

EINNEK NEWS

Welcome to this week's cup and friendly turn. It has been a strange week with a number of deals rejected by the Einnek FA. I will be posting some thoughts on dealing this week on the blog for you all to consider as it appears that many of you have some wildly differing perceptions of what a player may be worth especially taking B internationals into consideration. A player who need 8 international points to reach a caps threshold cannot possibly get them in a single season, probably not even in 2 seasons!

Morale Changes

It appears that everyone is generally in agreement with the proposed morale changes. I will review the comments on the forum and blog over the weekend and make a final announcement about the changes next week.

Stadium Options

It has been brought to my attention that the current ground, ticket and advertising options are about 10, if not 20 years out of date. So I think we need to look at a change in prices, etc to reflect things today. After all, who can get a ticket for a Premier League game for £30 let alone £25? Any thought on the forum very welcome before we have some hard fast suggestions.

Have a better weekend than last,
Richard.

Sammy Bull's players have a better chance of stardom as they have already had some success in minor leagues. The value of these players is not displayed so you must consider your valuation before submitting a bid. You can bid as often as you like up to your current bank balance, however each unsuccessful bid will cost you a £50,000 administration fee.

ALLESSANDRO IVANOFF

Kocboretti cynically hacked down Mr Walden and got a yellow and then snuffed him 10 minutes later with another horror tackle. Sources close to the game suggested that Kocboretti had been used as a hatchet man in order to stop the Corscurant star from playing. However this resulted in an early bath for Kocboretti and free bed for the night for Walden! The game finally ended 1-1 in which was a good point for the Elementals; needless to say though that the winless streak extended to 4 games needs addressing very soon indeed! ~TRANSFER NEWS~ In comes ACE Ventura to bolster the midfield and out went Hammerfox who has served the club loyally and has probably moved clubs for the last time with his retiral likely to happen early next season! ~THIS WEEK~ No other than a 3rd round cup draw against Kennie 'The Pink Army' Young. Burton was pleased with this draw a few weeks back but now isn't quite so cocky about it with Bambino scoring 8 goals in two weeks! The defence is the strongest part of the team and hopefully we can sneak a win to end the winless streak! Burton hasn't made the quarter finals since season 1 of NGE so is hoping to make the last 8 of the competition. ~INTERNATIONALS~ Not much happening this week although Gabel has outside chance of pick up a cap for Brazil B team. ~YOUTH TEAM~ Another sterling performance against Elland Mythicals to secure a 3-3 to keep the team second in the league. However with the two stars being sold this week in a deal to bring in Ventura a defeat against Celtic Hearts looks the likely outcome. ~AND FINALLY~ Good luck |   |                  |     |        |        |       |                 |

Heron youth player Marklund Hyman stepped up to the plate, bettering his previous substitute starts by being drafted in to start Sweden's full international at the last minute and earning rave reviews as he steered his side into the Quarter Finals. After a week of negotiations with several clubs the gaffa eventually settled on a deal with FC Cosmos at the last minute which saw Martin Mbiakop and Loxley Davis come in for Fairfax and Tamaramamarama. TEAM NEWS: Friendly week at the Iron Web is the seasonal reminder of how badly Black Widows continue to fare in the EFA Cup, but Nospenda sees it as a chance to give the rest of his squad a run out. Out go the big guns and in come seven debutants - Vamilton, Davis, Mbiakop, Leonandro, Mabuza, recent Prospect of the Week Kyleakin Everdeen and youth hero Starbuck Dale. |   |                    |     |        |        |       |                    |

When asked about his reasoning, Burrridge said: "It is time for some of those players on the edge of the first team to show me what they can do. We have a decent crop of youth players at the club, and if Jacomossi, in particular, does not show the fans and myself what he can do, he might find himself pushed further down the pecking order by Tobikuma Zero - who certainly isn't far from a promotion to the senior squad". Niildo makes his first start of the season in goal, Rocha returns in midfield and Lafferty starts after being relegated to the bench last week. ::THIS WEEK:: The Hearts take on Neil Hurst's IBK Pirates in the second part of their league and friendly double header. Despite only being a friendly both teams will be out to claim a morale boosting victory. ::LAST WEEK:: Gornal Ship's late equaliser earned the Hearts a point in a game the home fans felt they should really have won. The Hearts missed plenty of chances in the second half with recent signing Fudkoh Wasimara unable to add to his hat-trick scored the previous week after being marked out of the game by IBK's Drago Korenic.                                                                                                                                         |   |                     |     |         |        |       |                   |
