EINNEK MEET-UP

The latest of our semi-regular meet-ups has been confirmed for Saturday 17th October.

We will meet as normal in the Jack Horner pub on Tottenham Ct. Road from around 6pm.

Along with two Nito Cruso draws (senior and youth players) we will no doubt be discussing the Youth League changes and the day's real life football events.

Please drop me an email if you are planning to come along with a mobile number. If it is too busy we may move to a quieter backstreet location and if I know you are coming I can call and let you know if we move.

EM: Looking back now on what could have been a season of positive reflection has now turned into a nightmare final game of the season. Whether it is a six or eight pointer, the Mythicals travel to FC Leithen for the last game of the season between the bottom two. Will they cancel one another out and both face the drop or could a high scoring draw be enough to keep the Mythicals up. So it will be a tense moment this week, after the consecutive promotions, relegation looks normal

Subs: Joaquin Luis Niguez 7, Sebastian Balthazar 6, Rodolphe Maillard 7, Thompson Gee -. BW: The Prem is no place for the faint of heart this week with over half the division effectively involved in a relegation scrap on final day! But whatever becomes of Black Widows this afternoon they could be better remembered for being one of the four teams that decided where the title went. With the championship most likely being decided in the match between 1st and 3rd, it is today's visitors to the Iron Web - 2nd placed Winchmore Radiation - who could pip both to the post should BSO chuck it away against Elementals, while a good result from the Widows will hand the title to the winner of that clash. TEAM NEWS: Big Spennnda is proud to name five home-grown players in his starting XI in his strongest lineup. English pair Redding Fairfax and Jonas Kade have played consistently well since signing up while striking duo Shiloh Littleleaf and his Youth League replacement Perseus Blatherwycke start alongside each other for the first time. With the Widows defence unconvincing Spennnda is going out all guns blazing, which could prove costly, but with both Littleleaf ('poss' B final place) and 'on a 9' Blatherwycke forcing his hand they could not be dropped. Again the manager was indifferent when asked which division he would prefer to play in next season, instead turning the conversation towards the importance of today's fixture. 'We owe it to BSO and Elementals to take the game to Radiation and make them battle for whatever they may leave the Iron Web with today. If it's a victory, they will have earned it alright!'

