Subs: Tom Hookton 6, Akechi Mitsuhide 7, Jacob Milaberg 6, Tremayn Kilgareth - ELA Elementals (424) - Shannon-Leigh Nightrook 6, Imanol Erlings 7, Victor Hammerfox [bk 27] 6, Ziegler Christmetz 8, Leopold Spivak [bk 6] 6, Larrs Skovengberg 8, Thorrr Ljungbergsson 7, Collier Cudmore 8, Quincy Talacoosa 7, Hector Arillo 7, Louis Van Dosmon [bk 75] 7. Subs: Che Gerro 7, Elias Oro Pacho 6, Eric Delaunay 8, Colvin Usej - KB: After last week's embarrassing defeat at the hands of Kenkai Minnows, The Big Man makes three changes for this week's home game against El Mentals. With both teams known for not taking any prisoners, expect some fireworks! EE: ~LAST WEEK~ Burton was absolutely delighted with the 1-0 win against Celtic Hearts with new boy Talacoosa netting in the 24th minute. The fact that the defence managed to keep them out after going down to 10 men made the victory even more impressive. Christmetz and Hammerfox were immense again. It came at a cost though with Nikolay receiving a 1 match ban for his second yellow card in the 58th minute and Wantanabe also limped off late in the game which leaves Burton 2 skill points down for this week's game. ~TRANSFERS~ Burton is very happy with his squad at the minute so only a deal involving fringe players was agreed; Toirsce and Ichi leave the club and Nicomedes arrives. He didn't have the best of times at WLW but before he moved there he was immense and Burton hopes he recaptures this form. ~THIS WEEK~ Elementals travel to Champs Bambino. A Win here is a near impossible task and with Burton being two skill points down due to injuries and suspension anything out of this game will be a bonus. ~INTERNATIONALS~ Talacoosa should pick up his 4th cap for South Africa. ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ Burton was happy to see the Youth League back under way and Elias Oro Pacho (interestingly with three names :-p) has joined the senior ranks to create space for Lóuis Eriq who joins the Youth team. Quintavuis Tex may also be promoted soon but then after that Burton will let the new batch of players have time to prove themselves before being thrust into the big-time. ~AND FINALLY~ Its nice to see a team top of the league with an average age of 35. You win nothing with kids :-D
Celtic Hearts	v	Black Widows	2-1	30,000	£25.00	52:48	Marc Sayce
CH: Ruiz Garitano 18 Jaimenacho Cesar 79 BW: Marc Sayce 61 Celtic Hearts (334) - Israel Torres 7, Cesaré Graziano 7, Rodd Courville 7, Ziziinho [bk 34] 6, Shin-Ichi Morikama 9, Severin Célestine 7, Stephao 7, Bakacka Mo [bk 24] 5, Samuel Essombé 7, Ruiz Garitano 8, Jaimenacho Cesar 8. Subs: Piasii Giacobicchio 7, Sherwin Darrow 6, Ryo Aizawa 6, Kiril Venychka - Black Widows (532) - Patrick Otter 7, Jack Gale 6, Carlucio Bonaventura 8, Daniel Burt 7, Jarrah Kiah 7, Hanns Palmannenn [bk 42] 6, Marc Sayce [bk 41] 9, Americo Soto 7, Erasmus Sax 6, Gioacchino Quagliacica 7, Kazyhiro Kubota 7. Subs: Arquimedes Zulo 7, Orpheus Bittercreek 6, Shiloh Littleleaf 7, Vidal Barrio-Lomas - CH: Hearts welcome Black Widows this week following another very disappointing away defeat, this time 1-0 at ELA, made even more laughable with the fact ELA played the final half an hour with 10 men & also an injured keeper! With Widows expected to field a 5-3-2, manager Stu Henfrey has opted to go with a 3-3-4 formation with Rodd Courville returning in defence & new signings Severin Célestine & Bakacka Mo making their debuts. Courvilles return is a risk with him carrying a knee injury & also Samuel Essombé's inclusion has also raised eyebrows after picking up what appeared to be a serious ankle injury in last weeks defeat. BW: With Black Widows already instilled as relegation fodder, the last thing the fans wanted to see was one of their best players being shipped out in midweek ... Marc Sayce wanted one final adventure before heading back down under in June and he's found one. His baptism of fire comes against a Celtic Hearts always side that was unable to defeat the Widows last season but press, players, pundits and managers alike all have today's fixture down as a win for Henfo's boys who at finally appear to be less the side 'building for next season' and more the side striding toward great things. 'At least if we're prepared for it we can only be pleased with anything else!' was Hart's rallying cry. Any leeway Hart had with squad selection was pissed into the wind last weekend with Jarrah Kiah's signing leaving the manager with no option whatsoever but to play 5-3-2 for the first time in donkey's, regardless of Hearts' expected 3-3-4. However Hart is '99%' sure that things will be back on track over the weekend with several arrivals likely with all that greenery burning a hole in his pocket. TEAM NEWS: Without either goalkeeper impressing so far it's Patrick Otter's shift this week. Kiah deputises with Arquimedes Zulo making way and Jack Gale getting what could be a last appearance with Hart keen to throw Orpheus Bittercreek into the fray. In midfield everyone available starts meaning a Sayce-Soto-Sax trio, and up front Quagliacica and the blossoming Kubota are the men charged with trying to nick a sneaky goal or four on the break. PREDICTION: 2-1 Hearts, with the Celtic too strong in all areas on this occasion. I think Stu would explode if Widows nicked anything from this one lol!!!

