

EINNEK NEWS

Welcome to Week 2's turn. A busy week has seen the additional of player performance histories for all current Einnek players added. The next step in this feature is to add all the records of all former players to the website. Also, I will be adding more information about every player's original source; so you can all argue over who actually introduces the best players!

International Captains

The boards of the various national associations have met and nominated their captain for the forthcoming season. The full list is;

Argentina - Dario Quinterios (FC Leithen), Australia - William English (Elland Mythicals), Brazil - Purisco Mercurilaca (Rael Nerrad), Cameroon - Joel Diuedonni (SVC07), Colombia - Juan Pablo Simancas (Southern Cross Prophets), Croatia - Drago Korenic (IKB Pirates), England - Adam Greyskull (Kenkai Eselsparks), France - Banastre Tarleton (Darwin Disciples), Germany - Turnie Boch (Yellowknife Industries), Italy - Giacomo Gentilo (Stoneleigh Baybears), Japan - Kym Hasakimoro (Redroc Rovers), Mexico - Alejandro Cesar Silva (Gorgie Hearts), Netherlands - Koenraad Mastenbroek (Dixieland Deliverance), Russia - Sergey Feofilakt (Whitechapel Rovers), Scotland - Fran Tennant (Chesterman United), South Africa - Gabriel Ba (Littleton Rovers), Spain - Iriome Elusundo (Nighthawks), Sweden - Larrs Skovengberg (Black Star Olympic), United States - Danny Chunkster (Walmington Rovers) & Wales - Rodri Nefyn (AC Legacy).

Youth League

Preparations for the youth league are progressing well and the first full play test will happen late next week. Assuming that goes as planned we will be all systems go for a Week 5 start. I have been talking to a number of managers about international points limits in the youth league and have decided the limit will rise from 3 IPs to 6 with immediate effect.

Dealing Limits

With the youth league's incorporation a couple of managers have questioned the 50 deal per season limit. I am considering removing this limit, but would welcome any views via email of the forum before I make a final decision.

Have a good weekend,
Richard.

Cruso midfielder Osias also joined the club ~THIS WEEK~ Sees the visit to Bukigura, one of the lesser teams in terms of skill points, Burton knows he needs to takes some points away from these type of games of he is to do well this season! ~INTERNATIONALS~ None this week ~AND FINALLY~

