YOUTH LEAGUE UPDATE

This week's turn is the 20th turn of the Youth League. It is also the final round in the first youth tournament. Game money prizes will be awarded over the weekend based on where each side finished in both the ladder and the overall league.
The Youth League will now be taking a 2-3 week break for some major changes before returning. Players and Training Points will be maintained throughout this break, but no additional Training Points will be added until the second tournament starts. More details regarding the changes will appear on the forum and in your turn sheets soon.

TA: David Newell was shocked to read the news in his daily read, Corriere della Sera that Paulo Behr had decided to retire, without letting his manager know. Newell said that after speaking to Paulo on the phone he understood his reasons for his immediate retirement and wished him well in the future. It will come as a massive shock to Italy fans after another shock Italian midfielder, Adriano Tilgher retired last week. This now only leaves Nino Torquato from last season's midfield line-up.

What a career this boy could have. Happy scoring 3 goals away from home. Continuing form of Villanueva is encouraging. Over next 4 or 5 weeks the team could dramatically improve. Happy with recent deals for Urrutia, Jallabrev and Oosterveer. A good start for Cruso player Torres. Looking forward to next weeks match against Nighthawks. Still uncertain as to the chances of promotion. Was a bit depressed after 5 games until i realised we had played the top 5 teams in the league. Will know if we can put in a challenge this season by the halfway mark or whether it will be next year we push to join the elite.

Alvino Mosconi returns to the squad after missing out last week. LAST WEEK: The team earned a decent away point at Wey Court against Tiddlecombe Tangents but manager Wolters feels the team are still under performing. In form striker Con Lafferty netted his sixth goal in three games to take his career average to over a goal a game. INTERNATIONALS: Leroy Joshua Lee picked up his 18th cap playing for the England B team last week. YOUTH TEAM: Dutch striker Willem Knijnenburg has been rewarded for his recent performances in the EYL. After much speculation he signed a professional contract this week and has now set his sights on the first team. Hideo Takashi has also signed senior terms. The scouts have uncovered promising talents Stewart Temple and Paixao to take their places in the youth team.