The bemused players witnessed the ageing coach perform piroets around the changing room quoting Nena Cherry's buffalo stance lyrics "Gigolo, huh, sukka? Gigolo. gigolo, huh, sukka? .. Who's looking good today? ... Who's looking good in every way? No style rookie.. You better watch don't mess with me" ... the motivational benefits of this eccentric behaviour will be judged by todays performance and ultimately the result....

Top Vs Bottom this week, with the visit of Corton to Eastville, and pitting his wits against the renowned Nikki Wigg. The future is looking very gloomy, and if Eastville fail to gain any points from the fixture it will be there worst start to any Einnek season.

Subs: Arnold Kittenfold 6, Ashley Bloomfield 7, Matthew Sansum 6, Edwin Marton -. CL: ~LAST WEEK~ The Lawbreakers finally showed their full potential with a fantastic 3-1 victory over FC Cosmos. There was no doubt about the games star performer. Klaus Higl - the £2.7 million signing fired a spectacular hat trick taking his tally for the season to 7 goals and sparking enquiries from Einnek managers across the board. After the game both manager Ady Blyth and Klaus Higl dismissed any talk of him leaving the club. Given this display Higl has every chance of becoming one of the greats at the club. Recent form of 9-8-8-9 would suggest there is still much more to come from the German striker ~TRANSFERS~ No signings this week, although according to the rumour mill that all may be about to change..... ~THIS WEEK~ Its on the road to Yellowknife Industries, the team currently in fourth place and undefeated this season! ~TEAM NEWS~ Arnold Kittenfold looks set to miss another game as he struggles to shake off a knee injury. Despite an awful start to this season Kennedy Pink keeps his place in the team. ~YOUTH TEAM~ The plan after the restart of the youth league last week was to see Jasper Spartanburg move into the senior squad... however it was Shaun Nairda who stole the limelight from him jumping to a skill 10. Despite this fact Ady Blyth has decided not to promote any players this week feeling that Nairda has plenty to offer the youth team and clearly with Spartanburg remaining at a skill 8 he is not yet ready to become a senior Calico player. ~INTERNATIONAL~ Despite the Lawbreakers squad featuring a selection of Scottish and South African players only Terence May is expected in international action this week ~THE RUMOUR MILL~ Potentially one of the biggest deals in the clubs history is nearly sealed as Ady Blyth and an unnamed club have sealed an agreement that will bring a Calico legend back home! ~AND FINALLY~ As reported last week Ady Blyth was searching for a new Calico keeper - and the reported deal in the rumour mill may see a experienced shot stopper join the team as part of the deal.

FIU: Farmers Inn Boss Steve Farnden believes he has a side very capable of a top 3 finish this season despite an indifferent start to the campaign. "We have not had the rewards we deserve to date. 3 matches from 4 have been away and we feel this game at home to Olde Seven Stars will be a platform to kick start our season. The lads are upbeat and have trained well together all week. So we go into the game with confidence."
