of "Mr Black Star" Sanford 'Doleboy' Dole.... the yellow for rolling the ball away at a free kick was undeserved and much regret was seen in the eyes of ref Alann Barton (ENG) as his hand brandished the card that will keep the 23 goal in 25 club games this season and 14 in 29 international games out of the last two crucial games of the season and the prestigious one in a lifetime World Cup Semi Final.... choking back the tears Sanford played on, a broken man, but the true pro showed his class to complete his hat trick and seal the 4 points for Black Star to send them top in his swansong in the league this season ... "I'll be back for the Cup Final for my colleagues at Black Star and hopefully for the Aussies in the World Cup Final" he blubbed, in a candid touchline interview.... unfortunately he was sold shortly after these comments! du du dooo ... adding to the injury suspension headache Diego (D-Lo) Lopez Garcia (1st choice keeper) also took a knock to keep him out of the run in After the game the Druids boss was allegedly seen as saying "I hope you beat Stewpot!!" by Olympic biased lip-readers! ... ~TRANSFERS~ The good captain was bellowing "man overboard" as "Phil Worth" jumped ship to the high seas of the Premiership and said "Hello Sailor" to his new ship mates on a voyage of discovery upon a crest of a wave and out the swell with Admiral Croasy and the Black Star pirates - "I hope nothing fishy goes on and he's not a nautical boy, allowing him to find his place in the first team" crowed Gaffa Marky Mark "I just hope he is worth what we paid, and Phillip proves his worth in the side to make the deal worthwhile" ~TRANSFERS SPECIAL EDITION~ Mega NGE Ledgend Piero Schiaparelli flew in from West Leigh as broken man Doleboy and 4 booking Daniel Burt headed in the opposite direction.... on confirming the deal, the EFA expressed their good wishes in beating Radiation to the title ... 'allegedly'... ~THIS WEEK~ Big Kai's Venom are the hosts ~TEAM SELECTION~ PS will make his debut and Philip Worth will hope to prove his worth as stand in sub goalie ~PREVIOUS MEETINGS~ S3 W2 KV 2-1 BSO Pero and Super Mario KV's 9-6 HSP - MoM ? - Paul "Strakerman" Straker of cause !- S3 W13 BSO 2-2 KV Doleboy snatching a draw - S3 Cup Qtrs KV 4-3 BSO - S4 W10 BSO 3-1 KV - Summary P4 W1 D1 L2 F9 A9 ~INTERNATIONALLY~ Jesse Dash plays in the World Cup Semi Finals..... apologies last week to Ezra Krum who was not mentioned as a likely international, but did nevertheless creep into the Yankee B team and helped them reach the B competition Final ! ... ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ D-Lo is sidelined with an injury ~WHERE ARE THEY NOW~ Looks like they've all bloody shacked up at Veleno! ... no fewer then 5 former BSO ledges now ply their trade at the Burrone Di Serpente stadium Kayll Devonald, Alvaro Volver, Tom Hookton, former 'Mr Black Star' Paul "Strakerman" Straker and Olegario Souza ~LANCASHIRE BASED TREBLE CHASERS~ The Three Crown Dream is still alight and shining brightly in the eyes of 'not the' Marky Mark as a two point gap over 'the' Herd opens with The Henf due at Winchy this week.... Henfers was 'allegedly' quoted as saying "I'll give Herdo the full guns this week to help you out" in a secret dialogue to the BSO boot room ... ~MANAGER QUOTE~ "Obviously Doleboys suspension and DLG's injury is a big loss to take in the final two games" grimaced a resilient BSO Bossman Mark E Mark "We'll have to ride this storm, but you won't see us whingeing in the press" ~BRYN JENKINS THOUGHT OF THE DAY~ This week the Welsh manager of Wales has been mulling over the title run in with BSO 2 pts clear with 2 games left, this week's fixtures seem crucial ... KV (+11) v BSO (+16) and WR (+15) v CH (+12), Olympic may have the high skill advantage but Winchys home advantage may prove decisive, unless Hearts employ the bruisers they've recently signed ~AND FINALLY~ 20,000 fans from the tiny village unable to purchase tickets for big Kenkai game are travelling down to the Sunset Town Road stadium, London to cheer on Big Stu's boys as they go head to head with Herds Radiation.... all wearing "Don't hassle The Henf" t-shirts kindly donated from the BSO cup run fund On hearing the news "I'd love it if we beat them" uttered the ageing Einnek Veteran 'allegedly' ...

