Game of the Week

The game of the week feature returns this week. I hope you take the time to have a look at it and comments are very welcome. Which game will be chosen this week? You will have to take a look on the blog tomorrow to see.

Morale Changes

The morale changes due to be implemented at the end of the season have been published this week on both the Blog and Form. Please have a read and let me know any comments you may have. Reaction so far has been very positive, but as always you still have a chance to comment.

Youth League

The second youth league season is underway with the first round of games today. I notice many of you have very small youth squads still which may be an issue as the safe guards to limit injuries and suspensions have now been lifted as I announced before the start of the first tournament. I would suggest you think carefully about your squad composition in order to make sure you have enough resources to cover anything that comes along.

Many people seemed to have had issues accessing the youth league fixtures this week. Why, I am not sure but even as late as 9:30 today, I know some of you were unable to see the new seasons fixtures or submit your team. Due to this I am not awarding the 2 Youth points for turn submittal this week as it is impossible for me to know who could not submit and who just did not do it.

Have a good weekend,
Richard.

EE: ~LAST WEEK~ A 2-2 thriller at the thunderdome. ELA pushed for a winner but couldn't find the break through. Burton was secretly hoping for a win at home but cant really complain given the gulf in ability between the two clubs. ~TRANSFERS~ A massive transfer this week. The longest serving player at the club Hector Arillo has left ELA. Burton had been left frustrated in recent weeks with his goal drought and decided to cash in. Posados also left the club with English defensive rock, Reardon, joining the club! Burton has long coveted this player and adds to an already impressive looking defence! As part of this deal Burton also signed Denny, Temple and Sax, cousin of Kerry who incidentally plan to do a sax duet of Baker Street at the training ground this week. Burton commented that he was sax mad (joke borrowed from forum post on 17th Jan). Another deal also saw Kuma join the club who will start in goal this week (Deal 33 for the season -0). ~THIS WEEK~ An away trip to SVC07. Burton is nervous ahead of the tie; with all the B cap wonder kids at their disposal ELA will be lucky to get anything from this game ~INTERNATIONALS~ Burton hopes Emil will sneak into the starting 11 for Sweden and Hammerfox, Nazareen and Rainbow should all figure for USA B. Vez has outside chance of featuring for Colombia. ~YOUTH TEAM~ First season has come to an end with ELA amounting a whopping 2 points. Burton is hoping for an improvement next season :-D

BW: Last week was one of those rare Einnek weeks where everything seemed to gel together nicely - a victory with a bonus point, the maximum 15 youth points awarded and a stellar debut for new striking talisman Piero Schiaparelli. The striker's 66th goal in E1 was enough to take him past fellow Italian and former Widows legend Gioacchino Quagliacica, whose footballing days were cut short with the striker sat on 65 goals in 98 games. This is also the number of games Santiago Villaneuva has played, and another brace to accompany his two goals from last week's debut will see him catch Quagliacica. Things is looking good with the Widows for the time being, but the manager has no illusions about how things are shaping up as we enter the second half of the season. The team stands to lose several skill points in the coming weeks and Big Spenda has indicated that promotion is not the aim this time round. TEAM NEWS: Spencer Hart has finally snared Nique Lisle who goes straight into the first team with less than half an eye on France B's starting line-up next week. Justo Pastor Pérez finds himself in a similar position with the manager keen to give him his shot at bowing out of E1 after an international with Argentina's next B match on the horizon. The manager has intimated that there will be several retirals from the senior squad in the next few weeks with a couple of youth players earmarked to replace them, with Starbuck Dale's name already being demanded by the home faithful!

GH ::TEAM NEWS:: Four changes to last week's losing side. Barichello makes his first start of the season in goal. German Fritz Gürder makes his debut in central defence partnering Andreas Jaramillo, with Vawda dropping to the bench and Hotzhausen missing out completely. Up front Adolfo Crocifissa makes his Hearts' debut for the second time in a four man attack. ::THIS WEEK:: The Hearts entertain Stoneleigh Baybears in a match the Hearts will be desperate to win after last week's result. Last season's game at Gorgie Road saw the boys in maroon run out 3-1 victors, but manager Wolters is expecting a much tighter game this time around. ::LAST WEEK:: An impressive striking performance from Simon Westall was not enough to stop the Hearts going down to defeat for the second week running. The Hearts' strikers brace was rewarded with a man of the match award. ::TRANSFER NEWS:: The hearts attack has been bolstered by the re-signing of attacker Adolfo Crocifissa from Kenkai Eselsparks. Cameroonian 'keeper Jean-Espoir Sylvain moved the other way in the deal, along with Blythe Trist and Gabe Dougherty.
