

EINNEK NEWS

Welcome to the first turn of Season 5 of Einnek One. It has been a busy 2 weeks since the last turn with a lot of re-coding to enable to integration of the youth league into the main game. Thankfully there have been only a couple of minor issues which were sorted quite quickly. However, if you do spot anything wrong or suspicious then please email me with as much detail as possible. Also, the updating of the rule book is progressing and all being well, I plan to have it ready for publication before the next turn is played.

Youth League

The first youth league turn will be in Week 5 and I will have more detailed information for you all next week. The main question I am being asked relates to ages for youth players with a number of imaginative age limits being quoted in emails. The age limit in the youth league is 23 years. Once a player is older they will automatically be promoted to your senior side – so keep an eye out for this as I expect some fun with people missing this in the weeks to come.

Brothers

There were a number of brothers introduced this week. After a number of emails and forum posts reminding everyone that a sibling can only be introduced by myself, I decided it best to alter the offending names.

Stadiums

I am working on some new code relating to grounds, capacities, attendances, advertising and revenue. With the youth league changes it has slipped to the back burner and I will now leave this until later in the season - probably half-way as that will give no one an unfair advantage. Once ready the newer code will generate better and more consistent attendances across the board. It will also pave the way for season tickets to be introduced next season.

I hope you find this new section useful?

Richard.

Subs: Johnny Nazareen 6, Saduj Toircse 6, Jhon Villamizar 7, Andre Fox -. EE: ~NEW SEASON~ Burton has had a busy pre season in what was a fairly quiet one for many managers. The longer term approach was again adopted with several skill points being sacrificed early on with a view to a strong finish to emulate last season's 3rd place. Several have predicted relegation for Elementals and at a glance Burton fully understands why but hopes to prove to himself and his doubters that he can continue his stint as the only manager in the Premier division for a 5th season! ~THIS WEEK~ Sees the visit for new boys Corsucant Star. Burton hopes to get off to a good start and feels he can even though he is giving a 2 skill point advantage away. Heart says 2-1 win, head however says draw. ~TRANSFERS~ Several names have arrived at the Fieldview Thunderdome with 4 individual deals being done. In came Kleet, Centeno, Bombak, Doctini, Osias, San Juan, Hrasovac, Baez, Heartland, Stahl and Vidal and out goes Yakhimovich, Faithful, Quidel, Meier, Bergstrom, Badlevisio, Angeillio, Valward and Nations. 11 in and 9 out! ~INTERNATIONALS~ A new look international setup initially caught out Burton with calculations however has now come to terms with this and is looking forward to a season ahead. ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ Burtons 15 hopefuls are now ready for the new season. Burtons introductions kicked up a bit of a storm, apparently the manager just didnt have the imagination to think up another name for the second player however due to a public outcry the player has had his name changed by depol! ~AND FINALLY~ 'Whatever happened the the Dingane brothers' CD has been released and if free with every pie and chips purchased on the first 3 home match days CS: Manager Alan Murphy is a little sceptical about the new bravo 2 fly on the wall documentary "Star-Struck" in which a camera crew will chart the clubs debut season in the Premier League. "I hope the lads don't think they turn into 'big time charlies' because of the attention they will be getting. I hope they use this as a chance to give the fans something back after their terrific support in back to back promotions over the past 2 seasons." Novice film maker Daniel Vance said "We want to create something special here. The show will air on a Thursday night for 1 hour with no adverts. That's how I roll! It'll feature interviews amongst some reportage filming. This isn't Soccer a.m.'s team mates or crossbar challenge, this is the real deal. I hope fans of all clubs will appreciate what we are trying to achieve." In the opening episode there was footage of a pre season bounce game between the youngsters and the veterans. Young Dutch striker Arie Cato played well and the club have put a press ban on him as they want to keep him out of the spotlight just now. Maybe as the series progresses Danny Vance and the team can interview him. The club have high hopes this season after winning division 1 on the final day last season. Some of the big names will have to steer clear of injury for success. World cup finalist Fraser Cools will start behind what could become a strong, experienced defence in Ragnar Soderberg, Dagfinn Emil, Quantizao and young pretender Julian Chavez Chacon. In midfield captain Snuffy Walden hopes to reach the quarters with England as well as having a successful season with Star. Also in midfield are Toircse and Poulter who have so far been rotated alongside the snuffster but will be hoping to rise in skill this season. Up front is also exciting where Jallabrev will start alongside rejuvenated Villanueva. Its up to the remaining strikers, Baptista, Nazareen and Kozub to fight for the starting berths. All in all exciting times ahead. Lets hope the players aren't themselves "Star-Struck" in the top flight.

Subs: Willem Knijnenburg 6, Andreas Jaramillo 7, Leonardo Rocha 6, Niildo -. GH: THIS WEEK Manager Wolters believes an attacking formation is the only way that the Hearts will get a result away to IKB Pirates. Last season's top scorer Con Lafferty starts up front, with fellow Scot Hawley Maclechrist given the nod in an aim to kick start his Hearts career. Recent signing Guerrillero Heroico makes his debut and Gornal Ship will be hoping for a better season than last. With Shensuke Muira suspended Marcello Palma takes his place in defence as the Hearts line up 424. TRANSFER NEWS Just like the rest of the league, it's been a relatively quiet close season at Gorgie Road The limited activity has seen Vito Cirino head for the door and Vasily Korbychia joining. The fans, though, will once again be left questioning the lack of transfer activity after the manager promised new faces before this week's opener against IBK. PRESS The Gorgie Times have been less than generous with their prediction of the Hearts' prospects this term. After the disappointment of last season they feel it will be more of the same this time around with the club probably lucky to avoid relegation. LAST TIME Asin Offondo scored a last minute winner as the Hearts recorded a superb 4-3 victory at Gorgie Road at the end of last season.

FIU: "Promotion beckons" Beamed Farmers boss Steve Farnden ahead of the new campaign. "I am still buzzing from taking the club from the lowest of the low to promotion to Div 2 in my first season. And I look at my squad and see few better in this division. So I will be bold a predict another top 3 finish !!" "I have a squad very capable of beating everyone in this Division and have a few players in mind to strengthen it further too. So watch this space." "We kick off at a tough Disciples side who will be hard to break down. But we are high in confidence and believe we can start this campaign with an away win !!"

FC: This week, Captain Pablo Lopez makes his 100th start for the club. Boss Joseph Burridge told the press this week that he hopes Lopez will stick around for the rest of his career. The same cannot be said for all of the Cosmos' shadow squad, many of whom are considered to have let down the side when called upon last season. The fans have high hopes for the club's new youth set up and are expecting to do better than narrowly missing out on promotion again!
