Subs: Gabriel Husband 6, Akechi Mitsuhide 7, Kevin Coull 6, Hippolyte Pixii -. KB: After failing to sign four different targets at 4 different clubs this week, The Big Man takes his troops across the town to the snake pit to take on young Young. He had been hoping to strengthen his squad for this game, but he's happy with his current squad, nonetheless. Many expect Gabriel Husband, who has impressed off the bench in recent weeks, to make his first full start, although Young will find it hard to drop Stephane Sy after his fine performance last week. There will be a last minute fitness test for Hippo Pixii, with Tre Kilgareth standing by to step into the number one jersey. Kilgareth is on international duty this week and I know that Welsh manager, Bryn Jenkins, is keen to see him in action before Tuesday's international. The ex Black Star and James Street star told reporters that he expected great things from Kilgareth this season, but was disappointed at his lack of first team chances.

The bank manager wasn't particularly impressed but Burton was very happy with the signing; Lisle also going in the other direction after only 1 week at the new club. He was reported not to have settled and fancied a move back North. Another signing was of defender Nikolay; Burton has been after another defender to balance the team. Goldswift moved in the other direction; he was reported to have been under the pretence that he was only brought to the club for the Mozes retirement and not for his quality and has been unsettled for several weeks, when later questioned Burton didn't move to deny this theory. This deal also sees the arrival of Usej and Ichi. ~THIS WEEK~ The acid test! Stu's Hearts visit the Thunderdome. Burton knows this will be the toughest home game since the start of NGE with 8 skill points being given away. Burton knows his team needs to perform to their full ability. A poor performance could see Burton's 1st home defeat ever in the history of Einnek!! ~INTERNATIONALS~ Ljunbergsson will start for Sweden, Hammerfox for USA, Christmetz for Germany and Wantanabe for Japan. CH: Hearts make one change to the side that beat Kenkai Veleno 1-0 last week with Ryo Aizawa replacing the injured Rodd Courville for his full debut. Manager Stu Henfrey is looking for his team to start picking up points on their travels & knows this will hold the key to their chances of winning the title this season.

BW: Kazyhiro Kubota 7 FL: Robinson Figueroa 8 Black Widows (523) - Vidal Barrio-Lomas 7, Arquimedes Zulo 6, Carlucio Bonaventura 8, Daniel Burt 7, Chad Reekie 9, Hanns Palmannenn 7, Graydon Harding 7, Americo Soto [bk 54] 6, Kazyhiro Kubota 8, Gioacchino Quagliacica 7, Pueblo Sasi 7. Subs: Cioffi De Zerbi 6, Gaspar Llamazares 7, Eldorado Tularosa 6, Hans Grönemeyer -. BW: Two defeats this season and frequent heckling regarding Spencer Hart's ageing squad seems to have hit a nerve. The club were delighted - if a little surprised - to snare Arquimedes Zulo from Kenkai Bambino to shore things up at the back, and the centre back - already cited as a future club and international captain - goes straight into the team today. The rested Barrio-Lomas, Harding and Kubota are restored to the fray while young Orpheus Bittercreek forces his way onto the bench after impressing in training. 'He has something different to offer the USA team,' Spencer Hart told reporters at the pre-match conference. 'Their defence is pretty uncompromising but lacks finesse. Orpheus can beat his man for skill and pace, bomb up either flank and deliver a pin-point cross - and he's only a teenager!'. YOUTH TEAM: Things kick off again today and with tighter regulations surrounding player promotions, the YL is set for a captivating season ahead. Regarding future promotions, Clancy Squirrelheath and Perseus Batherwyke remain the odds-on favourites to wear the Widows first-team jersey in the near future.