Subs: Antonio Angelillo 6, Gwydion Faithfull 7, Christopher Nations 6, Zhoran Oborskaia -. BSO: ~LAST WEEK~ a tough 5 goal thriller at Veleno ended in big Kai taking the spoils despite an 11-15 high skill point deficit ~TRANSFERS~ a big player deal with LB went thru as 4 booking Marcelo Meier was off loaded along with Mexican B ace Hector Baldi, as 90 game 46 goals Kazuyhiro Kubota heads to the Stars, Lancashire way.... The BSO Bossman 'robbed' the 'bank man' Gorgie Rik's youth academy as 2 young Stars are exchanged for 3 younger Hearts ~THIS WEEK~ Burty's ELA is the visitor on final day as he was last year as both teams managed to stay up, but it was the previous season (two) which sticks on the mind Burty seems to have put together a set of real cloggers ready for final day, a fact not lost on the Team FB trainer as Cup Final Day is only 3 days later!!!!... but the season 2 champ still took time out to wish his opponents (and mentor Gaffa Croasy!) good luck in a pre match press conference later questioned whether signing two players named Hector was wise, the ELA boss looked puzzled and perplexed ... ~TEAM SELECTION~ KK is in for MM, Leftu replaces Heroico.... Arillo is still suspended for the crazy Mentals ... ~PREVIOUS MEETINGS~ S2: BSO 34 ELA (only home league defeat for BSO ever), ELA 2-1 BSO ... S3: ELA 1-1 BSO, BSO 4-3 ELA ... S4: ELA 3-1 BSO Summary P5 W1 D1 L3 F10 A13 ~INTERNATIONALLY~ Ezra Krum hopes to creep into the Yankee B team again as they play in B International final, new signing Jostu Lefu is also hopeful for the South Africans ... ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ D-Lo is sidelined with an injury, but was delighted to see no less than 3 new youth league prospects join from Wolter's Hearts ~WHERE ARE THEY NOW~ Ex keeper Théodore Sitta flogged to Nikki, only for him to become a sk6, returns with ELA, but as a sk5! also returning are recent sales Meier and Baldiviso, in fact i doubt they got as far as the Fieldview Thunder Dome before they turned round ! ... Baldiviso promised to score an own goal in this match for his adoring Olympic faithful, for whom he played one game..... ~LANCASHIRE BASED TREBLE CHASERS~ As eluded to before, Burty and Gaffa Croasy have been here before.... it was season two when Olympic took a commanding 3 point Premiership lead into final day, only for Kinkai Bams to spoil the BSO party and allow the Mentals to take the title on goal difference after a three team points tie Gaffa Croasy is confident this season is different though, he may only hold a one point lead, but the key home game factor is his own.... and a mammoth 17 to 11 high skill point advantage is enjoyed although the Mentals mental 41 agg count could put the cat amongst the pigeons ... ~MANAGER QUOTE~ Final day is upon us, once more ... "Immortality beckons" mused manager of the season candidate Mark E Mark "This season has been good" " Today's result could make it great" ~CAPTAIN QUOTE~ Brazil Legend and captain with one name, Shashino added "The Gaffa made this possible by bringing this squad together, ultimately we all have him to thank" ~BRYN JENKINS THOUGHT OF THE DAY~ The title is between 3 clubs missed Welsh ponderer Bryn.... the games that matter are BSO (+17)v ELA (+11) and BW(+11)v WR (+14) Who scored that faithful day back in season two for ELA, amazingly against Radiation? ... none other than Michel Dechevillier the very man who finds himself suspended for Winchmore today ... could fate deal a crueller blow ? we can only wait to find out cut to "Bryn looking mysteriously into the distance" ... ~AND FINALLY~ After last weeks fairly successful venture of sending 20,000 fans from the tiny village to cheer on the Henf, Premier Title fever has swelled to an amazing 40,000 fanatical Olympians travelling to the Spider-drome, Peterborough, decked out in 'Don't hassle the Hartsta' t-shirts to give Big Spennnda's boys encouragement against Herdo's title challengers ... the mild mannered guitar playing fanzine editor has promised a swashbuckling display of attacking verve and panache ... EE: ~LAST WEEK~ Burton was relieved to finally stop the rot at home in time for the new season with a 2-1 win over the Widows. After 3 consecutive draws it was good to get back to winning waysat home. ~TRANSFERS~ With next season in mind Kubota moves up north and in come Meier and Baldiviso. Also a deal has been struck to long time favourite Christopher Nations. Burton has always liked the name of this player and is pleased to finally get him into his squad. He will get a chance to shine next season after the attack is reduced in numbers; Weymouth left the club in part of the deal. Another late deal saw Shellac Quidel join the club, Burton hopes for big things from this player next season! ~THIS WEEK~ The last game of the season is here and it is a 3 way battle at the top of the table. BSO Bossman Mark E Mark holds all the cards though and are Elementals opponents this week. The absolute best Burton can hope for is a draw and a win needed it looks likely to be a formality for Bad Gag Bob to seal his first title but we shall wait and see if Winchmore spoil there party! It is in BSO's hands again can they make it 2nd time lucky :-p ~INTERNATIONALS~ Hammerfox will play in the A team final with Rainbow hopefully sneaking into the B final ~RUMOUR MILL~ It was leaked that Burton had offered Vaalwald's services out to an un-named club this week without his consent, Vaalwald is understandably upset by this and is looking to move clubs as soon as possible ~AND FINALLY~ ELA Mentals were seen sharpening there studs at the end of the training session on Thursday in preparation for Fridays game

He also stated this could be the last game for a few players as the boss looks to change the squad.

