

EINNEK NEWS

Hello and welcome to Week 18. We are moving into the final stretch of the season and everything is still pretty much open. Good luck to you all.

Youth League

The promotions idea suggested by Mark Corder has had some interesting comments on the blog and to me directly by email. I will explore some options and see what I can come up with in the next couple of weeks.

A suggestion relating to the age of newly introduced players seems to have gathered pace in recent weeks. I will be looking to adjust the range that new youth players are introduced at but it will not be going down as low as many of you like. The most likely alteration is the limit at the upper end of the age range.

EFA Cup

The semi finals are due to be played on Monday. Please do not forget to get your teams in if you are playing. There are 2 internationals to be played as well, so everyone will get a turn sheet emailed to them.

Enjoy the short weekend,
Richard.

SAMMY BULL

Mr Bull has announced he will not be making any further players available until after Easter while he reviews his operation from top to bottom. Lack of interest in his players has astonished the veteran agent and he has promised the next batch of players will be better than they have ever been.

The Hearts were on the receiving end of a 4-3 reversal last time the two teams met back in week 7. Gornal Ship scored two in that game and was the Hearts' scorer the first time the clubs ever met back in Season Three. In a recent article Wolters was praised for assembling the "best Hearts team ever" and that it was surely just a matter of time before the team "regained first division status".

RR: Team news: Corder gives a debut to new signing MacNamara in the hope that he continues his rich vein of form and supports the reason for the deal. Hooqadew and Gnaehrich also find their way straight into the Redroc Rovers first team on debut. Transers: With the sale of Darkus Makenzoo, manager Mark Corder became the first manager this season to sell the complete first team which he inherited. The surprise was the sale of Troy Ayers jr, who Corder believes will do well, but reckons that the building programme for next season and mainly the season after had to remain on track. Ambitions now are to consolidate this season, progress next season and then win something in Corder's third season in charge. With his previous experience of management, Corder sees this as a commitment to his backers and something he thinks his current plans are on course to achieve.