GH: THIS WEEK: The Hearts remain unchanged from side that beat Gainsborough Town last week. LAST WEEK: Manager Rik Wolters was said to be pleased with last week's win but feels the defence needs to do a better job if the Hearts are going to have any chance of promotion this season. TRANSFER NEWS: Want away striker Dario Ungaretti has left the club to join Black Star Olympic with 'keepers Ricardo Mendez and Zhoran Oborska coming the other way in the deal. YOUTH TEAM: Youngster Charles Woyner has been told he will have to wait a while longer to join the Hearts first team as the management feel he needs to gain some youth international experience first. OTHER NEWS: Striker Leroy Joshua Lee, who celebrates his 27th birthday this week, has been told he must improve on recent performances if he is to have any future at Gorgie Road. The lanky Englishman responded by telling the boss that he would get on the score sheet this week against Oakland Park Angels.

CL: ~LAST WEEK~ A poor but not unexpected loss at the hands of Heavitree Athletic saw Calico's winless start to the season continue. The 2-1 loss came despite The Lawbreakers taking the lead with inform bargain signing Klaus Higl hitting his 4th goal in 3 games. The player, signed from Winchmore Radiation for £2.7 million is already proving a great buy for the Lawbreakers and a push towards the German International B team may not be far away. Last week's international matches also saw another new signing Michel Dechevillier hit top form and jump up to a skill 8. ~TRANSFERS~ Just one major deal at the Lawbreakers this week, and no surprises but another Cruso comes to try and break into the Lawbreakers 1st team. Jaxon Gilmore - a skilful goal scoring, England B international joins with Aldwyn Hucker, Jackson Killdeer and a wad of cash heading the other way to Sirocco Whitecaps. The deal saw Vandreze Velez call an end on his brief career after announcing he felt he wouldn't get a chance in the Lawbreakers team knowing that Blyth felt Gilmore would fill the gap left by Burton Wragg's departure last year. ~THIS WEEK~ Its back home as the Lawbreakers take on Joseph Burrigde and his FC Cosmos. The Lawbreakers are playing off a + 5 on skill points whilst FC Cosmos are running off a + 6 - so a tight game is expected! ~TEAM NEWS~ As expected the 1st names on the Lawbreakers team sheet are Terrence May, Michel Dechevillier, Elfin Von Kamme and Klaus Higl. The rest of the places are up for grabs but early indications are Chic Fisher and Jaxon Gilmore may be in with a shot of debuts! ~YOUTH TEAM~ The Youth League is kicking back into action this week, Calico fans will be keeping a very close eye on how well Jasper Spartanburg plays, the player is tipped to be one of the most talented prospects in Einnek football and it won't be long until the young defender makes the jump into Senior Football. ~INTERNATIONAL~ It is unlikely that many Calico players will be in international action this week however the Sweden/Germany match could see bench chances for defender Thor Schnell and attacker Klaus Higl and guarantees a start for Elffin Von Kamme who continues to be consistent and is currently on 15 form dots. The Brazil/Wales game sees Matt Trutwein have an outside shot of a place on the bench. ~WHERE ARE THEY NOW?~ Dinar Nikolay was a great prospect when he first signed for Calico from Sammy Bull's stable. The player, now fast approaching his 28th birthday started his career with a string of impressive performances. Since leaving the Lawbreakers he has carved out a successful career and will soon reach the magic 20 IP level for his native Russia. Now at Andy Burton's ELA Elementals, Dinar is set for even more achievements and has a great shot at being classed as one of Russia top defenders of all time! ~THE RUMOUR MILL~ There were strong indications this week that a Calico legend could be soon making his return to the club, the player would join as part of a massive deal that could potentially change the face of the club. ~AND FINALLY~ Calico Lawbreakers announced this week that the goalkeepers at the club, Matt Trutwein, Edwin Marton and Philip Worth could all soon be looking for new homes. Ady Blyth is desperate to sign a top shot stopper after feeling the poor displays by his keepers this season so far have cost the club games. Pierre Colombet and Leo Alonso seem to be tough acts to follow and maybe the pressure of following such club legends is getting too much for the young players.
