

EINNEK NEWS

Hello and welcome to Week 19. As we approach the final 3 weeks of the season, can I ask if you are planning to leave the game you let me know, thanks. Also, if you have any friends who are looking to join in, please let me know so I can get the waiting list all up-to-date with prospective managers.

Youth League

The age limit changes are still under consideration. I will make an announcement this week. While the "agents" idea suggested by Mark Corder is proving interesting and many of you have some wildly different opinions. This will take a bit more thought on my part before anything happens.

Enjoy the long weekend,
Richard.

SAMMY BULL

Mr Bull has announced he will not be making any further players available until after Easter while he reviews his operation from top to bottom. Lack of interest in his players has astonished the veteran agent and he has promised the next batch of players will be better than they have ever been.

ALLESSANDRO IVANOFF

"Home games against Ledge's like The Henf and Herdo are not what we want at this delicate stage of proceedings but we know we have the players of such experience in big games to pull it off" ... its widely known Gaffa Croasy needs no tips on pulling off big ones ... ~AND FINALLY~ Since gaffa Croasy started the Manager of the Month Award, hes had no bloody chance of winning it but we start a fresh this month and the feeling is it will be a Good Friday in the Croasdale household CH: Finally 3 goals in a league game! Hearts put in their best performance of the season in the 3-1 pasting of title rivals ELA. It also earn't them their first TotW performance this season & suggests things may be coming right at the perfect time. Buoyed by this result Hearts travel to BSO to face Marky Marks funky bunch. BSO are struggling to reach last season's dizzy heights but are still a formidable force & manager Stu Henfrey knows his team will have to be at their very best to get anything out of the game. Cesar & Andrés are both carrying injuries & will have fitness tests at the last minute & should they fail to start then new signing Marroquin is waiting to show his worth. Clay is also in line to start in defence if Hearts keep their 4-3-3 line up. Detheridge left Hearts this weeks after Stu Henfrey finally gave in to Rich Weltons persistent badgering! Heron youth star Coriagga moved in the opposite direction & he is a player whom Stu Henfrey has high hopes for & has been after for weeks. He starts in place of Macías for the youth team this week against Olde Seven Stars & another win is expected as Hearts look to continue their 100% start. Sevenoaks, Coffman, Offondo & Blade are all expected to feature in this weeks World Cup Quarter Final clash between USA & England.

WLW: After a few quiet weeks on the transfer front Warriors this week made some big changes for the last 4 crucial games. In comes long term targets Detheridge and Flament who both described this as their dream move! Also playing this turn is young bull mid Salvi who has a bright future ahead of him but maybe not at Warriors! Crowd favourite Nivien Kirriemuir also returns while Karmalo has to sit out the next 2 games before making his debut. The return of Kirriemuir helped ease the shock of Dole and Demetrio leaving but manager Welton feels it was for the long term benefit of the team and hoped it would secure promotion to the Prem this season.

Niildo is preferred in goal over Estavan Barichello, who drops to the bench. ::THIS WEEK:: The Hearts travel to Home Park to take on Bongosboyz. Wolters admits that John Martin's side will provide the Hearts with a difficult challenge. Despite being bottom of the table, Martin's men picked up a valuable victory over Corton Wanderers and Wolters men will be looking to avoid a similar fate this week. ::LAST WEEK:: A late Reuben Gouwe header earned the Hearts victory over AFC Kennington. The victory took the club record to ten games unbeaten and keeps the Gorgie boys in the promotion hunt.
