

EINNEK NEWS

Hello and welcome to the Week Ten turn. Still a few of you obviously do not want the free 2 Youth Points each week. Please remember to submit your turns for both sides!

Youth League

Today sees the final games in the first Youth League tournament. I hope you have enjoyed this new addition to the game. I certainly think it adds something very positive. Congratulations to all the league winners and promoted teams. I will reset the Youth League on Monday ready for the start of the new tournament next Friday.

Morale Changes

Personal and work commitments have stopped me publishing the morale changes this week, but it will be ready for you all to review by Tuesday at the latest.

Have a great weekend,
Richard.

Subs: Delé Orr 7, Gerhold Rudiger 6, Olegario Souza 7, Tremayn Kilgareth -. AD: Charity car wash day in the club car park raised £342.00 for Achilleian Age Concern. KB: In last week's cup game, Big Josie left the director's box to come to the dugout, to jeers from the fans, as the Kenkai side, despite outplaying Eselsparks, were drawing 2-2 with ten minutes to go. After some animated discussions with Mick Dick, he called Heinrich Oberhauser over to the touch line, much to the consternation of the linesman and gave him his instructions. Vexille moved his defence to play a straight back four and Oberhauser moved up front. It transformed the Bambino team, who seemed to get a new lease of life and attacked solidly for four minutes, resulting in the winner being headed home - Ray Mulvane heading home from an Oberhauser cross. The fickle Bambino fans went wild and started hailing the man that they forced off the bench in the past few weeks, as the hero of old. Young said after the game, "Mick is doing a good job and I don't see me being back in charge of the team full time, anytime soon, but today's victory certainly cheered me up!" Young has been busy on the transfer market this week, bringing in a couple of quality youth players to strengthen the Youth squad, as well as unloading Alvaro Volver and Hiro Takayama, who he saw as bench players, to bring in the experienced Aussie hard man, Daniel Burt, who went straight into the starting eleven this week. Mick Dick was said to be keen on playing Kilgareth in goal this week, following a request from the Welsh FA, but Young is rumoured to have insisted that Pixii retained his place in the side. Doesn't sound like a manager bowing out gracefully - then again, Big Josie has never been the graceful type!

Black Widows	v	AC Legacy	5-3	30,000	£25.00	53:47	Piero Schiaparelli

Subs: Kade Petitperrin 7, Guilherme 6, Garikoitz Torres 7, Junior Chichero -. BW: LAST WEEK: Widows tumbled graciously out of the EFA Cup away to Prem opposition last week, but they broke the BSO into a dirty sweat by first equalising and then pulling it back to 3-2 with a little over ten minutes remaining on the clock. However despite sharing equal possession and shots, Black Star were far more accurate on the day and Mr Hart has no complaints. TRANSFER NEWS: Two major deals this week. Longterm target Tam McEwan comes in from Farmers Inn, while Ulien Quadresimo's inevitable departure sees the arrival of Piero Schiaparelli and another long-term target in Kaja Sinis. Although 'Hey Big' spent more than the board were hoping in securing McEwan, the boss is confident they have a player from the top drawer. TEAM NEWS: Still a little thin on the ground, Spencer Hart opts for an obvious 4-2-4 this week, which makes for an intimidating backline of Kiah, Sinis and McEwan complimented by Justo Pastor Páez who put in the game of his life in the cup defeat. Unfortunately he has been warned that he must do it again this week or he faces certain retirement from the game. Cabarello Osias becomes - for now at least - a first teamer in the midfield alongside Americo Soto, an area Hart will be trying to strengthen immediately, while up front things look reasonably juicy with Schiaparelli, Freemunda and Villanueva teaming up. YOUTH TEAM: An enjoyable first season comes to an end with Widows looking like safe bets for another season in Division 2 next time round. The team has been stable across the seven games with only one promotion to the senior ranks, but this week the manager has shuffled the pack - in comes the promising Purdie Rascale to form a new-look midfield with Todd Mulben, while Espen Salander's injury means Napoléon Vaillancourt gets a start. The line is lead by Starbuck Dale, who came close to earning a senior call up this week until Schiaparelli and Sinis were snared. The Welshman's fancy footwork and predatory instincts delighted Widows fans enough to earn him the first Black Widows Youth Player of the Season award. A new signing looks imminent, with South African Belawrence Whitsunday being shown around the slush-ridden complex on thursday evening.

Lafferty is welcomed back after suspension and Simon Westall makes a rare start in place of the banned Knijnenberg. ::THIS WEEK:: The Hearts travel to Tiddlecombe Tangents looking to make it three league games without defeat. Last season's meeting at Wey Court ended in a 2-2 draw, with striker Con Lafferty scoring both goals for the boys in maroon. Only five of the Hearts starting XI started that game. ::LAST WEEK: Despite defeat, Wolters was pleased with the overall performance against Premier Division Veleno. The Hearts' boss was not so pleased, though, with referee Rab Valentine, who he thought incorrectly awarded the home side the penalty that won them the game. Hearts striker Willem Knijnenberg received a second yellow for his tackle moments after Babu Pochox had given the travelling support something to cheer about. ::TRANSFER NEWS:: The Hearts attack has finally been bolstered by the acquisition of Japanese marksman Fudkoh Wasimara from Achilleian Druids. Although it's early days, it appears the Gorgie faithful are impressed by Wolters' latest capture after weeks of being promised a big name signing. ::YOUTH LEAGUE:: French attacker Michel Quiniou scored a hat trick as he continued his fine form in the EYL. Talk of him making the step up to the senior team have been talked down by the management who want the young talent to "develop further" before promotion becomes a possibility.
