

EINNEK NEWS

Welcome to Week 16.

Youth League

As we start the third tournament, again a large number of managers failed to submit their sides for the opening fixtures. The big red message on your side's management page should be a good enough reminder, but it seems not! Please remember there is no break between youth fixtures. Having to submit sides takes me time and today was the latest start time for a turn in ages. – because of this the proposed new Team of the Week will now not debut in the youth league until next week.

Errors/Questions

I have had a couple of messages from managers saying others have commented that I have not replied to their emails. You will all know I cannot reply right away, but will always do so as long as you email to the correct address – richard@einnek.co.uk. Do not reply to the turn email or send any emails to the turn address as it is not setup for incoming emails and I will not get them.

Have a great weekend,
Richard.

Subs: Baark Ven Der Nailn 7, Vuko Ljubicic 7, Johnny Nazareen 6, Monfred Gabel -. EE: ~LAST WEEK~ As predicted a draw at home to Achillean Druids, however a high scoring affair so a welcome bonus point. ELA were ahead three times in the game but just couldn't get that crucial 2 goal lead to put the game to bed and suffered as a result. ~TRANSFERS~ An 11th hour speculative bid from Risky Al pushed through a deal late in the day on Thursday evening. Burton was reluctant to put his plans on hold but he felt that the offer outweighed the risks and Cohete, Jalabrev, Callopy and Toircse joined the fold with Cuesta, Soto, Ventura and Erlings going in the other direction. ~ THIS WEEK~ An away trip to Veleno. Burton is delighted that super mario is suspended and couldn't of picked a better time to play them in the league. Burton is hopeful of his first away win of the season with a massive skill point advantage but also knows that home advantage could well make the difference. With a cup game against Veleno looming in 2 weeks time Burton knows he will probably lose one of the games and if given the choice would probably prefer a win in the semi of the cup to make his first final appearance at the expense of 3 points today! However a 4-3 win feels on the cards :-) ~INTERNATIONALS~ Raula should play some part for Spain A and Nalin again could play some part for South African B. ~YOUTH TEAM~ Another unsurprising defeat to end the season. Burton is against basement huggers Olde Seven Stars so expects a win today. ~AND FINALLY~ Burton wanted to wish Bad Gag Bob a very happy birthday.

BW: Most games seem to be looking like potential relegation scraps for Black Widows nowadays, simply due to the tightness of the division, and today is no exception. Eselsparks have been playing well in recent weeks, and home advantage makes for slippery opposition for Big Spennnda this week. TRANSFERS: The manager lived up to his moniker this week by splashing out on Mikhail Kropivkin, although many would agree the price was a snip for the experienced Ruskie. Fellow Ivanoff playmaker Cristian Reanezo also comes in. TEAM NEWS: It's full strength for the Widows today, meaning a mouth-watering back four of Kiah, Sinis, McEwan and Kropivkin. Reanezo and Quesada make up an inexperienced South American midfield while up front Villanueva returns after suspension to make what could be a final Einnek appearance. YOUTH LEAGUE: The new season kicks off where last season's ended - a tricky meeting with Mr Allcock's SVC07. Not much is expected come the end of the game, with the addition of Ikin Nova from BSO the only change from last week.

Wynk and Holtzhausen return in defence and Prettyleg takes over from Rocha in midfield. THIS WEEK: The Hearts take on the Shooters hoping to avenge the 2-1 reversal suffered back in week five. Only four players who started that game start today for the Gorgie Boys. Both teams are evenly matched and Wolters will be hoping his side can extend their club record run of seven games without defeat. LAST WEEK: Despite scoring an early goal the Hearts were pegged back to a 1-1 draw away to fellow promotion hopefuls Darwin Disciples. Estavan Barichello saved a late penalty on his way to picking up the much deserved man of the match accolade. YOUTH LEAGUE: Promising Youngster Matthijs Van Oldenbarnevelt has signed a youth contract. The young Dutchman was spotted playing in an amateur team by one of the Hearts scouts on a recent trip to the Netherlands.

CU: Due to an amazing fan turn out at Chesterman Utd's last 6 games 5 of which have been away from home manager Lawrence long has decided to reward the fans by selling tickets to the game with Littleton Rovers for just £15. Long is happy with the way the team has been performing and is hoping to get the fans behind the team to push for promotion and try and brake there all-time attendance record and also entice some new fan's as long understand that tickets to games are a lot of money so hopefully this will enable fans who cant afford to attend every game to attend this one our ground holds 70,000 but we never have more than 42,000 so we are hoping to have at least 50,000 turn up for this crunch match.