"I hope the lads don't think they turn into 'big time charlies' because of the attention they will be getting. I hope they use this as a chance to give the fans something back after their terrific support in back to back promotions over the past 2 seasons." Novice film maker Daniel Vance said "We want to create something special here. The show will air on a Thursday night for 1 hour with no adverts. That's how I roll! It'll feature interviews amongst some reportage filming. This isn't Soccer a.m.'s team mates or crossbar challenge, this is the real deal. I hope fans of all clubs will appreciate what we are trying to achieve." In the opening episode there was footage of a pre season bounce game between the youngsters and the veterans. Young Dutch striker Arie Cato played well and the club have put a press ban on him as they want to keep him out of the spotlight just now. Maybe as the series progresses Danny Vance and the team can interview him. The club have high hopes this season after winning division 1 on the final day last season. Some of the big names will have to steer clear of injury for success. World cup finalist Fraser Cools will start behind what could become a strong, experienced defence in Ragnar Soderberg, Dagfinn Emil, Quantizao and young pretender Julian Chavez Chacon. In midfield captain Snuffy Walden hopes to reach the quarters with England as well as having a successful season with Star. Also in midfield are Toirce and Poulter who have so far been rotated alongside the snuffster but will be hoping to rise in skill this season. Up front is also exciting where Jallabrev will start alongside rejuvenated Villanueva. Its up to the remaining strikers, Baptista, Nazareen and Kozub to fight for the starting berths. All in all exciting times ahead. Lets hope the players aren't themselves "Star-Struck" in the top flight. BSO: ~LAST WEEK~ Cruso legend Kaspar Fasjovik carried on his electric form from the Cup Fianl with another brace against SVC as Team Funk Bunch came from behind to steal the spoils 2-1 in the opening day fixture Full Debuts from Atlau Santos, Hideo Takashi were pleasing for the BSO Bossman but the startling debut of Masahiro Ichi 7/10 was overseen by close friends Scratchy and Krusty bum tisch ... ~TRANSFERS~ A couple of Youth team switches is all to report this week despite Gaffa Croasy making known his new unwrapped Cruso is available for a tempting offer ~THIS WEEK~ The Celestial Dome is host to two bright Stars as Coruscant take on Black Olympic in its first ever Prem League fixture ... ~TEAM SELECTION~ Dash-heart is back fit ~PREVIOUS MEETINGS~ The league careers of both clubs Coruscant D2 D2 D2 D1 Pr vs Olympics D3 Pr Pr Pr Pr means this is the first meeting ... ~STAT BURST~ HSP CS +12 v BSO +11(+2), AGG 30 v 33, MOR +17 v +20 ... ~INTERNATIONALLY~ Larrs Skovengberg goes for the Swedes in their first game of the ew World Cup campaign, Mexican thingy tries to get a spot for the B team Tournie ... ie Atlau Santos ~YOUTH LEAGUE~ The Croasy Kindergarten is growing steadily with Heron gloveman Kenzo Wakasugi, capped jocks Dixie Tack and Connor Macgregor plus Kram League capture Hairam Swainenburg all joining this week ~WHERE ARE THEY NOW~ Coruscant striker Santiago Villanueva had a spell at the Hole spanning 3 seasons and 24 goals (if my memory serves me correct :)), strike partner Zezu Baptista managed 18apps + 6 in the black and red halves, whereas central midfielder Jacobin Poulter squeezed in just 1 sub app Interestingly BSO kingpin Kaja Sinis started the last 4 seasons at Murpho's team, but 6 moves last season saw him end up at Black Star in two separate spells !, interestingly ~MANAGER QUOTE~ rumours lack of sleep is detracting from the BSO Bossmans management was denied this week after a picture appeared in the local press with his feet hanging out a cot and Croasy Junior, Luke tapping on his managers desk PC with a constipated look on his face trying to reply to an offer from The Henf !.... ~AND FINALLY~ The awesome new player stats provided by EFA bigwig, the Balfer, had Gaffa Croasy in left click heaven as the 4 season info gave the game a real history trail ...

After many attempts at securing his signature manager Stu Henfrey landed the player he has coveted most since the start of the NGE. After spending the whole of the pre-season in hospital Stu Henfrey has made up for lost time this week with 6 deals done with 16 full & youth team players leaving & only 8 coming in. Further deals are planned to bolster both squads this week but Stu Henfrey is said to be very happy with the business done & the look of both the full & youth teams but as always there is room for improvement!!

Shouted Rovers boss Steve Farnden, ahead of his sides crucial grudge match against his arch rivals. "What a game for the LEGEND that is DANNY CHUNKSTER to make his 100th appearance. And he will punish them...He always does!! We are high in confidence following a fine performance last week at Dixieland, where we more than deserved our point". Farnden continued. "I salute Richie Welton for the side he has assembled. But our long standing friendship is put on hold this Friday. Although I will buy him a pint after the game once we've beaten them...it's the right thing to do." !!! WLW: After a great opening day win Warriors now make the journey across the sea to their main rivals and old age pensioners Wilmington Rovers. While the Rovers fans are sipping their tea and eating biscuits the huge army of Warriors fans will be out celebrating a anticipated easy victory and showing the Jersey ladies a good time which the mainly camp Rovers fans are unable to do!!On the transfer front long time target Hanzi Merikano makes his debut and promises to let Rovers legend Danny Chunkster out of his pocket at the end of the match so he can celebrate his 100th game. Warriors supreme Welton is looking forward to a few beers after the game and the annual Farnden/Welton dance-off with Welton promising a few new moves in a tribute to the late Michael Jackson....Shamon!!!
