EE: ~LAST WEEK~ An expected defeat at the hands of Bambino. No surprises there. ~TRANSFERS~ A couple of offers made but nothing happening this week with Burton having a very settled team at the minute. ~THIS WEEK~ Another injury, this time to towering defender Christmetz hamers Burtons ambitions, however Burton still expects a win against one of the 'weaker' teams in the league. ~INTERNATIONALS~ The B internationals are back in town and Burton expects Spivak to play for Croatia, Sovenberg for Sweden and Dosmon also featuring for Netherlands. ~YOUTH TEAM~ A fantastic first week for Lóuis Eriq and Burton will be watching him closely to see if he can repeat that this week. ~AND FINALLY~ Stew "I'm not sure i still want Dechevillier" Herd finally got his man after negotiations ended earlier in season before Dechevillier went up to an 8. Just goes to show even the best managers in the game make mistakes

Marcio Yunque returns in goal in place of young Spaniard Estavan Barichello. LAST WEEK: Wolters was said to be pleased with the team's overall performance in last week's narrow victory over Plaistow Exocets. TRANSFER NEWS: Despite a few offers here and there, the management have been unable to bring in any new faces for this week's match. OTHER NEWS: The performances of front man Leroy Joshua Lee have been a cause for concern for a large section of the Hearts' fans. In a fans forum with the manager during the week, some supporters raised questions over Lee's commitment to the club. Many believe that Lee has lost interest in the team after the manager turned down an offer to take him back to the Premier Division in Week 1. Wolters, however, was quick to defend the striker, saying that Lee was suffering from a lack of confidence in front of goal at the moment and that supporters should get behind him rather than on his back. Lee was unavailable for comment on this issue.

Subs: Soloza Prettyleg 6, Christopher Nations 7, Kopano Thandiwe 6, Gleb Samorodin -. CL: ~LAST WEEK~ Another away defeat this time at the hands of Yellowknife Industries. The Lawbreakers played well, Klaus Higl continued his electric form by scoring yet again however the praise after the game went to Michel Dechevillier who only signed for the club this season but moved to Winchmore Radiation this week. Knowing he was playing his last game for the Lawbreakers Dechevillier was a true professional displaying the kind of talent that is sure to cement him a place in Einnek history if he can continue his current form at Winchmore. ~TRANSFERS~ With the news Dechevillier had left the Lawbreakers Calico fans waited to see who Ady Blyth had signed as his replacement..... and they weren't disappointed as it was announced former captain and Calico legend Danny Coffman had returned home! Coffman who was an original Lawbreaker in Season 1 Week 1 when the club formed left in a cloud of controversy as he was stripped of the captains role and sold back on October 19th 2007 to ELA Elementals. Since his departure he has become a regular feature in the USA squad and now he is back Ady Blyth has admitted he intends to build the team around him. Coffman wasn't the only old face back at the club....another founding Calico player rejoined with Scottish defender Dave Adams signing from Black Star Olympic... Dave Adams joins to no doubt see out his career at the Lawbreakers. Blyth was also quick to move for EYL star Billong Moonshine from Achilleian Druids. Blyth feels Moonshine could be a star of the future and was delighted to capture his signature. Moving back to the Dechevillier/Coffman deal along with Coffman rejoins another 3 players also made the move to the Cauldron. Swedish B team keeper Christofer Cederschild will now become the Calico Lawbreakers number one, Ageing Italian veteran Alberto Guiharda attempts to take his place in the defence and promising Brazilian attacker Zildo will no doubt warm the bench as he aims to improve his chances of playing in the first team. ~THIS WEEK~ A tricky home tie against Eastville Rovers could give Ady Blyth an indication on if his squad has what it takes to push for promotion this season. ~TEAM NEWS~ Danny Coffman can expect a hero's welcome as he makes his first start for the Lawbreakers since the first season, Klaus Higl will be the main threat once again upfront and rumours are Matthew Sansum is in line to make his first start since resigning in week 1. If Dave Adams plays it will mean the squad will have 3 out of 11 players who started back in season 1 week 1 in their line up.... ~YOUTH TEAM~ Douglas Woodbine has made the jump into the seniors this week. The Scotland striker was in impressive form for the youth side rattling in the goals so Blyth has decided now would be a great time for him to make the jump into senior football. ~INTERNATIONAL~ New keeper Christofer Cederschild should start in goal for the Sweden B team. ~THE RUMOUR MILL~ Ady Blyth is set to move for 2 more former players in the hope experience will help push the teams wish for promotion this season. ~AND FINALLY~ Klaus Higl's number 14 shirt is the best seller in the club shop so far this season. ~Geography Watch~ Ady Blyth's atlas is now outselling Stewart Herd's flags of the world book 2 to 1. Endorsed by Italian legend Alberto Guiharda the atlas is a big seller in the club shop..... Mr Herd was recently seen purchasing one to help plan his holiday stating he wanted to figure the best way to get to the sunny Italian hot spot of Cancun. :-)