Subs: Zorba Pagini 6, Coobragh Duggan 7, Vasily Korbychia 6, Guiseppe Alberici -. EE: ~LAST WEEK~ A 3rd home draw in a row has ended Burtons title ambitions. Burton was very disappointed but felt it had still been a good season. With 2 games to go Burton was looking more to next season now with the last 2 games meaning more to the other clubs than his own. However Burton still wanted to stop the rot with another home game this week. ~TRANSFERS~ Burtpn beefed up him squad for next season with a midweek flurry of deals. In came Sitta, Faithful, Kubota, Rainbow, Gok and Wasimara and out went Kirremuir, Vamilton, Kobak and Bartholemus ~THIS WEEK~ Sees the visit for the Widows, there form has been somewhat unbelievable given the predicament they founds themselves in 5 weeks ago! However Burton is still confident he can find a win even without Arillo in the strikeforce. ~INTERNATIONALS~ Yakhimovich, Colas and Hammerfox will feature in this weeks internationals. ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ Burton will be interested to see how this works with the new changes that have been proposed. ~AND FINALLY~ Snakes, rats and weasels are on sale again - Back by popular demand !! BW: Spencer Hart predicted earlier in the season that his side would come good in the final third of season - but he couldn't have seen just how well they'd respond. With five wins (including several impressive scalps), one draw and one defeat in the last seven league games, the Widows have not only clawed themselves out of rock bottom with no daylight but find themselves in a very respectable fourth place. Unfortunately the manager has a few more predictions for the final two games of the season. The chief has been around long enough to know that the odds are stacked heavily against the run extending this week; Elementals shade the fixture on paper, with Widows' best chance of getting anything relying on their midfield domination against the overrun Bert Vaalwald. However, regardless of opposition or formation, and based only on Elementals' current form and having home advantage coupled with Widows' recent success, Hart is prepared for defeat on friday. This leaves the Widows - as with last season - in a crucial final-day fixture which could determine whether they are relegated and whether the opposition (Radiation on this occasion, as opposed to last season's Celtic Hearts) lift the title. Either way, Hart is happy with the prospect of dropping a division to regroup and build up some momentum away from what promises to be a very daunting Prem next season - but he won't be handing it on a plate to anyone! TRANSFERS: Reminiscent of a yardsale for knackered toys on a miserable sunday afternoon as a child watches with a tear in his eye from the top window, the midweek Widows sale involving 3/4 of the squad was met with a disheartening response, with Corton Wanderers forking out big for Orpheus Bittercreek. TEAM NEWS: The incoming Motouji Ui goes straight into today's lineup, with Hart juggling his formation possibilities. 4-2-4 has been the key to the recent change in fortune, but Sergei Tegnibeden's injury gives him the conundrum of sticking to the formation using Perseus Blatherwycke as a direct replacement, or switching to a damage-limiting 5-2-3.

Subs: Jesse Huff 6, Freddy Makanaky 6, Frans Cranke 0, Marten Holmgren -. GH: THIS WEEK: The Hearts make one change to the side that picked up a draw against AC Legacy last week. Leonardo Rocha returns to the side in place of Marcello Palma as the Gorgie boys revert back to a 433 formation. LAST WEEK: The Hearts picked up a point away to fellow promotion hopefuls AC Legacy. Wolters was disappointed for the team to lose a late goal to set piece and admits the his team will have to remain focussed if they're to stay in the promotion hunt going into next week's season finale away at Tombstone Trojans. TRANSFER NEWS: The club have once again turned down offers for Brazilian midfielder Leonardo Rocha. Meanwhile, Gabe Dougherty has admitted that he'll be looking for a new club when the season finishes. Dougherty is yet to feature in the starting line-up for the Hearts and given the form of Lafferty and Knijnenburg a start isn't looking likely anytime soon.

YOUTH LEAGUE NEWS

Following on from last previous week's news, I have some more information on the Youth League and how it will fit into the current game. As already stated all youth players will be shown in your team's playing squad, not as a separate section. From these players, you will have to select both a senior and youth side for each turn with no player selected to play in both fixtures. This will make squad management more important as failure to enter teams for Youth League games may result in point deductions and fines for your senior side.

The B and Youth internationals will be merged to form a new larger competition which will still run over a single season fully independent from the World Cup, but again players cannot play in both competitions. The rules for international team selection will alter slightly in order to give youth players a chance to play at this level. In essence player who are substitutes for their club games will now be selected after all players who played for their club (both full and youth level) regardless of skill. Thus a skill 3 youth player could be selected ahead of a skill 5 who was a substitute for their club's league game that week.

More news soon.

EINNEK MEET-UP

The latest of our semi-regular meet-ups has been confirmed for Saturday 17th October.

We will meet as normal in the Jack Horner pub on Tottenham Ct. Road from around 6pm.

Along with the Nito Cruso draw we will no doubt be discussing the Youth League changes and the day's real life football events.