EFA Cup Final	Final - Australia v United States

SEASON FIVE

The final league fixtures of Season Four are now completed and there are just the EFA and World Cup Finals to be played. This happens on Monday and after that the site will be locked for a couple of days in order for people to review the season and start their thinking for Season Five.

The preparations for Season Five are well under way and the changes relating to the Youth League are looking good. The changes are on course to be ready for Week One starting on Friday 23rd October, but if there are any issues I may defer the Youth League until things are totally right as I do not want to affect the main game in any way.

Some more in-depth details of the changes for the new season are below. Please have a good read and feel free to email me with any comments, concerns or questions you may have. There are a couple of changes outside the Youth League integration; these are mainly addressing issues people always comment on as things that annoy them or just do not really work. Nothing major though. A complete list of changes will be posted on the forum and the rule book will be fully updated before the new season starts.

Thanks to everyone who responded to my emails. Just one manager failed to reply and I even broke my rule and chased them up. Today we do see the departure of three experienced managers Dave Atkins, Paul Davie and Mike Dobson. In their own individual ways they have helped make Einnek the successful game it now is and I hope they all enjoy whatever they get up to and hopefully we will see them back in the fold one day.

You will also be receiving your emails regarding payment for Season Five over the weekend. Please note that your fees are due by October 23rd.

NITO CRUSO NEWS

Top agent Nito Cruso has clocked up an amazing number of frequent flyer miles in the last few weeks checking up on his latest batch of players. Every side will receive a senior first team player and a youth player in the draw.

These players will be made distributed on Saturday 17th October at the meet-up and will be in your squads the following day.

YOUTH LEAGUE NEWS

As previously announced your Youth League squad will become part of your main squad from next turn. All your existing youth players will be automatically transferred over automatically. From your new expanded squad, you will have to select both a senior and youth side for each turn with no player selected to play in both fixtures. This will make squad management more important as failure to enter teams for Youth League games may result in point deductions and fines for your senior side.

A few additional bullet points regarding the Youth League:

- All Youth players must be under 23. Any player over 23 will automatically become a member of your senior squad.
- Skill 5 will be the maximum for a youth league player. Existing player skills will be adjusted become squads are combined.
- All players will be paid wages at a lower rate than for senior players and these cannot be changed.
- All youth players can play in B Internationals if their IR warrants a place in the side.
- Youth players can be bought, sold, retired just like senior players.
- Discarding a youth player is no longer an option.
- Promoted or sold youth players must be replaced using youth points when required. You no longer get free replacements.
- Youth players must be promoted to the senior squad if you wish to play them in an Einnek League or Cup fixture.
- Once promoted to the senior side, a player can no longer play in youth fixtures.
- Youth league games are now 11-a-side fixtures although no substitutes are used.
- Skill increases will be in line with the main game. No automatic skill increases every game.

The Youth league will be played as a full league. With eight divisions of 6 sides. Each side will play each other in their division once before promotion and relegation. Thus there will be 4 youth tournaments in a single Einnek season.

The initial league make-up will be decided using the old ladder positions.

OTHER GAME CHANGES

There are a couple of other changes to the game. All brought in to try and tweak areas which are not working too well. All the issues are ones which managers have raised with me over the last week months and I hope these changes will be welcomed.

- If a side makes 5 or more changes to their starting team in a club fixture, they will lose 5 morale points.
- Retirals and Introductions will be limited to 2 per side per turn. Week 1 will be an exception to this where there are no limits.
- Club substitutes will still be eligible for World Cup and B international selection but they will be considered after all players who started games for their clubs. In B internationals this will see lesser skilled youth players being selected ahead of senior players who were substitutes.
- Season tickets will be introduced to give clubs a chance to generate revenue prior to week 1. There will be a number of tweaks in the area of grounds, attendances, advertising & revenue to make this more realistic and less random.
- Every side will receive 2 Youth Points for successfully submitting a valid team prior to each turn deadline. Failure to do so will result in no Youth Points being awarded. The existing penalties placed on regular non-submitting managers will still exist.
