Subs: Heraldo Quinego 7, Jonas Kade 7, Erasmus Sax 6, Patrick Otter -. EM: With the Mythicals so far shocking the rest of the Premier Division in Einnek, Manager Riseborough is not expecting it to continue for long, but hopes that the team can continue their unbeaten run at home today. In the match day programme, he also heaped praise onto his attacking options at the club, by stating that as long as they continue to bang in the goals, teams will find it difficult to beat us, as we know that we are able to score, our opposition will always have to score the same or more to get something from the game. Today's fixture against a Black Widows team currently languishing in mid table will be no easy fixture, but the Arab fans will be hoping that the sand and heat will play a part in the game, with temperatures for this week's fixture expected to be in the region of mid to high 40's. BW: Business as usual today and out go the fringe players who impressed in last week's friendly, although Perseus Blatherwycke's goal-scoring debut gets him on the bench today. The incoming Salome Arieh goes straight between the sticks for a debut with pundits reckoning a run of games is what is required to help the South African recapture last season's form and push for further caps. Bonaventura's retiral puts pressure on a leaky backline but Daniel Burt's last ditch exit heaps even more on with Widows changing to 4-2-4 today. CRUSO DRAW: Romulo Rojo was on Spencer Hart's shortlist as a decent prospect so he was quietly pleased to snare the young striker.

Elementals notoriously do very poor in the cup so Burton was very pleased with the win, however another tough away draw to Dobson Dynamos is the reward in the draw for the next round. ~TRANSFERS~ Finally after 3 weeks of no activity Burton struck a deal midweek to secure the services of Zen and Helm. Now he just needs the 2nd part of his plan to work! ~THIS WEEK~ A tough away trip faces Elementals this week. However after a 4-3 defeat in the last home game Burton knows he needs to pick up some points here. ~INTERNATIONALS~ Zen should pick up his 18th cap for Germany of which Helm has an outside chance of getting a cap in also. ~YOUTH TEAM~ Lóuis Eriq continues to impress with a 8.56 average after 9games. Burton hopes this rich vein of form continues with a possible fast tracking into the 1st team on the table if he does. ~AND FINALLY~ Rumours that Burton was seen leaving a wig shop this week have been denied by the manager.

He was paraded at the training session on Monday where fans are reported to have used a nickname Herman "the German" crappenheim. Apparently, they saw Herman make his first touch in training which resulted in him falling over. Herman is 6 foot 9 tall, as skinny as a rake and bright ginger hair. He did a robot dance after scoring in training which one fan commented on in the local paper Stoneleigh Tribune "he looked like a cross between a gorilla on acid and a ladder". Herman is also gutted to find that tax rates are a lot higher here in the UK. Upon receiving his signing on fee, he is reported to have demanded that the club pay him more - what they don't have calculators or Google ("search HMRC - tax rates") in Germany. Mark "Marky" Croasdale is reported interested in Herman, not for transfer, he's just interested in him.

CL: ~LAST WEEK~ A defeat in the cup but Ady Blyth was proud of the Calico display..... his side on a +3 taking on Paul Trow's inspired Dixieland Deliverance on a + 11 was a huge mismatch and a beating was on the cards for the Lawbreakers however the game ended up being a low scoring affair with Calico losing 1-0. The biggest negative of the game was the injury to Calico defender Thor Schnell who had been in line to play for the German B team this week however will now be out of action for 2 games. The game saw Klaus Higl failing to hit the target for the 1st time this season however Blyth will be hoping he refinds his form in the league this week. ~TRANSFERS~ No deals done this week but a new Cruso has arrived. Timur Filatov becomes goalkeeping understudy to Christofer Cederschöld. ~THIS WEEK~ Its an away game at AFC Kennington. The teams are fairly evenly matched both playing off a +3 due to the injury to AFC Kennington's Javier Kastealius. Blyth is hoping his side can get a point. ~TEAM NEWS~ Thor Schnell will miss this week due to a devastating injury that sees him out of the Germany B team game as well. Blyth is choosing out of Sansum/Gilmore/Woodbine to see who will be in his attacking line up this week. ~YOUTH TEAM~ Jasper Spartanburg has made a move up to senior football.... Blyth has long championed Spartanburg as a player for the future and now is the time for the Swedish youth star to pay back the faith the Lawbreakers management have shown in him. ~AND FINALLY~ Moves are still in place to bring back a Calico legend to the club.
