

EINNEK NEWS

Welcome to the EFA Cup 2nd round turn. Despite the snow, every game in both the cup and friendly challenges goes ahead. A testament to the quality of stadia in the game.

Morale Changes

The new revised proposal will be available this week and published on the bold and forum. Thanks to those of you who offered opinions. A shame more of you did not see fit to contribute, but I guess you cannot moan if you do not!

Youth League Turns

Even with 2 free Youth Points available it seems a few of you are forgetting to submit your youth league sides every week. The loss of the free youth points, coupled with a side submitted with no time spent of selection, plus a morale penalty will see you lose out.

Game of the Week

The Game of the Week feature proved popular with a few managers, but only a few. Maybe the majority are not interested in this little piece of fun?

Have a good weekend in the snow (or blazing sunshine),
Richard.

Subs: Chris Harper 8, Victor Hammerfox 6, Aaron Rainbow 6, Monfred Gabel -. EE: ~LAST WEEK~ No surprises a defeat. "We were due one" said Burton after the game and it was a fair result, it may of been different however if BSO's keeper hadnt of been in sparking form producing a number of world class saves to keep ELA strikers at bay for first time this season! ~TRANSFERS~ Burton has been busy in the transfer market this week seeing no less than 7 coming in and 8 going out of the ELA squad! Back comes old boy Hammerfox in both senses of the word. Burton never wanted to see him go earlier in season and is glad he rejoins his second home! Also in comes Nazareen, Reagen, Sax, Ramirez, Stroope and Meier. Out goes Quidel, De Ascentis, Vidal, Caraccio, Cash, Portela, Wolfstone and the man that is GTP! ~THIS WEEK~ A tricky away fixture to Calico Lawbreakers. Burton does have twice the amount of skill points but this is the beauty of the cup and they have some quality players in May, Van Kamme and Sachs so Burton is taking nothing for granted. However Burton is hoping for a decent cup run as he has never got past the Quarter final in any cup since he started Einnek 4 years ago! ~INTERNATIONALS~ Burton is hoping Van Stroope, new signing, gets on for South African B team. ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ Burton has sold GTP, he felt that the off field circus was affecting results. The season starts here said Burton in a Spanish accent! Reagen Wrath also slots into defence for the penultimate game of the season ~AND FINALLY~

"We went for it large last year with varying success and a period on consolidation with the new youth league was always on the cards" ~AND FINALLY~ We hope not to consolidate as much as Josie though ! :) BW: Black Widows' biggest match of the season sees a money-spinning cup tie away to Black Star. Rather predictably the manager is going down the old 'we're not expected to get a result so we have nothing to lose' route. Mr Hart was harshly misquoted in the BSO underground matchday programme 'The Tower' as belittling the current BSO line up, when closer scrutiny of the interview, first printed in last weekend's Widow zine 'Femme Fatal' has Hart suggesting in black and white that today's opposition 'were a world-class side at the tail end of last season that deserved the title' ... :p TEAM NEWS: On paper the teams are closely matched, with victory probably being dictated by Black Star's home advantage, a careless red card or most likely formation - with Spencer Hart keeping his cards close to his chest. TRANSFER NEWS: Despite his phone being red hot all week, the manager has only bought in one new face in the tongue-twisting Kutukutu Tamarama. Unsurprisingly Ulien Quadragesimo has been the subject of more attention and Hart has indicated that he is closer to being tempted to parting with his prize asset. 'It has been interesting weighing up the possibilities with the offers we have had for Ulien, who to his own credit has been a complete professional throughout all of the speculation. As far as agreeing a deal goes, we are looking for something including a high profile striker, but also a deal which considers both the short and long-term gain to be had in signing a player of Quagresimo's ability. He is young and will be picking up caps in an ever-improving Argentina team for some time, so we expect to receive something which benefits us further down the line too.'

Dave Newell tactfully said, " A trip to Ayrshire is cold enough at the best of times, but early January really isn't the best of times." Dave Newell was also not happy at losing Sherlock Merrison for the cup game. "People call us dirty rotten foulers, they ought to watch Kenkai Bambinos. You can tell that animal Mick Dick is in charge! They got 5 bookings last week - when it should have been 5 straight reds! If that had been us playing like that we would have had the full team sent off!" An obviously unhappy Newell admitted he may change the formation for this third meeting of the two teams of this season.

LAST WEEK: Wolters was pleased his men didn't get beat after a poor performance against Corton Wanderers. The Hearts had taken a first half lead against the run of play through a Reuben Gouwe free-kick. However, a second half late challenge from Con Lafferty handed the Hearts striker his dismissal and the hosts an equaliser from the spot. THIS WEEK: The Hearts travel to Burrone Di Serpente to take on Kenkai Veleno in the Second Round of the EFA Cup. The Hearts are expected to take a large crowd and manager Wolters is hoping his side can give the travelling faithful something to cheer about.
