

EINNEK NEWS

This week sees the first round of this season's EFA Cup, along with the first Friendly Challenges. Please remember if you are not in the cup then you will have a friendly fixture and a side needs to be submitted for that game.

Morale Changes

The discussion relating to morale and its effects on the game is continuing on the forum and the blog. Please take the time to check out the discussions and if you fell you have something to add then please do. The more views we get the more chance of getting a good solution to this issue which will cover everyone's thoughts.

Youth League News

Thanks to everyone for their positive comments on the Youth League. I am glad you all seem to be enjoying this new addition to the game.

Have a good weekend,
Richard.

Special praise went to Tino Doctini whose form this season has been the best of his career and notched again with a 30 yard thunderbolt of the angle of bar and post! ~TRANSFERS~ Been fairly quite lately and this week seemed no different until a large deal with secured with Olde Seven Stars; the deal saw Blade who Burton had long admired but never managed to sign, along with Wragg, Gabel and Bombak. Out went Campbell, Ulf, Kleet, Flament and fans favourite Hammerfox. Hammerfox has had two successful spells at ELA and is the longest serving player in the history of NGE at the club. The fans were disappointed but that wasnt remembered for long with Blade unveiled at the press conference ~THIS WEEK~ Sees FC Leithen visit Fieldview Thunderdome, Burton is hoping to progress in this years Cup competition as the Elementals have never got past the quarters and a good cup run would be very welcome. ~INTERNATIONALS~ Colas and Flament should both figure for France this week. ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ An unsurprising defeat in their first game against a very strong Bambino side! Burton was the star of the show for Elementals and hopes for a repeat performance this week against Gorgie Hearts. Burton doesnt hold out much hope of a win but will give Geerd his full league debut after a week full of incident. He hopes that his performance will make people talk about his performances not his off the field activities. ~AND FINALLY~ 'Dont hassle the Hoff' T-Shirts being sold this week

Subs: Zorba Pagini 7, Cabarello Osias 6, Eogan Druim 7, Guiseppe Alberici -. BW: The first cup turn of an Einnek season always creates a buzz around the league, and whilst expecting nothing, Black Widows are hoping for safe passage into the second round today after attempting to negotiate a banana-skin of a tie away to Whitechapel Rovers. TRANSFERS: Widows secured the services of occasional target Owain Rhiwbin from Corton Wanderers in the week, with Spencer Hart hoping that the extra experience will sew up a leaky defence ... the Welshman jumps out of the frying pan and into the fire today. YOUTH LEAGUE: A decent all-round performance steered the side to victory in the opening fixture, with no hidden gems or turkeys revealing themselves. Three routine rotations are made this week - in come the monster-tackling Haviland Kihlstedt, pinhead-passing Jalián Suchért and 'off the front two' striker Espen Salander. With several senior defenders and older players on the brink of retirement, Spencer Hart - still hilariously referring to himself in the third person in his team news each week - is crying out for a young defender or two to show that he can make the step-up into the full team.

KB: ~LAST WEEK~ Bambino put an end to their losing run, with a gutsy performance against an SVC side that never looked like they believed they could win. This can happen when a little team comes into the Premier and takes on one of the BIG FIVE ~TRANSFERS~ Tremayne Kilgareth came back to Bambino following his brief jog across the town. Bambino's two international Youth keepers, Foulkes and Dartenboog have tabled transfer requests, following the signing of Zumac El Cazar. Big Josie told them if they can find a club, they can leave when they like! ~THIS WEEK~ Bambino play host to Darren Lear's backward second division outfit, although with Nerrad winning five of their 6 matches so far, they are brimming with confidence. ~TEAM SELECTION~ No surprises in the Bambino line-up this week, although Tom Hookton had a last minute fitness test, but the calf injury he picked up from SVC's dirty midfielder, Fianco, in the 73rd minute of last week's game, had not healed sufficiently to be risked in a friendly. ~PREVIOUS MEETINGS~ Never happened ~INTERNATIONALLY~ Guy Vexille have been training with the French squad this week, unlike the suspended Gabriel Husband, who lost his place due to his red card last week, when he was subbed in the 75th minute, but was given a red card from the dugout for something he said to the linesman. Big Josie was not a happy bunny! ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ The Bambino Bambinos take on Tombstone this week and a close game is expected. ~YOUTH LAST WEEK~ The Bambinos chalked up a comfortable 3-1 victory, without breaking a sweat. The Mentals have failed to recognise the importance of signing quality youth players, so the game was something of a stroll in the park, but the Bambinos will have to step up to the mark this week, if they are to chalk up their second win in a row and keep up their challenge for the Division title.

Subs: Søren Neddærwind 7, Bruce Grundel 7, Nikolai Safronov 6, Gai Daigoji -. GH: THIS WEEK: The Hearts take on Rob Painter's Yellowknife Industries in what should be a tightly fought contest in the opening round of friendly matches. The Hearts haven't been in the greatest of form coming into this week's game, with Wolters' men having won only two of their opening six games. TEAM NEWS: Leonardo Rocha is handed his first start of the season and Marcello Palma returns to the line up as the Hearts make two changes from the side that drew with Farmers Inn United last week. TRANSFER NEWS: Another week passes as Gorgie Road without any new faces in the first team. The club have been in negotiations for a couple of players this week but so far they have had no success. YOUTH LEAGUE: Michel Quiniou scored both goals as the Hearts Youths picked up a win on their EYL debut. This week's opponents ELA Elementals should provide another strong test as the young boys in maroon attempt to build on last week's victory.

Subs: Faulds McKenzie 7, Jurgen Stricyt 6, Antonio Pierotti 7, Sinu Encanto -. TA: Senior Team News - All eyes are on Rubi Valentino this week as he could score his 50th club goal. The Argentine striker who was used mainly as a winger before joining Tormenta Advertencia is fully enjoying his new found centre forward position. After scoring 25 goals last season, Rubi has already hit 6 this season. Cassian Deakyn misses out today with the ankle injury that meant he missed the league game with Coruscant Star. Vippenen again deputises and hopes that he isn't sent off like he was in the league game. Especially as Santiago Villanueva had pulled and punched him throughout the game. Dave Newell has been critical of the refs who seem to be refereeing Tormenta Advertencia as if they were the bruisers of old. He stated if this carries on we may as well go back to playing that brand of football. Youth Team News - Dave Newell was pleased to see hat-trick hero Eiji after the game put all the praise onto his strike partner Bonaventure Bo. Bo who made all 4 goals Tormenta scored was a revelation.
